R E S O L V E D

THAT the Articles of Association of the Company be amended as follows:

- (i) By the deletion in Article 1 of the definitions of "in writing" or "written" and by the insertion of the following revised definition:

References to "writing" means the representation or reproduction of words, symbols or other information in a visible and non-transitory form by any method or combination of methods, whether comprised in electronic form or otherwise, and "written" shall be construed accordingly.

- (ii) By the insertion in Article 1 of a new definition, as follows:

References to "signed" includes any form of authentication, as specified in legislation, including by electronic means.

- (iii) By the insertion in Article 1 of a new definition, as follows:

"The Board" means the Directors or any of them acting as the Board of Directors of the Company.

- (iv) By the insertion in Article 1 of a new definition, as follows:

"Legislation" means every statute (and any orders, regulations or other subordinate legislation made under it) applying to the Company.

- (v) By the insertion in Article 1 of a new definition, as follows:

"References to a "document" include, unless the context otherwise requires, references to documents sent or received by electronic means."

- (vi) By the deletion of Article 74 and by the insertion of the following revised Article 74:

"A resolution in writing, signed by all of the Directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board or of a committee of the Board (not being less than the number of Directors required to form a quorum of the Board or a committee of the Board), shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board or (as the case may be) a committee of the Board duly convened and held. For this purpose:

- (a) A resolution may be by means of an instrument or a communication in electronic form sent to such address (if any) for the time being notified by the Company for that purpose;
- (b) A resolution may consist of several instruments or communications in electronic form, each signed by one or more Directors, or a combination of both;
- (c) A resolution signed by an alternate Director need not also be signed by his appointer; and
- (d) A resolution signed by a Director who has appointed an alternate Director need not also be signed by the alternate Director in that capacity."

- (vii) By the deletion of Article 75 and by the insertion of the following revised Article 75:

"All or any of the members of the Board or a committee of the Board may participate in a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board by means of a conference telephone or any communication equipment which allows all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other. A person so participating shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall be entitled to vote or be counted in a quorum accordingly. A resolution passed at a meeting in accordance with this Article shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a physical face-to-face meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board duly convened and held."

Certified copy of resolutions in writing (resolution 1 to have effect as an ordinary resolution and resolution 2 to have effect as a special resolution) passed on 29 September 2008 by all the members of the Company who were at the date thereof entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting of the Company pursuant to Section 288(5), Companies Act 2006:

Ordinary resolution in accordance with section 282 of the Companies Act 2006:

1. THAT, in accordance with paragraph 47(3) , Schedule 4, Companies Act 2006 (Commencement No. 5, Transitional Provisions and Savings) Order 2007, the directors be and hereby are given authority to authorise matters giving rise to an actual or potential conflict for the purposes of section 175 of the Companies Act 2006.

Special resolution in accordance with section 283 of the Companies Act 2006:

2. THAT the Articles of Association are hereby amended as follows:

- (a) By substituting for the existing article 65 the following article:

"65 Subject to the provisions of the Act, and provided that he has disclosed to the Directors the nature and extent of any material interest of his, a director notwithstanding his office

(1) may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested;

(2) may be a Director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate promoted by the Company or in which the company is otherwise interested;

(3) shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he derives from any such office or employment or from any such transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit;

(4) may be or become a Director or other officer of, or employed by or otherwise be interested in any holding company or subsidiary company of the Company or any other subsidiary company of the ultimate holding company of the Company or any other company in which the Company or ultimate holding company or any subsidiary company thereof may be interested; and

(5) may be or become a Director of any other company in which the Company does not have an interest and which cannot reasonably be regarded as giving rise to a conflict of interest at the time of his appointment as a director of that other company.

Subject where applicable to disclosure in accordance with this Article, a Director shall be entitled to vote in respect of any contract or proposed contract in which he is directly or indirectly interested and if he shall do so his vote shall be counted and he shall be taken into account in ascertaining whether a quorum is present. A reference in this Article to a contract includes any transaction or arrangement (whether or not constituting a contract.)

For the purposes of this Article

- (a) a general notice given to the Directors that a Director is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the notice in any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the Director has an interest in any such transaction of the nature and extent so specified; and
 - (b) an interest of which a Director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his.
- (b) By the addition of a new article 66 as follows and renumbering subsequent articles accordingly:

“66 (1) The board may, subject to the quorum and voting requirements set out in this Article, authorise or appoint any committee to authorise any matter which would otherwise involve a Director breaching his duty under the Companies Act 2006 to avoid conflicts of interest and duty and a conflict of duties (“Conflict”).

(2) A Director seeking authorisation in respect of a Conflict shall declare to the Board the nature and extent of his interest in a Conflict as soon as is reasonably practicable. The Director shall provide the board with such details of the relevant matter as are necessary for the board to decide how to address the Conflict together with such additional information as may be requested by the board.

(3) Any Director (including the relevant Director) may propose that the relevant Director be authorised in relation to any matter the subject of a Conflict. Such proposal and any authority given by the board shall be effected in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to and resolved upon by the board under the provisions of these Articles save that:

- (i) the relevant Director and any other Director with a similar interest shall not count towards the quorum nor vote on any resolution giving such authority; and
- (ii) the relevant Director and any other Director with a similar interest may, if the other members of the board so decide, be excluded from any board meeting while the Conflict is under consideration.

(4) Where the board gives authority in relation to a Conflict:

- (5) the board may (whether at the time of giving the authority or subsequently (a) require that the relevant Director is excluded from the receipt of information, the participation in discussion and/or the making of decisions (whether at meetings of the board or otherwise) related to the Conflict; and (b) impose upon the relevant Director such other terms for the purpose of dealing with the Conflict as it may determine;

(5) the relevant Director will be obliged to conduct himself in accordance with any terms imposed by the board in relation the Conflict;

(iii) the Board may provide that where the relevant Director obtains (otherwise than through his position as a Director of the Company information that is confidential to a third party, the Director will not be obliged to disclose that information to the Company, or to use or apply the information in relation to the Company's affairs, where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence;

(iv) the terms of the authority shall be recorded in writing (but the authority shall be effective whether or not the terms are so recorded); and

(v) the board may revoke or vary such authority at any time but this will not affect anything done by the relevant Director prior to such revocation in accordance with the terms of such authority.

(5) The board may suspend or relax the provisions of this Article to any extent."

Ordinary Resolutions

4. THAT the authorised share capital of the Company be increased to £1,537,500,000 by the creation of 600,000,000 B Preference Shares of 25p each having the rights more particularly described in the proposed amendments to the Articles of Association of the Company referred to in Resolution 4.
5. THAT the existing 1,000,000,000 Preference Shares of £1 each in the Company be re-classified as 1,000,000,000 A Preference Shares of £1 each.
6. THAT pursuant to and in accordance with Section 80 of the Companies Act 1985 (as amended) (the "Act") the Directors be generally and unconditionally authorised to exercise all powers of the Company to allot relevant securities (within the meaning of Section 80 of the Act) up to an aggregate nominal amount of £1,427,902,936.50 (being the unissued share capital of the Company) provided that this authority shall expire 5 years from the date of this resolution save that the Company may before such expiry make an offer or agreement which would or might require relevant securities to be allotted after such expiry and the Directors may allot the relevant security in pursuance of such an offer or agreement as if the authority conferred hereby had not expired.

Special Resolution

7. THAT the Articles of Association of the Company are hereby amended as follows:

(1) Article 1

Replace the current definition of "Share" with the following:

""Share" means a share in the Company (including a preference share)."

(2) Article 2

Replace the current Article 2 with the following:

“2(1) The share capital of the Company as at the date of the latest amendment to these Articles of Association is £1,537,500,000 divided into:

- (iv) 1,550,000,000 shares of 25p each,
- (v) 1,000,000,000 A Preference Shares of £1 each, and
- (vi) 600,000,000 B Preference Shares of 25p each.

A Preference Shares

2(2) The A Preference Shares shall confer upon the holders thereof as a separate class the following rights:

Income

(a) As to income, the A Preference Shares shall confer upon the holders thereof the right in priority to any payment by way of Dividend of the Company to receive (exclusive of any imputed tax credit available to shareholders) a cumulative preferential Dividend (the "A Preferential Dividend").

(b) The A Preferential Dividend shall in respect of each A Preference Share from time to time in issue be at the Specified Gilt Rate plus 0.8778% per annum in respect of each year or part year ending on any date for payment of the A Preferential Dividend as determined pursuant to article 2(2)(c)(i) (a "Dividend Period") increased by the percentage increase in the index of retail prices published by the Office for National Statistics (the "Retail Prices Index") from the date 30 days prior to the date of the first issue by the Company of any A Preference Shares to the date 30 days prior to the last day of the relevant Dividend Period, and proportionately for any part of a year from the date of issue of the relevant A Preference Shares. For the purposes of this article 2(2)(b), the "Specified Gilt Rate" shall be the prospective real redemption rate, based on a projected inflation rate of 3%, of 2.5% index linked 2016 UK gilts, based on an RPI base for indexing of 81.6, as quoted in the Financial Times on the day 30 days prior to the last day of the relevant Dividend Period (or if the Financial Times is not published on such day, on the first day prior to that day on which it is published, and if the Financial Times does not contain the relevant information, as determined by the Company's auditors for the time being).

(c) Subject to Part VIII of the Companies Act 1985 (as amended) (the 1985 Act) the A Preferential Dividend shall be:

(i) paid (exclusive of any imputed tax credit available to shareholders) on each anniversary of the first issue by the Company of any A Preference Shares or on such other date in each year as the Directors of the Company shall in their absolute discretion determine (the "Dividend Payment Date") provided that the Directors of the Company shall have no discretion to determine a Dividend Payment Date such that a period of more than one year shall have elapsed on such Dividend Payment Date since the last payment of the A Preferential Dividend; and

(ii) without any resolution of the Directors of the Company in general meeting (and notwithstanding anything contained in Regulations 102 to 108 (inclusive) of Table A of the 1985 Act) accrue from day to day and on each such anniversary (or, as the case may be, on each Dividend Payment Date) become a debt due from and immediately payable by the Company to the holders of the A Preference Shares pro rata according to the number of A Preference Shares held by each such shareholder, as the case may be.

Redemption

(d) Subject to the 1985 Act, all the A Preference Shares then in issue shall be redeemed by the Company without notice, on 8 May 2016.

(e) Where any A Preference Shares are to be redeemed in accordance with Article 2(2)(d) above, the Company shall be obliged, prior to making any payment to any other shareholder or shareholders of the Company, subject to having sufficient available profits or other monies which may be lawfully applied for such redemption, to redeem in full the relevant number of A Preference Shares on the date fixed for their redemption and to pay to the relevant holder of the relevant A Preference Shares an amount (the "Redemption Monies") equal to £1.2808 increased by the percentage increase in the Retail Prices Index from the date 30 days prior to the date of the first issue by the Company of any A Preference Shares to the date 30 days prior to 8 May 2016 for each such A Preference Share, and such amounts shall, subject to the Company having available profits or other monies which may be lawfully applied for such redemption, at that time become a debt due from and immediately payable by the Company to the holders of such A Preference Shares. If and to the extent that the debt so constituted is not paid in full on the due date, the unpaid amount shall carry interest at an annual rate of 2% above the base rate from time to time of HSBC Bank Plc in respect of the period from and including the due date down to and including the date of actual payment.

(f) If the Company is unable, because of having insufficient available profits or other monies which may be lawfully applied for such redemption, to redeem in full the relevant number of A Preference Shares on the date fixed for their redemption, the Company shall redeem as many of such A Preference Shares as can lawfully and properly be redeemed and shall redeem the balance as soon as it is lawfully and properly able to do so.

(g) On the date fixed for redemption, each of the holders of A Preference Shares falling to be redeemed shall be bound to deliver to the Company, at the Company's registered office, the certificate(s) for such A Preference Shares (or an indemnity, in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Directors, in respect of any lost certificate(s)) in order that the same may be cancelled. Upon such delivery, the Company shall pay to the holder (or, in the case of any joint holders, to the holder whose name stands first in the Company's register of members in respect of such A Preference Shares) the amount due to it in respect of such redemption against delivery of a proper receipt for the Redemption Monies.

Capital

(h) On a return of capital on winding-up or capital reduction or otherwise (a "Return of Capital"), the holders of the A Preference Shares shall be entitled, in priority to any payment to the holders of any other class of shares, to the repayment of a sum calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{RPI} * £(1.2808^{N/15})$$

Where N is equal to the number of years (including fractions of a year) which have elapsed between the date of issue of the relevant A Preference Share and the date of the Return of Capital; and

RPI is equal to the Retail Prices Index on the date of the Return of Capital divided by the Retail Prices Index on the date of issue of the relevant A Preference Share.

Further participation

(i) The holders of the A Preference Shares shall not be entitled to any further right of participation in the profits or other assets of the Company.

General Meeting

(j) The holders of the A Preference Shares shall, by virtue of and in respect of their holdings of the A Preference Shares, have the right to receive notice of, attend, speak and vote at a General Meeting of the Company only if a resolution is to be proposed abrogating, varying or modifying any of the rights or privileges of the holders of the A Preference Shares (in which case they shall only be entitled to vote on such resolution).

(k) Except in the circumstances set out above, the holders of the A Preference Shares shall not have the right to receive notice of, attend, speak or vote at any General Meeting of the Company.

Voting

(l) Whenever the holders of the A Preference Shares are entitled to vote on a resolution at a General Meeting of the Company, on a show of hands, every such holder who is present in person or (being a corporation) by a representative shall have one vote and, on a poll, every such holder who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote in respect of each fully-paid A Preference Share registered in the name of such holder.

B Preference Shares

2(3) The B Preference Shares shall confer upon the holders thereof as a separate class the following rights:

Income

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Article 2(3), the holder of each B Preference Share shall be entitled to be paid in respect of such B Preference Share, out of the profits of the Company available for distribution, a non-cumulative preferential Dividend (the "B Preference Dividend") which shall accrue at the rate of two pence per annum, excluding any associated tax credit.

(b) Subject to the provisions of this Article 2(3), the B Preference Dividend shall be payable only on dates selected for the purposes of this Article 2(3) by resolution of the Directors or dates on which it is proposed that the Company will pay a Dividend on any share of any other class issued by it (each a "Dividend Date").

(c) The amount of B Preference Dividend in respect of each B Preference Share shall accrue from the date of issue of such B Preference Share to the first Dividend Date and from one Dividend Date to the next Dividend Date, but shall be reset to zero immediately following each Dividend Date whether or not any B Preference Dividend is paid on such Dividend Date.

(d) Other than Dividends payable on the A Preference Shares, no Dividend shall be paid on any Dividend Date on any share of any other class issued by the Company unless the full amount of the B Preference Dividend which has accrued on each B Preference Share by such Dividend Date is paid in full on such Dividend Date.

(e) Subject to the provisions of this Article 2(3), any Preference Dividend payable on a Dividend Date shall, without any resolution of the Directors or of the Company in general meeting (and notwithstanding anything contained in Table A), become a debt due from and immediately payable by the Company to the holder of each B Preference Share entitled thereto.

(f) The B Preference Dividend in respect of each B Preference Share shall be payable on a Dividend Date only in an amount determined by resolution of the Directors, being an amount –

- (i) not greater than the amount of the B Preference Dividend which has accrued on such B Preference Share by that Dividend Date;
- (ii) bearing such proportion to the amount determined to be payable on each other B Preference Share on that Dividend Date as the proportion borne by the respective amounts of B Preference Dividend which have accrued on such B Preference Share and such other B

Preference Share by that Dividend Date;

- (iii) such that the aggregate B Preference Dividend thereby payable on the B Preference Shares on that Dividend Date will not exceed the profits of the Company available for distribution on that Dividend Date;
- (iv) such that, following the payment of the aggregate B Preference Dividend thereby payable on the B Preference Shares on that Dividend Date, the Company will continue to maintain capital resources equal to or in excess of its capital resources requirement, as required by rule 2.1.9 of the Integrated Prudential Sourcebook published by the Financial Services Authority, as amended, modified, supplemented or replaced from time to time (the "Prudential Sourcebook"); and
- (v) otherwise, in the discretion of the Directors, which discretion shall include the discretion to determine that the aggregate B Preference Dividend payable on that Dividend Date will be zero.

(g) Notwithstanding any contrary provision in these Articles, the Company shall in any event have the right not to declare or pay a Preference Dividend whether by cash payment or otherwise, and neither the Company nor any Director shall have any liability to any holder of any B Preference Share in respect of such non-declaration or non-payment.

(h) The amount of B Preference Dividend (if any) payable on a B Preference Share in respect of any period shorter or longer than one year shall be calculated on the basis of a 365 day year and the actual number of days elapsed in such period.

Return of Capital

(i) On a redemption of a B Preference Share pursuant to Article 2(3)(1), the assets of the Company available for distribution among the members shall be applied pro rata in payment to the holder of each B Preference Share being redeemed, in priority to any payment to the holder of any share of any other class issued by the Company:

- (i) first, the nominal amount of such B Preference Share; and
- (ii) second, a sum equal to any B Preference Dividend which has accrued on such B Preference Share by the date of redemption.

(j) On a return of capital on a winding up or otherwise, the assets of the Company available for distribution among the members shall be applied:

- (i) first, pro rata, in payment –
 - (A) to the holder of each B Preference Share, the aggregate of the nominal amount of such B Preference Share and a sum equal to any Preference Dividend which has accrued by the date of the winding up; and

(B) to the holder of each share of any other class issued by the Company, the nominal amount of such share; and

(ii) second, in distribution pro rata to the holder of each share of any other class issued by the Company, the nominal amount of such share.

Further Participation

(k) The B Preference Shares do not confer any further right of participation in the profits or assets of the Company.

Redemption

(l) (i) The B Preference Shares may not be redeemed otherwise than at the option of the Company.

(ii) Subject to –

(A) the provisions of the Act;

(B) the Company giving prior notice of the proposed redemption to the Financial Services Authority (“FSA”) in accordance with rule 2.2.72 of the Prudential Sourcebook and the period of one month from the date of such notice having expired without any objection thereto having been received from the FSA;

(C) the Company being for the time being in compliance with rule 2.1.9 of the Prudential Sourcebook; and

(D) the calculated effect of the proposed redemption being such that it will continue to be in compliance with rule 2.1.9 of the Prudential Sourcebook;

the Company may redeem any issued B Preference Share in accordance with this Article 2(3)(l) at any time after (but not on) the fifth anniversary of the date of issue of such B Preference Share (each such date, a “Redemption Date”).

(iii) On the Redemption Date in respect of a B Preference Share, the Company shall pay to the holder of the B Preference Share an amount equal to the sum of –

(A) the nominal amount of the B Preference Share; and

- (B) a sum equal to any unpaid B Preference Dividend which has accrued on the B Preference Share by the Redemption Date.

The amount payable in respect of a B Preference Share to be redeemed on any Redemption Date comprises the “redemption money” in respect of that B Preference Share.

- (iv) On the Redemption Date in respect of a B Preference Share, the redemption money payable in respect of the B Preference Share shall be paid to the holder of such B Preference Share in cash, including by cheque or electronic funds transfer. Payment shall be made against receipt by the Company of the relevant share certificate (or an indemnity in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Directors in respect of a share certificate which cannot be produced). If the holder of the B Preference Share produces neither the share certificate nor a satisfactory indemnity, the Company may retain the relevant redemption money until delivery of the certificate or a satisfactory indemnity. The Company shall cancel share certificates in respect of redeemed B Preference Shares.

Voting

(m) The holder of a B Preference Share shall be entitled to receive notice of and to attend and speak at general meetings of the Company. The holder of a B Preference Share may not vote at general meetings of the Company unless –

- (i) a resolution is proposed in relation to the winding up of the company, a voluntary arrangement with creditors of the Company or the proposed receivership, administrative receivership or administration of the Company; or
- (ii) a resolution is proposed in relation to an alteration of the rights of the B Preference Shares or in relation to any other matter which will have detrimental effect upon the rights of the B Preference Shares (in which case, for the avoidance of doubt, the holders of the B Preference Shares shall also vote as a class and, if the holders of the B Preference Shares are to vote as a class, the provisions of these Articles with respect to notice of and proceedings at general meetings and written resolutions shall apply mutatis mutandis);

in which case each B Preference Share shall carry the right to one vote (which may be exercised only on such a resolution) at any general meeting of the Company.”

THE COMPANIES ACT 1985
COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES
THE PRUDENTIAL ASSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED

Certified copy of resolutions in writing passed on 23 March 2005 by all of the members of The Prudential Assurance Company Limited (the "Company"), pursuant to Section 381A of the Companies Act 1985 (as amended), such following resolutions 1 and 2 to have effect as ordinary resolutions of the Company and resolutions 3 and 4 to have effect as special resolutions of the Company:

Ordinary Resolutions

8. THAT the authorised share capital of the Company be increased to £1,387,500,000 by the creation of an additional 1,200,000,000 shares of 25p each ranking pari passu with all existing shares of 25p each in the capital of the Company in issue at the date of the passing of this resolution;
9. THAT pursuant to and in accordance with Section 80 of the Companies Act 1985 (as amended) (the "Act") the Directors be generally and unconditionally authorised to exercise all powers of the Company to allot relevant securities (within the meaning of Section 80 of the Act) up to an aggregate nominal amount of £1,311,902,936.50 provided that this authority shall expire 5 years from the date of this resolution save that the Company may before such expiry make an offer or agreement which would or might require relevant securities to be allotted after such expiry and the Directors may allot the relevant security in pursuance of such an offer or agreement as if the authority conferred hereby had not expired.

Special Resolutions

10. THAT, subject to the passing of resolution 2 above, the Directors be empowered pursuant to section 95 of the Companies Act 1985 to allot or agree to allot equity securities in the capital of the Company pursuant to and during the period of authority conferred by resolution 2 above as if Section 89(1) of the Companies Act 1985 (as amended) did not apply to any such allotment save that the Company may before the expiry of this authority make any offer or agreement which would or might require equity securities to be allotted after this authority had expired and the Directors may allot equity securities in pursuance of any such offer or agreement as if the power conferred hereby had not expired. For the purposes of this resolution the expression "equity securities" and "allot" shall bear the meanings respectively given to the same in Section 94, Companies Act 1985 (as amended).
11. THAT the Articles of Association of the Company shall be amended as follows:

"Article 2 shall be amended by the substitution of "£1,387,500,000" in place of "£1,087,500,000" and "1,550,000,000 shares of 25p each" in place of "350,000,000 shares of £0.25 each".

COMPANIES ACT 1985

RECORD OF WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS OF

THE PRUDENTIAL ASSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED

PASSED ON 8 MAY 2001

As Ordinary Resolutions:

1. THAT the authorised share capital of the Company be increased to £1,087,500,000 by the creation of 1,000,000,000 preference shares of £1 each (the "Preference Shares") having the rights more particularly described in the proposed amendments to the Articles of Association referred to in Resolution 4;
2. THAT pursuant to and in accordance with Section 80 of the Companies Act 1985 (the "Act") the Board be and is hereby generally and unconditionally authorised to exercise all powers of the Company to allot relevant securities (within the meaning of Section 80 of the Act) up to an aggregate nominal amount of £1,012,902,936.50 provided that this authority shall expire 5 years from the date of this resolution save that the Company may before such expiry make an offer or agreement which would or might require relevant securities to be allotted after such expiry and the Board may allot the relevant security in pursuance of such an offer or agreement as if the authority conferred hereby had not expired.

As Special Resolutions:

3. THAT, subject to the passing of resolution 2 above, the Directors are hereby empowered pursuant to section 95 of the Companies Act 1985 for a period of 30 days from the passing of this resolution and resolution 4 below to allot 1,000,000 Preference Shares of £1 each in the capital of the Company pursuant to the authority conferred by resolution 2 above as if section 89 of the Companies Act 1985 did not apply to such allotment save that the Company may before such expiry make an offer or agreement which would or might require equity securities to be allotted after such expiry and the Directors may allot securities in pursuance of such an offer or agreement as if the power conferred hereby had not expired.
4. THAT the Articles of Association of the Company shall be amended as follows:
The following new Article 2 shall be inserted in the Articles of Association of the Company in substitution for and to the exclusion of the Article presently numbered 2, and that Article 3 be amended by the addition of the words "and Article 2" between the words "Article 28" and "each of the said Shares":

"The share capital of the Company as at the date of the latest amendment to these Articles of Association is £1,087,500,000 divided into:

- (i) 350,000,000 shares of £0.25 each, and
- (ii) 1,000,000,000 Preference Shares of £1 each.

The Preference Shares shall confer upon the holders thereof as a separate class the following rights:

Income

- (a) As to income, the Preference Shares shall confer upon the holders thereof the right in priority to any payment by way of dividend of the Company to receive (exclusive of any imputed tax credit available to shareholders) a cumulative preferential dividend (the "Preferential Dividend").
- (b) The Preferential Dividend shall in respect of each Preference Share from time to time in issue be at the Specified Gilt Rate plus 0.8778% per annum in respect of each year or part year ending on any date for payment of the Preferential Dividend as determined pursuant to article 2(c)(i) (a "Dividend Period") increased by the percentage increase in the index of retail prices published by the Office for National Statistics (the "Retail Prices Index") from the date 30 days prior to the date of the first issue by the Company of any Preference Shares to the date 30 days prior to the last day of the relevant Dividend Period, and proportionately for any part of a year from the date of issue of the relevant Preference Shares. For the purposes of this article 2(b), the "Specified Gilt Rate" shall be the prospective real redemption rate, based on a projected inflation rate of 3%, of 2.5% index linked 2016 UK gilts, based on an RPI base for indexing of 81.6, as quoted in the Financial Times on the day 30 days prior to the last day of the relevant Dividend Period (or if the Financial Times is not published on such day, on the first day prior to that day on which it is published, and if the Financial Times does not contain the relevant information, as determined by the Company's auditors for the time being).
- (c) Subject to Part VIII of the Companies Act 1985 (as amended) (the 1985 Act) the Preferential Dividend shall be:
 - (i) paid (exclusive of any imputed tax credit available to shareholders) on each anniversary of the first issue by the Company of any Preference Shares or on such other date in each year as the directors of the Company shall in their absolute discretion determine (the "Dividend Payment Date") provided that the directors of the Company shall have no discretion to determine a Dividend Payment Date such that a period of more than one year shall have elapsed on such Dividend Payment Date since the last payment of the Preferential Dividend; and
 - (ii) without any resolution of the Directors of the Company in general meeting (and notwithstanding anything contained in Regulations 102 to 108 (inclusive) of Table A of the 1985 Act) accrue from day to day and on each such anniversary (or, as the case may be, on each Dividend Payment Date) become a debt due from and immediately payable by the Company to the holders of the Preference Shares pro rata according to the number of Preference Shares held by each such shareholder, as the case may be.

Redemption

- (d) Subject to the 1985 Act, all the Preference Shares then in issue shall be redeemed by the Company without notice, on 8 May 2016.
- (e) Where any Preference Shares are to be redeemed in accordance with article 2(d) above, the Company shall be obliged, prior to making any payment to any other shareholder or shareholders of the Company, subject to having sufficient available profits or other monies which may be lawfully applied for such redemption, to redeem in full the relevant number of Preference Shares on the date fixed for their redemption and to pay to the relevant holder of the relevant Preference Shares an amount (the "Redemption Monies") equal to £1.2808 increased by the percentage increase in the Retail Prices Index from the date 30 days prior to the date of the first issue by the Company of any Preference Shares to the date 30 days prior to 8 May 2016 for each such Preference Share, and such amounts shall, subject to the Company having available profits or other monies which may be lawfully applied for such redemption, at that time become a debt due from and immediately payable by the Company to the holders of such Preference Shares. If and to the extent that the debt so constituted is not paid in full on the due date, the unpaid amount shall carry interest at an annual rate of 2% above the base rate from time to time of HSBC Bank Plc in respect of the period from and including the due date down to and including the date of actual payment.
- (f) If the Company is unable, because of having insufficient available profits or other monies which may be lawfully applied for such redemption, to redeem in full the relevant number of Preference Shares on the date fixed for their redemption, the Company shall redeem as many of such Preference Shares as can lawfully and properly be redeemed and shall redeem the balance as soon as it is lawfully and properly able to do so.
- (g) On the date fixed for redemption, each of the holders of Preference Shares falling to be redeemed shall be bound to deliver to the Company, at the Company's registered office, the certificate(s) for such Preference Shares (or an indemnity, in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Board, in respect of any lost certificate(s)) in order that the same may be cancelled. Upon such delivery, the Company shall pay to the holder (or, in the case of any joint holders, to the holder whose name stands first in the Company's register of members in respect of such Preference Shares) the amount due to it in respect of such redemption against delivery of a proper receipt for the Redemption Monies.

Capital

- (h) On a return of capital on winding-up or capital reduction or otherwise (a "Return of Capital"), the holders of the Preference Shares shall be entitled, in priority to any payment to the holders of any other class of shares, to the repayment of a sum calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{RPI} * \pounds(1.2808^{N/15})$$

where N is equal to the number of years (including fractions of a year) which have elapsed between the date of issue of the relevant Preference Share and the date of the Return of Capital; and

RPI is equal to the Retail Prices Index on the date of the Return of Capital divided by the Retail Prices Index on the date of issue of the relevant Preference Share.

Further participation

- (i) The holders of the Preference Shares shall not be entitled to any further right of participation in the profits or other assets of the Company.

General Meeting

- (j) The holders of the Preference Shares shall, by virtue of and in respect of their holdings of the Preference Shares, have the right to receive notice of, attend, speak and vote at a General Meeting of the Company only if a resolution is to be proposed abrogating, varying or modifying any of the rights or privileges of the holders of the Preference Shares (in which case they shall only be entitled to vote on such resolution).
- (k) Except in the circumstances set out above, the holders of the Preference Shares shall not have the right to receive notice of, attend, speak or vote at any General Meeting of the Company.

Voting

- (l) Whenever the holders of the Preference Shares are entitled to vote on a resolution at a General Meeting of the Company, on a show of hands, every such holder who is present in person or (being a corporation) by a representative shall have one vote and, on a poll, every such holder who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote in respect of each fully-paid Preference Share registered in the name of such holder."

In the High Court of Justice
CHANCERY DIVISION
COMPANIES COURT

IN THE MATTER of THE PRUDENTIAL ASSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED
AND
IN THE MATTER of THE COMPANIES ACT, 1948

SCHEME OF ARRANGEMENT
(under Section 206 of the Companies Act 1948) between

and

the holders of its Ordinary Shares of 5p each

and

PRUDENTIAL CORPORATION LIMITED
PRELIMINARY

A) In this Scheme unless the context otherwise requires the following expressions shall bear the following meanings:

" the Existing Company"	means The Prudential Assurance Company Limited
"the New Company"	means Prudential Corporation Limited
"the Effective Date"	means the date on which this Scheme becomes effective in accordance with paragraph 5 below
"this Scheme"	means the scheme set out in these present provisions with any modification thereof or addition thereto or condition approved or imposed by the Court.
"holder"	means in relation to a share in the Existing Company the person or persons for the time being appearing as the holder or holders thereof in the Register of Members of the Existing Company and includes any person entitled by transmission to be so registered and "held" shall be correspondingly construed.
"Scheme Shareholder"	means the holder of a share or shares in the Existing Company as at the close of business on the day before the Effective Date.

B) The authorised share capital of the Existing Company is £17,500,000 divided into 350,000,000 shares of 5p each of which 298,388,254 have been issued and are fully paid.

C) The New Company is in course of incorporation as a private company with an authorised share capital of £100 divided into 400 shares of 25p each. One of these shares will be issued to each of seven directors of the Existing Company (each of whom is the holder of at least one share in the Existing Company) on the terms that if the Scheme becomes effective on or before 31st March 1979 the amount due thereon will be satisfied by the transfer of one share of 5p in the Existing Company as hereinafter provided for but save as aforesaid the amount due thereon is payable in full in cash. The New Company will be converted into a public Company and its authorised share capital increased to £87,500,000 divided into 350,000,000 shares of 25p each prior to the Effective Date the increase being made with a view to the acquisition by the New Company of the whole of the issued capital of the Existing Company.

D) The Purpose of this Scheme is to effect a re-arrangement and transfer of the capital of the Existing Company by which it becomes the wholly-owned subsidiary of the New Company and shareholders receive shares of 25p each in the New Company in place of their present shares of 5p each in the Existing Company.

E) The New Company has agreed to appear by Counsel on the hearing of the Petition to sanction this Scheme and to undertake to the Court to be bound thereby and to execute and do or procure to be executed and done all such documents acts and things as may be necessary or desirable to be executed or done by it for the purpose of giving effect to this Scheme.

THE SCHEME

- 1 On the Effective Date the entire issued share capital of the Existing Company shall be acquired by the New Company free from all liens charges and incumbrances and together with all rights at the date of this Scheme or hereafter attached thereto other than the right to dividends totalling 2.8p per share for the year ending 31st December 1978 to be paid on 23rd November 1978 to the holders of shares of the Existing Company as at the close of business on 26th October 1978. For this purpose all the issued shares of the Existing Company shall be transferred to the New Company or its nominees and to give effect to such transfer the New Company may appoint any person to execute as transferor an instrument of transfer in respect of any of such shares and every instrument of transfer so executed shall be as effective as if duly executed by the holder or holders of the shares thereby expressed to be transferred.
 - a) In consideration of the said acquisition and transfer the New Company shall save as mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) hereof allot to each Scheme Shareholder one share of 25p in the New Company fully paid for each share of 5p in the Existing Company held by such shareholder at the close of business on the day before the Effective Date, and such Shareholder shall be registered as a member of the New Company accordingly with effect from the Effective Date.
 - b) In the case of the Scheme Shareholders referred to in Recital (C) of the Preliminary hereto the seven shares in the New Company already issued and allotted to them shall be deemed to have been issued and allotted pursuant to sub-paragraph (a) above.
- 3 Each certificate validly subsisting at the close of business on the day before the Effective Date in respect of a holding of any number of shares of 5p each in the Existing Company shall on the Effective Date cease to be valid for any purpose as a certificate for shares in the Existing Company and from and after that date shall instead have effect for all purposes as if it were a certificate duly issued by the New Company for the same number of shares of 25p each in the New Company: Provided that any such certificate may at any time after the Effective Date at the option of the Scheme Shareholder concerned, and shall if so required by the New Company at any time after the Effective Date, be lodged with the New Company for exchange whereupon the same shall be cancelled and a fresh certificate for shares of 25p each be in the New Company issued by it accordingly. Save as aforesaid no new share certificates will be issued by the New company in respect of the said allotment.
- 4 Each mandate in force at the close of business on the day immediately before the Effective Date relating to the payment of dividends on shares of the Existing Company shall unless and until revoked be deemed from and after the Effective Date a valid and effective mandate to the New Company in relation to dividends on the corresponding shares in the New Company.
- 5 This Scheme shall become effective as soon as an office copy of the order sanctioning this Scheme shall have been duly delivered to the Registrar of Companies for registration. Unless this Scheme has become effective on or before 31st March 1979 or such later date, if any, as the Court may allow it shall never become effective.

- 6 The Existing Company may consent on behalf of all concerned to any modification of or addition to the provisions hereof or any condition the Court may think fit to approve or impose.

Dated the 27th day of October 1978

Save as hereby expressly provided none of the regulations of Table A or any other table set out in any schedule to the Act or to any former enactment relating to companies has any application to the Company.

Shares

Capital.

2(1) The share capital of the Company as at the date of the latest amendment to these Articles of Association is £1,787,500,000 divided into:

- (i) 1,550,000,000 shares of 25p each,
- (ii) [deleted as per the Special Resolution dated 2 August 2017]
- (iii) 1,600,000,000 B Preference Shares of 25p each.

A Preference Shares

2(2) The A Preference Shares shall confer upon the holders thereof as a separate class the following rights:

Income

- (a) As to income, the A Preference Shares shall confer upon the holders thereof the right in priority to any payment by way of Dividend of the Company to receive (exclusive of any imputed tax credit available to shareholders) a cumulative preferential Dividend (the "A Preferential Dividend").

(b) The A Preferential Dividend shall in respect of each A Preference Share from time to time in issue be at the Specified Gilt Rate plus 0.8778% per annum in respect of each year or part year ending on any date for payment of the A Preferential Dividend as determined pursuant to article 2(2)(c)(i) (a "Dividend Period") increased by the percentage increase in the index of retail prices published by the Office for National Statistics (the "Retail Prices Index") from the date 30 days prior to the date of the first issue by the Company of any A Preference Shares to the date 30 days prior to the last day of the relevant Dividend

Period, and proportionately for any part of a year from the date of issue of the relevant A Preference Shares. For the purposes of this article 2(2)(b), the "Specified Gilt Rate" shall be the prospective real redemption rate, based on a projected inflation rate of 3%, of 2.5% index linked 2016 UK gilts, based on an RPI base for indexing of 81.6, as quoted in the Financial Times on the day 30 days prior to the last day of the relevant Dividend Period (or if the Financial Times is not published on such day, on the first day prior to that day on which it is published, and if the Financial Times does not contain the relevant information, as determined by the Company's auditors for the time being).

(c) Subject to Part VIII of the Companies Act 1985 (as amended) (the 1985 Act) the A Preferential Dividend shall be:

(i) paid (exclusive of any imputed tax credit available to shareholders) on each anniversary of the first issue by the Company of any A Preference Shares or on such other date in each year as the Directors of the Company shall in their absolute discretion determine (the "Dividend Payment Date") provided that the Directors of the Company shall have no discretion to determine a Dividend Payment Date such that a period of more than one year shall have elapsed on such Dividend Payment Date since the last payment of the A Preferential Dividend; and

(ii) without any resolution of the Directors of the Company in general meeting (and notwithstanding anything contained in Regulations 102 to 108 (inclusive) of Table A of the 1985 Act) accrue from day to day and on each such anniversary (or, as the case may be, on each Dividend Payment Date) become a debt due from and immediately payable by the Company to the holders of the A Preference Shares pro rata according to the number of A Preference Shares held by each such shareholder, as the case may be.

Redemption

(d) Subject to the 1985 Act, all the A Preference Shares then in issue shall be redeemed by the Company without notice, on 8 May 2016.

(e) Where any A Preference Shares are to be redeemed in accordance with Article 2(2)(d) above, the Company shall be obliged, prior to making any payment to any other shareholder or shareholders of the Company, subject to having sufficient available profits or other monies which may be lawfully applied for such redemption, to redeem in full the relevant number of A Preference Shares on the date fixed for their redemption and to pay to the relevant holder of the relevant A Preference Shares an amount (the "Redemption Monies") equal to £1.2808 increased by the percentage increase in the Retail Prices Index from the date 30 days prior to the date of the first issue by the Company of any A Preference Shares to the date 30 days prior to 8 May 2016 for each such A Preference Share, and such amounts shall, subject to the Company having available profits or other monies which may be lawfully applied for such redemption, at that time become a debt due from and immediately payable by the Company to the holders of such A Preference Shares. If and to the extent that the debt so constituted is not paid in full on the due date, the unpaid amount shall carry interest at an annual rate of 2% above the base rate from time to time of HSBC Bank Plc in respect of the period from and including the due date down to and including the date of actual payment.

(f) If the Company is unable, because of having insufficient available profits or other monies which may be lawfully applied for such redemption, to redeem in full the relevant number of A Preference Shares on the date fixed for their redemption, the Company shall redeem as many of such A Preference Shares as can lawfully and properly be redeemed and shall redeem the balance as soon as it is lawfully and properly able to do so.

(g) On the date fixed for redemption, each of the holders of A Preference Shares falling to be redeemed shall be bound to deliver to the Company, at the Company's registered office, the certificate(s) for such A Preference Shares (or an indemnity, in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Directors, in respect of any lost certificate(s)) in order that the same may be cancelled. Upon such delivery, the Company shall pay to the holder (or, in the case of any joint holders, to the holder whose name stands first in the Company's register of members in respect of such A Preference Shares) the amount due to it in respect of such redemption against delivery of a proper receipt for the Redemption Monies.

Capital

(h) On a return of capital on winding-up or capital reduction or otherwise (a "Return of Capital"), the holders of the A Preference Shares shall be entitled, in priority to any payment to the holders of any other class of shares, to the repayment of a sum calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$RPI * £(1.2808^{N/15})$$

Where N is equal to the number of years (including fractions of a year) which have elapsed between the date of issue of the relevant A Preference Share and the date of the Return of Capital; and

RPI is equal to the Retail Prices Index on the date of the Return of Capital divided by the Retail Prices Index on the date of issue of the relevant A Preference Share.

Further participation

(i) The holders of the A Preference Shares shall not be entitled to any further right of participation in the profits or other assets of the Company.

General Meeting

(j) The holders of the A Preference Shares shall, by virtue of and in respect of their holdings of the A Preference Shares, have the right to receive notice of, attend, speak and vote at a General Meeting of the Company only if a resolution is to be proposed abrogating, varying or modifying any of the rights or privileges of the holders of the A Preference Shares (in which case they shall only be entitled to vote on such resolution).

(k) Except in the circumstances set out above, the holders of the A Preference Shares shall not have the right to receive notice of, attend, speak or vote at any General Meeting of the Company.

Voting

(l) Whenever the holders of the A Preference Shares are entitled to vote on a resolution at a General Meeting of the Company, on a show of hands, every such holder who is present in person or (being a corporation) by a representative shall have one vote and, on a poll, every such holder who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote in respect of each fully-paid A Preference Share registered in the name of such holder.

Shares to rank pari passu.

3 Subject to Article 28 and Article 2 each of the said Shares shall rank pari passu in all respects.

Company not to purchase or lend on Company Shares.

4 None of the funds of the Company shall be employed in the purchase of or lent on Shares of the Company.

Commission for placing Shares.

5 The Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by Section 53 of the Act, provided that the rate per cent or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by the said Section and the rate of the commission shall not exceed the rate of 10 per cent of the price at which the Shares in respect whereof the same is paid are issued or an amount equal to 10 per cent of such price (as the case may be). Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid Shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The Company may also on any issue of Shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

Trusts not recognised.

6 Save as herein otherwise provided the Company shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any Share as the absolute owner thereof and accordingly shall not be bound (except as ordered by a Court of competent jurisdiction or as by statute required) to recognise any equitable or other claim to or interest in such Share on the part of any other person.

Certificates

Certificates.

7 The certificates of title to Shares shall be issued under the seal of the Company affixed thereto with the authority of the Directors.

Who entitled to and nature of certificate.

8 Every Member shall be entitled to a certificate for the Shares registered in his name Provided that in respect of a Share or Shares held jointly by several persons the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate and delivery of a certificate for a Share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders. Every certificate of Shares shall specify the Shares in respect of which it is issued and the amount paid up thereon.

As to issue of new certificate in place of one defaced lost or destroyed.

9 If any certificate be worn out or defaced then upon production thereof to the Directors they may order the same to be cancelled and may issue a new certificate in lieu thereof and if any certificate be lost or destroyed then upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Directors and on such indemnity as the Directors deem adequate being given a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given to the party entitled to such lost or destroyed certificate.

Transfer of part of holding.

10 If any transfer shall be made of part of the Shares in respect of which a certificate has been issued the Directors shall upon production of such certificate and the appropriate transfer or transfers and without charge issue a new certificate in respect of the balance of the Shares retained.

Lien, calls and forfeiture

Provisions in respect of partly-paid Shares.

11 Regulations 11 to 21 and 33 to 39 of Table A (all inclusive) shall apply to the Company.

Transfer and transmission of shares

Execution of transfer.

12 The transfer of Shares shall be made by instrument in any usual or common form and shall be executed by the transferor and in the case of partly-paid Shares by the transferee and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such Shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof.

Shares of different classes not to be included in same transfer.

13 Shares of different classes shall not be included in the same instrument of transfer.

In what case Directors may decline to register transfer.

14 The Directors may decline to register any transfer of Shares upon which the Company has a lien and in the case of Shares not fully paid up may refuse to register a transfer to a transferee of whom they do not approve. Upon any such refusal the Directors shall within 2 months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company send to the transferee notice of the refusal.

Transfer to be left at Office and evidence of title given.

15 Every instrument of transfer shall be left duly stamped at the Office for registration accompanied by the certificate of the Shares to be transferred and such other evidence as the Company may require to prove the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the Shares. No fee shall be charged for registration.

When transfers to be returned.

16 All instruments of transfer which shall be registered shall be retained by the Company but any instrument of transfer which the Directors may decline to register shall on demand be returned to the person depositing the same.

When transfer books and Register may be closed.

17 The transfer books and Register may be closed during such period or periods in any year as the Directors may from time to time by resolution decide but not exceeding in the whole thirty days in each year.

Transmission.

18 In the case of the death of a Member the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint holder, and the legal personal representatives of the deceased where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his interest in the Shares: but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any Share which had been jointly held with other persons.

Person entitled on death or bankruptcy may elect to be registered or transfer.

19 Any person becoming entitled to a Share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member may upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Directors and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the Share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof but the Directors shall in either case have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the Share by that Member before his death or bankruptcy as the case may be.

Effect of election.

20 If the person so becoming entitled shall elected to be registered himself he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he shall elect to have another person registered he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the Share. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Articles relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of Shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the Member had not occurred and the notice of transfer were a transfer signed by that Member.

Rights of person entitled by transmission.

21 A person becoming entitled to a Share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the Share except that he shall not, before being registered as a Member in respect of the Share be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company Provided that the Directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the Share and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days the Directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the Share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

Conversion of shares into stock

Conversion of Shares into Stock

22 The Company may by ordinary resolution convert any paid-up Shares into Stock and reconvert any stock into paid-up Shares of any denomination.

Transfer of Stock.

23 The holders of Stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations as and subject to which the Shares from which the Stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred or as near thereto as circumstances admit: and the Directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of Stock transferable but so that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the Shares from which the Stock arose.

Rights of stockholders.

24 The holders of Stock shall according to the amount of Stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the Shares from which the Stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of Stock which would not, if existing in Shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

Interpretation.

25 Such of these Articles as are applicable to paid-up Shares shall apply to Stock and the words "Share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "Stock" and "stockholder".

Alteration of capital

Power to increase capital.

26 The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into Shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.

General meeting may direct conditions for issue of new Shares.

27 New Shares may be issued upon such terms and conditions and with such rights and privileges annexed thereto whether in regard to dividend voting return of capital or otherwise as the general meeting resolving upon the creation thereof shall direct.

Power of Directors to allot Shares and determine conditions of issue.

28 Subject to any such direction the Shares shall be under the control of the Directors who may allot and issue the same to such persons on such terms and conditions and with such rights and privileges whether in regard to dividend voting return of capital or otherwise and at such times as the Directors think fit.

Consolidation and sub-division.

29 The Company may by ordinary resolution:

(a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into Shares of larger amount than its existing Shares;

(b) sub-divide its existing Shares, or any of them, into Shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of Section 61 (1) (d) of the Act;

(c) cancel any Shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.

Reduction of capital.

30 The Company may by Special Resolution reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve fund or any share premium account in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorised, and consent required, by law.

Modifying rights

Power to modify rights.

31 If at any time the capital by reason of the issue of preference Shares or otherwise is divided into different classes of Shares all or any of the rights and privileges attached to each class may be modified commuted affected or abrogated with the sanction of an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of Shares of that class and all the provisions hereinafter contained as to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply to every such separate general meeting except that the quorum thereof shall be Members present in person or by proxy holding one-fifth of the nominal amount of the issued Shares of that class. If within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or such other day at such other time and place as the Directors may determine and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the Members present shall be a quorum.

Borrowing powers

Power to borrow.

32 Subject to the provisions of Section 13 of the Industrial Assurance Act 1923 the Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money, and to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property and uncalled capital, or any part thereof, and to issue debentures, debenture stock, and other securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party Provided that the amount for the time being remaining undischarged of moneys borrowed or secured by the Directors as aforesaid shall not, when added to any amount or amounts for the time being undischarged of moneys borrowed by subsidiaries of the Company (exclusive of inter-group borrowings), at any time, without the previous sanction of the Company in general meeting, exceed a sum equal to the aggregate of the issued capital and reserves (other than the contingency funds for the Ordinary Branch, the Industrial Branch and the General Branch respectively) of the Company and of one tenth of each of the insurance funds (including the contingency funds aforesaid) of the Company and of each of its subsidiaries as shown in the last published balance sheets of the Company and of each of its subsidiaries and the Directors shall use the Company's voting rights and powers of control over its subsidiaries to secure compliance with the provision. No lender or other person dealing with the Company shall be concerned to see or inquire whether this limit is observed. No debt incurred or security given in excess of such limit shall be invalid or ineffectual except in the case of express notice to the lender or the recipient of the security at the time when the debt was incurred or security given that the limit hereby imposed had been or was thereby exceeded.

General meetings

[Articles 31-57 deleted as per the Special Resolution dated 2 August 2017]

Directors

Number of Directors.

58 Until otherwise determined by a general meeting the number of the Directors shall not be less than four.

President of the Company.

59 The Company in general meeting may, if the Directors shall so recommend, appoint one of the Directors or a past Director of the Company to be President of the Company and the person so appointed shall hold the office of President until the fifth Annual General Meeting next following his appointment or such earlier date as the Directors may at any time determine. A Director who is appointed to be President of the Company shall not, by virtue of such appointment, cease to hold office as a Director.

Power for Directors to appoint additional Directors.

60 The Directors shall have power from time to time and at any time to appoint any eligible person as a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board but no appointment under this Article shall have effect unless two-thirds at least of the Directors concur therein and any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next Annual General Meeting and shall then be eligible for election but shall not be taken into account in determining the Directors who are to retire at such meeting.

Qualification of Directors.

61 No shareholding qualification shall be required by a Director.

Directors' remuneration.

62 The remuneration of the Directors shall be such sum as may from time to time be determined by ordinary resolution at any general meeting of the Company. Such remuneration shall be divided among the Directors in such proportions and manner as the Directors may determine.

Directors may act notwithstanding vacancy.

63 The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body but if the number of Directors falls below the minimum prescribed for the time being the Directors shall not except in emergencies or for the purpose of filling up vacancies act so long as the number is below the minimum.

When office of Director to be vacated.

64 The office of Director shall ipso facto be vacated:-

- (a) If being the holder of any other office or place of profit under the Company or under any subsidiary of the Company he vacates or is removed from that other office or place of profit for any reason and the Directors resolve that his office of Director be vacated.
- (b) If he become bankrupt or suspend payment or compound with his creditors
- (c) If he become of unsound mind
- (d) If he is absent from the meetings of the Directors during a period of six consecutive months without special leave of absence from the Directors, and the Directors resolve that his office be vacated.
- (e) If by notice in writing to the Company he resign his office or if he tender his resignation and the Directors resolve to accept it.
- (f) If he is removed from office by a resolution of the Directors in favour of which at least three-quarters of the total number of Directors for the time being shall have voted.
- (g) If without the approval of the Directors he be or become a director auditor or other officer of any company carrying on business similar to that carried on by the Company or any subsidiary of the Company.

And the Directors shall be deemed not to have been subject to any shareholding qualification as from the coming into effect of the Scheme of Arrangement dated 27th October 1978.

Directors' Interests

65 Subject to the provisions of the Act and the Companies Act 2006, and provided that he has disclosed to the Directors the nature and extent of any material interest of his, a director notwithstanding his office

- (1) may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested;
- (2) may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate promoted by the Company or in which the company is otherwise interested;

(3) shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he derives from any such office or employment or from any such transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit;

(4) may be or become a director or other officer of, or employed by or otherwise be interested in any holding company or subsidiary company of the Company or any other subsidiary company of the ultimate holding company of the Company or any other company in which the Company or ultimate holding company or any subsidiary company thereof may be interested; and

(5) may be or become a director of any other company in which the Company does not have an interest and which cannot reasonably be regarded as giving rise to a conflict of interest at the time of his appointment as a director of that other company.

Subject where applicable to disclosure in accordance with this Article and the Companies Act 2006, a Director shall be entitled to vote in respect of any contract or proposed contract in which he is directly or indirectly interested and if he shall do so his vote shall be counted and he shall be taken into account in ascertaining whether a quorum is present. A reference in this Article to a contract includes any transaction or arrangement (whether or not constituting a contract).

For the purposes of this Article

- (c) a general notice given to the Directors that a Director is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the notice in any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the Director has an interest in any such transaction of the nature and extent so specified; and
- (d) an interest of which a Director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his.

Authorisation of Conflicts of Interest

66 (1) The Directors may, subject to the quorum and voting requirements set out in this Article, authorise or appoint any committee to authorise any matter which would otherwise involve a Director breaching his duty under the Companies Act 2006 to avoid conflicts of interest and duty and a conflict of duties ("Conflict").

(2) A Director seeking authorisation in respect of a Conflict shall declare to the board the nature and extent of his interest in a Conflict as soon as is reasonably practicable. The Director shall provide the board with such details of the relevant matter as are necessary for the board to decide how to address the Conflict together with such additional information as may be requested by the board.

(3) Any Director (including the relevant Director) may propose that the relevant Director be authorised in relation to any matter the subject of a Conflict. Such proposal and any authority given by the board shall be effected in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to and resolved upon by the board under the provisions of these Articles save that:

- (i) the relevant Director and any other Director with a similar interest shall not count towards the quorum nor vote on any resolution giving such authority; and
- (ii) the relevant Director and any other Director with a similar interest may, if the other members of the board so decide, be excluded from any board meeting while the Conflict is under consideration.

(4) Where the board gives authority in relation to a Conflict:

- (i) the board may (whether at the time of giving the authority or subsequently) (a) require that the relevant Director is excluded from the receipt of information, the participation in discussion and/or the making of decisions (whether at meetings of the board or otherwise) related to the Conflict; and (b) impose upon the relevant Director such other terms for the purpose of dealing with the Conflict as it may determine;
- (ii) the relevant Director will be obliged to conduct himself in accordance with any terms imposed by the board in relation the Conflict;
- (iii) the Board may provide that where the relevant Director obtains (otherwise than through his position as a Director of the Company) information that is confidential to a third party, the Director will not be obliged to disclose that information to the Company, or to use or apply the information in relation to the Company's affairs, where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence;
- (iv) the terms of the authority shall be recorded in writing (but the authority shall be effective whether or not the terms are so recorded); and
- (v) the board may revoke or vary such authority at any time but this will not affect anything done by the relevant Director prior to such revocation in accordance with the terms of such authority.

(5) The Directors may suspend or relax the provisions of this Article to any extent.

Alternate Directors.

67 Any Director may in writing appoint any person, who is approved by a majority of the Directors, to be his alternate to act in his place at any meeting of the Directors at which he is unable to be present. Each such alternate shall be entitled to notice of meetings of the Directors and to attend and vote thereat as a Director when the person appointing him is not personally present, and where he is a Director to have a separate vote on behalf of the Director he is representing in addition to his own vote. A Director may at any time in writing revoke the appointment of an alternate appointed by him. Every such alternate shall be an officer of the Company and shall not be deemed to be the agent of the Director appointing him.

Power to remove Director.

68 Without prejudice to the provisions of Section 184 of the Act relating to the removal of Directors by ordinary resolution the Company may by Extraordinary Resolution remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office and may also by ordinary resolution appoint another person in his stead.

Proceedings of directors

Meetings of Directors, quorum.

69 The Directors may meet together for the dispatch of business adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit and may determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business. Until otherwise determined two Directors shall form a quorum. A Director may at any time and the Secretary upon the request of a Director shall convene a meeting of the Directors. A Director who is not in the United Kingdom the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man shall not be entitled to notice of any such meeting.

No notice to Director abroad.

Decisions of questions.

70 Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes and in case of any equality of votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

Chairman and Deputy Chairmen.

71 The Directors may elect a Chairman and a Deputy Chairman or two Deputy Chairmen of their meetings and determine the period for which they are respectively to hold office. Unless otherwise determined the Chairman and the Deputy Chairman or Deputy Chairmen shall respectively hold office for the period of one year from their appointments unless they shall previously resign office or cease to be Directors. If at any meeting the Chairman is not present at the time appointed for holding the same the Deputy Chairman or one of the Deputy Chairmen present shall be chairman of such meeting. Whenever at any meeting the Chairman is not but both the Deputy Chairmen are present at the time appointed for holding the same the Deputy Chairman to be chairman of that meeting shall be chosen by the Directors present. If at any meeting neither the Chairman nor any Deputy Chairman is present at the time appointed for holding the meeting then the Directors present shall choose one of their number to the chairman of such meeting.

Power to appoint committees and to delegate.

72 (1) The Directors may entrust or delegate any of their powers to any one of their number or to a committee consisting of such members of their body or any other person or persons as they think fit. Any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may from time to time be imposed on it by the Directors.

Power to establish a committee to be known as the Scottish Amicable Board.

(2) The Directors shall establish a committee to be known as the Scottish Amicable Board which shall be solely responsible for the management (including the investment and bonus policy) of the Scottish Amicable Funds (as defined in the Schedule). The provisions of the Schedule shall apply to the Scottish Amicable Board and shall not be capable of being amended or superseded by any regulations made pursuant to Article 72(1).

Proceedings of committees.

73 The meetings and proceedings of any such committee consisting of two or more members or of the Scottish Amicable Board shall be governed by the provisions herein contained for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Directors so far as the same are applicable thereto and are not superseded by any regulations made by the Directors under the last preceding Article or by the provisions of the Schedule.

Written resolutions

74 A resolution in writing, signed by all of the Directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board or of a committee of the Board (not being less than the number of Directors required to form a quorum of the Board or a committee of the Board), shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board or (as the case may be) a committee of the Board duly convened and held. For this purpose:

- (a) A resolution may be by means of an instrument or a communication in electronic form sent to such address (if any) for the time being notified by the Company for that purpose;
- (b) A resolution may consist of several instruments or communications in electronic form, each signed by one or more Directors, or a combination of both;
- (c) A resolution signed by an alternate Director need not also be signed by his appointer; and
- (d) A resolution signed by a Director who has appointed an alternate Director need not also be signed by the alternate Director in that capacity.

Meetings by conference telephone.

75 All or any of the members of the Board or a committee of the Board may participate in a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board by means of a conference telephone or any communication equipment which allows all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other. A person so participating shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall be entitled to vote or be counted in a quorum accordingly. A resolution passed at a meeting in accordance with this Article shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a physical face-to-face meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board duly convened and held.

Acts of Directors or committee valid notwithstanding defective appointment.

76 All acts done at any meeting of the Directors or a committee of Directors or by any person acting as a Director shall notwithstanding that it shall afterwards be discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of such Directors or person acting as aforesaid or that they or any of them were disqualified be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director.

Minutes.

77. The Directors shall cause minutes to be entered in books provided for the purpose:-

Of the names of the Directors present at each of their meetings.
Of all resolutions and proceedings of general meetings of the Company and meetings of the Directors.

Any such minutes and the minutes or records (if any) of meetings of committees of Directors if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting to which such minutes or records relate or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting shall be receivable as prima facie evidence of the matters stated in such minutes or records.

Powers of directors

Powers and duties of Directors.

78. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors, who may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not, by the Acts or by these Articles, required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting, subject, nevertheless, to any of these Articles, to the provisions of the Acts and to such regulations, being not inconsistent with the aforesaid Articles of provisions, as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting but no regulation made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.

Local management.

79. The Directors may from time to time provide for the management and transaction of the affairs of the Company in any specified locality whether at home or abroad in such manner as they think fit and the provisions contained in the four next following Articles shall be without prejudice to the general power conferred by this Article.

80. The Directors from time to time and at any time may establish any local board or agency for managing any of the affairs of the Company in any such specified locality and may appoint any persons to be members of such local board or managers or agents and may fix their remuneration. The Directors from time to time and at any time may delegate to any person so appointed any of the powers authorities and discretions for the time being vested in the Directors other than their power to make calls and may authorise the members for the time being of any such local board or any of them to fill up any vacancies therein and to act notwithstanding vacancies and any such appointment or delegation may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Directors may think fit and the Directors may at any time remove any person so appointed and may annul or vary any such delegation.

Powers of attorney.

81. The Directors may from time to time and at any time by power of attorney appoint any company, firm or person or body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Directors to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under these Articles) and for such period and subject to such conditions as they may think fit, and any such powers of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any such attorney as the Directors may think fit and may also authorise any such attorney to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him.

Use of seal.

82. The Directors shall provide for the safe custody of the seal which shall be affixed only by or under the authority of the Directors or a Committee of Directors. Every instrument to which the seal of the Company is affixed shall be signed by two Directors or by one Director and the Secretary or by such other person or persons as the Directors may from time to time authorise in that behalf.

Official seal for use abroad.

83. The Company may exercise the powers conferred by Section 35 of the Act with regard to having an official seal for use abroad, and such powers shall be vested in the Directors.

Dominion register.

84. The Company may exercise the powers conferred upon the Company by Sections 119 to 123 (both inclusive) of the Act with regard to the keeping of a dominion register, and the Directors may (subject to the provisions of those sections) make and vary such regulations as they may think fit respecting the keeping of any such register.

Power to contribute to associations and funds for benefit of Company's employees and Directors.

85. Without prejudice to the general powers conferred by Article 78 and so as not in any way to limit or restrict those powers the Directors shall have power to establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of such associations institutions trusts funds or conveniences as they may consider calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company or Directors or former Directors of the Company or any such subsidiary or the wives widows families or dependants of such persons and to make payments for or towards insurances for or for the benefit of such persons or the wives widows families or dependants of such persons and to grant or agree to grant or give the right to pensions or allowances or other payments to any such persons or any of the wives widows families or dependants of any such person subject if they think fit to such terms and conditions as they determine.

Long-term business

Long-term business.

86. There shall be carried on by the Company as a separate part of the Company's business (hereinafter called "the long-term business of the Company") that business of the Company carried on in the United Kingdom which is long term business as defined in the Insurance Companies Act 1974 or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force (hereinafter called "the Act of 1974") and such other business as the Directors shall assign to such separate part being business of the nature specified in Clause 3 sub-clauses (1) (2) and (3) of the Company's Memorandum of Association.

May be conducted in separate branches.

87. The long-term business of the Company shall be carried on in such separate branches as may be required by law and subject thereto may be carried on in such separate branches as the Directors consider appropriate and the Directors may from time to time establish any new and separate branch for the long-term business of the Company and may determine what shall be the class or classes of business to be comprised in such branch and may also determine what shall be the rights and privileges of policyholders or persons insured in relation thereto and subject to the provisions of the Act of 1974 the Directors may from time to time and at any time subdivide any branch in which the long-term business of the Company is carried on and may consolidate any such branches or subdivisions of such branches and may from time to time modify or supplement all or any of the provisions made pursuant to this Article.

Appropriation of assets to branches.

88. So long a the long-term business of the Company is carried on in separate branches the Directors may in such manner and subject to such conditions as they shall think proper from time to time provide for the appropriation of any assets of the long-term business of the Company to or amongst any such separate branch or branches. The liabilities of the Company on all policies and other contracts in each branch of the long-term business of the Company shall be discharged out of assets appropriated to that branch in priority to liabilities on policies or other contracts in any other branch.

Valuation.

89. Once at least every three years or oftener if and as the Directors shall at their discretion think fit the Directors shall cause the financial condition and affairs of the long-term business of the Company to be fully investigated and valued and its liabilities in respect thereof to be ascertained and a calculation to be made of the amount of the profits or estimated profits which up to the last preceding 31st day of December shall (by accumulation or otherwise) have accrued to the funds of the long-term business of the Company and which shall not have been previously set aside as profits and for the purpose of such calculation the stocks funds securities investments and other assets of the Company shall be estimated or valued in such manner as the Directors shall think fit without being obliged to adhere to the market price or value thereof and the Directors shall declare the amount thereof which should in their judgement be dealt with as profits of the long-term business of the Company any balance or balances being carried forward in account in the funds of the long-term business of the Company in which they appear.

The amount which should in the judgement of the Directors be dealt with as the profits of the long term business of the Company may be determined on a basis which incorporates any methodology or assumptions for the calculation thereof which is consistent with or reflects the terms of any policies or other contracts issued in connection with the long term business.

The Directors may separately declare the amount of the said profits which under Article 92 are either linked profits or profits derived from the separate non-participating business therein described.

So long as the long-term business of the Company is carried on in separate branches the Directors shall in addition apportion the said profits of the long-term business of the Company between those branches in proportion to the amount of the profits of such branches so calculated as aforesaid and they shall declare the amounts so apportioned.

Such declarations of the Directors as to the amounts of profits, linked profits and profits derived from the separate non-participating business and the apportionment thereof between the said branches shall be conclusive.

Power to transfer profits to reserves of particular class.

90 The Directors shall be at liberty from and out of the profits declared as aforesaid to deduct and set aside such sum or sums as they may think fit as or in augmentation of any contingency fund including any investment reserve fund for the time being in respect of the class or classes of business from which such profits shall have been derived.

Power to transfer profits to reserves of any class.

91 The Directors may also if they shall in their absolute discretion so determine deduct and set aside from and out of the profits declared as aforesaid or the balance thereof after such deductions (if any) as they shall determine to make pursuant to the last preceding Article such sum or sums not exceeding one equal twentieth part of such profits or of the said balance thereof as they shall determine as or in augmentation of any contingency fund including any investment reserve fund not restricted to any particular class or classes of business.

Division of profits.

92 (1) The Directors shall determine out of the profits of the long-term business of the Company a sum or sums to be distributed or reserved for distribution as bonuses or otherwise for the benefit of policies or classes of policies entitling the holders thereof to participate in profits in such amounts and in such form as the Directors shall in their absolute discretion determine provided that the sum or sums to be so distributed or reserved for the benefit of policies or classes of policies comprising Defined Charge Participating Business shall be separately determined by the Directors as that part or those parts of the divisible profits derived from those assets of the long-term fund of the Company that are referable to the policies or classes of policies that relate to Defined Charge Participating Business. A declaration by the Directors as to whether a policy or class of policies entitles the holders thereof to participate in profits shall be conclusive for all purposes of this Article 92.

(2) Where the long-term business of the Company is not carried on in separate branches the Directors shall determine a single sum as aforesaid which shall be not less than 90 per cent of the divisible profits of the long-term business of the Company except for any parts of such divisible profits which are derived from the Scottish Amicable Insurance Fund as defined in the Schedule to these Articles or any Defined Charge Participating Business, where the sum shall include all of such parts.

(3) Where the long-term business of the Company is carried on in separate branches the Directors shall determine a sum as aforesaid in respect of each of the branches in which such policies or classes of policies entitling the holders thereof to participate in profits are issued and each sum shall be not less than 90 per cent of the divisible profits of the long-term business of the Company attributable to such branches respectively except for any parts of such divisible profits which are derived from the Scottish Amicable Insurance Fund as defined in the Schedule to these Articles or any Defined Charge Participating Business, where each such sum shall include all of such parts.

(4) For the purposes of this Article divisible profits are the profits of the long-term business of the Company declared as aforesaid or if the long-term business of the Company is carried on in separate branches the profits of the long-term business of the Company declared and apportioned as aforesaid to those of such branches in which such policies or classes of policies entitling the holders thereof to participate in profits are issued after deduction therefrom in either case of any sum or sums deducted and set aside thereout under these Articles as or in augmentation of any contingency fund or funds and excluding (except insofar as the Directors shall otherwise determine)

- (a) such amount of such profits as the Directors shall have declared to be linked profits that is to say profits derived from business the whole or main part of the benefits of which are linked to units of a unit trust or to any other property or to any index described in the contracts relating to that business whether such property is owned by the Company or not,
- (b) such amount of such profits as the Directors shall have declared to be derived from separate non-participating business (being business allocated to the Non-Profit Sub-Fund maintained as a separate sub-fund in the long term fund of the Company pursuant to a resolution of the Directors passed on 12 August 2002, other than any such business described in Article 92(4)(a)), including, without limitation
 - (i) permanent health insurance, creditor insurance written as long-term business, capital redemption insurance and critical illness insurance;
 - (ii) additional accident benefit and other accident rider benefits attached to life insurance policies written by the Company;
 - (iii) waiver of premium benefit attached to personal and other pensions policies written by the Company;
 - (iv) other non-participating long-term business written by the Hong Kong branch of the Company after 31 October 2002;
 - (v) insurance business transferred from Scottish Amicable Life plc under the scheme pursuant to Part VII of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 on 31 December, 2002 ("the Scheme") (other than any such business described in Article 92(4)(a) and excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, the with-profits business reinsured within the Company in accordance with paragraph 17 of the Scheme), and
 - (vi) such additional business as the Directors resolve from time to time to allocate to such Non-Profit Sub-Fund, and
- (c) any profit derived from charges deducted by the Company in respect of Defined Charge Participating Business under the terms of any policy referable to that business.

(5) For the purpose only of calculating the sum or sums to be distributed or reserved for distribution as bonuses or otherwise in accordance with this Article the Directors shall add to divisible profits an amount equal to any sum paid by the Company to another company which is, for the purposes of Section 736 Companies Act 1985, a subsidiary of a holding company of the Company, by way of experience related refund of premium under any reinsurance agreement between the Company and such other company, other than any such reinsurance agreement in respect of which the Directors declare that the profits are either linked profits under Article 92(4)(a) above or derive from business described under Article 92(4)(b) above.

Power to Directors on claim under profit sharing policy to pay bonus by way of anticipation of share of profits.

93 The Directors may in anticipation of the ascertainment of the profits of the long-term business of the Company make such payments or allocations of bonuses on policies in the long-term business of the Company or in any branch or branches thereof as shall appear to them to be justified by the position of the long-term business of the Company and of any branches thereof and any sum so paid or allocated shall be brought into account as having been paid or allocated out of the profits of the long-term business of the Company or the profits apportioned to such respective branches by anticipation.

Residue of profits as profits of Company.

94 The residue of the profits of the long-term business of the Company after such deductions distributions and reservations as aforesaid shall be available at the discretion of the Directors to be applied as profits of the Company.

Short-term business

Short-term business.

95 "Short-term business" means insurance business carried on by the Company which is not long-term business of the Company. The Directors shall if required by law and subject thereto may if they think fit carry on the whole or any part of the short-term business separately from the Company's other business and such separate short-term business shall be carried on as a branch of the Company's business or if so required by law or if the Directors shall so consider appropriate shall be carried on in separate branches. The Directors may from time to time establish any new and separate branch for any specified class of short-term business and may determine what shall be the class of business to be comprised in such branch and may also determine what shall be the rights and privileges of policyholders or persons insured in relation thereto and subject to the Provisions of the Act of 1974, the Directors may from time to time and at any time subdivide any branch in which short-term business is carried on and may consolidate any such branches or subdivision of such branches and may from time to time modify or supplement all or any of the provisions made pursuant to this Article.

Appropriation of assets to branches.

96 So long as any of the short-term business is carried on in a separate branch or in separate branches the Directors may in such manner and subject to such conditions as they shall think proper from time to time provide for the appropriation of any assets of the Company not identified as attributable to the long-term business of the Company to or amongst any such separate branch or branches. The liabilities of the Company on all policies and other contracts in each branch of its short-term business shall be discharged out of assets appropriated to that branch in priority to liabilities on policies or other contracts of any other business of the Company.

Separate assessment of profit.

97 The profits of any short-term business so carried on in a separate branch or in separate branches of the Company's business shall be ascertained separately from the profits of the other business carried on by the Company and the Directors shall declare the amount thereof which should in their judgement be dealt with as profits any balance of balances being carried forward in account. Such declarations of the Directors shall be conclusive.

Power to transfer profits to reserves.

98 The Directors shall be at liberty from and out of the profits of the short-term business carried on in any branch to deduct and set aside such sum or sums as they may think fit as or in augmentation of any contingency fund including any investment reserve fund for the time being for the branch in which such profits arise. The residue of such profits after such deductions as aforesaid shall be available at the discretion of the Directors to be applied as profits of the Company.

Contingency funds

Contingency funds applied as a reserve fund or profits.

99 Any contingency fund established in respect of the Company's business may be applied or appropriated to or for any of the purposes of a reserve fund including an investment reserve fund of the business in respect of which it is established. Whenever any contingency fund or any part thereof is determined by the Directors to be no longer required for meeting the liabilities of the business in respect of which it was established the Directors may subject to the Act of 1974 apply the amount not so required as if the same were profits which had accrued to such business up to the 31st day of December last preceding the date of such determination as aforesaid.

Distributions

Distribution of profits as dividends.

100 Subject to Article 2 the Directors may at any time and from time to time in their absolute discretion determine to make a distribution out of the profits of the Company by way of dividend including any interim dividend that appears to the Directors to be justified by the position of the Company and the sum in respect of which such determination has been made shall on such date as the Directors shall in their absolute discretion determine and announce, be divided and paid rateably according to the number of Shares held respectively by the Members who are on the Register on such date as the Directors shall determine and announce contemporaneously with the announcement of the dividend to be paid and the date for payment thereof.

Power to transfer profits to reserves.

101 The Directors may before making any such distribution out of the profits of the Company under Article 105 deduct and set aside such sum or sums as they may think fit as a reserve or reserves which shall at the discretion of the Directors be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied and pending such application may at the like discretion be invested or employed without the Directors being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets of the Company not required by these Articles to be kept separate.

Dividends

No dividend on capital paid in advance.

102 When capital is paid up on any Shares in advance of calls such capital shall not confer a right to participate in profits.

Dividend to joint holders.

103 In case several persons are registered as the joint holders of any Shares or Stock any one of such persons may give effective receipts for all dividends and payment on account of dividends in respect of such Shares or Stock.

Dividends payable by posted cheques.

104 Any dividend may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post to the registered address of the Member or person entitled or in the case of joint holders to that one of them first named in the Register in respect of the joint holding

Capitalisation of profits

Power to capitalise

105 The Company in general meeting may upon the recommendation of the Directors reserves.

resolve that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution, and accordingly that such sum be set free for distribution amongst the Members who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions on conditions that the same be not paid in cash but be applied either in or towards paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid or any Shares held by such Members respectively or paying up in full unissued Shares or debentures of the Company to be allotted and distributed credited as fully paid up to and amongst such Members in the proportions aforesaid, or partly in the one way and partly in the other, and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution:

Provided that a share premium account and a capital redemption reserve fund may, for the purpose of this Article, only be applied in the paying up of unissued Shares to be issued to Members of the Company as fully paid bonus Shares.

Power to make allotments.

106 Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed the Directors shall make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments and issues of fully paid Shares or debentures, if any, and generally shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto, with full power to the Directors to make such provision by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise as they think fit for the case of Shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions, and also to authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the Members entitled thereto into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any further Shares or debentures to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation, or (as the case may require) for the payment up by the Company on their behalf by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing Shares, and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such Members.

Accounts

Annual statements and balance sheets.

107 At the Annual General Meeting in every year the Directors shall lay before the Company such accounts and reports as are required by the Acts.

Annual statements and balance sheets to be sent to Members.

108 A copy of every account and balance sheet (including every document required by law to be annexed thereto) which is to be laid before the Company in general meeting together with a copy of the Directors' report and of the Auditors' report shall not less than 21 days before such meeting be served on the Members in the manner in which notices are hereinafter directed to be served and upon any other person entitled by law to receive copies of such documents.

Audit

Auditors to be appointed.

109 Auditors shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with the Acts.

When accounts to be deemed finally settled.

110 Every account of the Directors when audited and approved by a general meeting shall be conclusive except as regards any error discovered therein within three months next after the approval thereof. Whenever any such error is discovered within that period the account shall forthwith be corrected and thenceforth shall be conclusive.

THE SCHEDULE

THE SCOTTISH AMICABLE BOARD

1. In this Schedule:

1.1 “Board Matters” means

- (a) the engagement or change of any investment manager;
- (b) the engagement or change of any employees;
- (c) the acquisition of any assets otherwise than for investment purposes;
- (d) the sale or disposal of any part of the business or assets allocated to the Scottish Amicable Funds other than the disposal of investments in the ordinary course of business;
- (e) the entry into any liabilities other than as expressly contemplated by the Transfer Agreement or the Scheme;
- (f) the formation or acquisition or disposal of any subsidiary;
- (g) the acquisition of any shares constituting more than five per cent of the issued share capital of any other company or the participation in any partnership or joint venture;
- (h) the borrowing of any money; and
- (i) the creation of any mortgage or charge.

1.2 “SALAS” means Scottish Amicable Life Assurance Society.

1.3 “the Scheme” means the scheme dated 24 September 1997 pursuant to Section 49 of and Part I of Schedule 2C to the Insurance Companies Act 1982 under which the long term business of SALAS was transferred to the Company.

1.4 “the Scottish Amicable Board” means a committee of the Directors appointed pursuant to Article 71(2) to manage the business of the Scottish Amicable Funds.

1.5 “the Scottish Amicable Capital Fund” means the separate account maintained under that name within the long term fund of the Company pursuant to the Scheme.

1.6 “the Scottish Amicable Funds” means the Scottish Amicable Capital Fund and the Scottish Amicable Insurance Fund.

1.7 “the Scottish Amicable Insurance Fund” means the fund maintained as a separate sub-fund under that name within the long term fund of the Company pursuant to the Scheme.

1.8 "the Transfer Agreement" means the Agreement dated 24 March 1997 between (1) SALAS, (2) Prudential Corporation plc and (3) the Company, as amended by an Agreement between the same parties dated 22 May 1997.

2. The Scottish Amicable Board shall not have any powers except in relation to the Scottish Amicable Funds and shall not (unless in the ordinary course of investment management) take any decision in relation to any Board Matter without the prior approval of the Directors. For the avoidance of doubt the Directors shall not take any decision in relation to any Board Matter insofar as it relates to the management (including the investment and bonus policy) of the Scottish Amicable Funds without the prior approval of the Scottish Amicable Board.
3. The members of the Scottish Amicable Board shall observe and perform the terms of the Scheme and subject thereto shall, in carrying out their duties as members of the Scottish Amicable Board, have regard solely to the interests and reasonable expectations of the holders of Policies allocated to the Scottish Amicable Insurance Fund and of the other Policies referred to in Paragraph 43.1 of the Scheme.
4. The Scottish Amicable Board shall be comprised of not more than five individuals of whom the majority shall be non-executive members. Not more than three shall be designated as Scottish Amicable members and not more than two shall be designated as PAC members. Unless the Scottish Amicable Board decides otherwise:
 - (a) at least two of the Scottish Amicable members shall be non-executive members; and
 - (b) at least one of the PAC members shall be non-executive member.

A non-executive member of the Scottish Amicable Board shall not hold an executive office with the Company or any holding company of the Company or any subsidiary of any such holding company. Whilst there is no formal residential qualification the Company intends as at the date of adoption of this provision that at least one member of the Scottish Amicable Board will be resident in Scotland.

5. Any appointment or removal of a PAC member shall be effected by notice in writing to the chairman for the time being of the Scottish Amicable Board signed on behalf of the Company and shall take effect, subject to any contrary intention expressed in the notice, when the notice effecting the same is delivered to such chairman. No remuneration shall be payable by the Scottish Amicable Funds to a PAC member in respect of his office as a PAC member.
6. Any appointment or removal of a Scottish Amicable member shall be effected by notice in writing to the Company signed by or on behalf of a majority of the Scottish Amicable members and shall take effect, subject to any contrary intention expressed in the notice, when the notice effecting the same is delivered to the Company. Any appointment of a Scottish Amicable member (other than the first appointments following the introduction of this Article) shall be subject to approval by Prudential Corporation plc, such approval not be unreasonably withheld.
7. The chairman of the Scottish Amicable Board shall be a Scottish Amicable member whose appointment or removal shall be effected by notice in writing to the Company signed by or on behalf of a majority of the Scottish Amicable members and shall take effect, subject to any contrary intention expressed in the notice when the notice affecting the same is delivered to the Company.
8. The quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Scottish Amicable Board shall be at least two individuals, one of whom is a Scottish Amicable member and one of whom is a PAC member present at the time when the relevant business is transacted. If at any meeting the Chairman is not present at the time appointed for holding the same, those Scottish Amicable members present shall choose one of their number to take the chair of such meeting. In the case of only one Scottish Amicable member being present in person, that member shall take the chair of such meeting. Where some but not all of the Scottish Amicable members are present at any meeting of the Scottish Amicable Board those Scottish Amicable members present shall be deemed jointly appointed as alternates for any Scottish Amicable members who are absent from the meeting and have not specifically appointed alternates to attend and vote on their behalf. Where some but not all of the PAC members are present at any meeting of the Scottish Amicable Board those PAC members present shall be deemed jointly appointed as alternates for any PAC members who are absent from the meeting and have not specifically appointed alternates to attend and vote on their behalf.

9. The Scottish Amicable Board shall meet at least quarterly. Each meeting of the Scottish Amicable Board shall be held at Craigforth or at such other place within the United Kingdom as may be agreed by the PAC members and the Scottish Amicable members.
10. Any member of the Scottish Amicable Board may call a meeting of the Scottish Amicable Board. At least 14 days' written notice shall be given to each member of the Scottish Amicable Board of any meeting of the Scottish Amicable Board, provided always that a shorter period of notice may be given with the written approval of at least one Scottish Amicable member (or his alternate) and at least one PAC member (or his alternate). Any such notice shall contain, inter alia, an agenda identifying in reasonable detail the matters to be discussed at the meeting and shall be accompanied by copies of any relevant papers to be discussed at the meeting. Any matter which is to be submitted to the Scottish Amicable Board for a decision which is not identified in reasonable detail as aforesaid shall not be decided upon, unless otherwise agreed in writing by all the members of the Scottish Amicable Board.

Notice of a meeting of the Scottish Amicable Board shall be deemed to be properly given to each member of the Scottish Amicable Board if given to him personally in writing or sent in writing to him at the last address given by him to the Scottish Amicable Board for this purpose.

11. Matters for decision by the Scottish Amicable Board shall be decided by simple majority vote. Each member shall have one vote. Any Scottish Amicable member who is absent from any meeting may nominate any other Scottish Amicable member to act as his alternate and to vote in his place at the meeting. Any PAC member who is absent from any meeting may nominate any other PAC member to act as his alternate and to vote in his place at the meeting.

Any member appointed as an alternate shall have one vote in respect of the member who appointed him as an alternate in addition to his own vote. Members appointed as joint alternates under paragraph 8 above shall, provided they are all in agreement, have one joint vote for each member for whom they are joint alternates in addition to their own votes. In case of an equality of votes the Chairman of the Scottish Amicable Board or if he is not present, the chairman of the meeting, shall have a second or casting vote.

Any matters relating to the failure or alleged failure by the Company to comply with the Scheme shall be decided upon by a meeting of the Scottish Amicable Board at which only Scottish Amicable members shall be present, the quorum for which shall be at least two Scottish Amicable members present at the time the relevant matter is considered.

12. Any member of the Scottish Amicable Board may participate in a meeting of the Scottish Amicable Board by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other and participation in a meeting in this manner shall be deemed to constitute presence in person at such meeting and he shall be entitled to vote and be counted in a quorum accordingly. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled or, if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting then is.

13. A resolution in writing signed by all the members of the Scottish Amicable Board entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Scottish Amicable Board shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at the meeting of Scottish Amicable Board duly convened and held and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more members of the Scottish Amicable Board.
14. Remuneration shall be payable from the Scottish Amicable Insurance Fund to each of the non-executive members of the Scottish Amicable Board in an amount approved by the Directors, subject to a minimum of the amount paid to the non-executive directors of SALAS immediately prior to the Effective Date. The remuneration shall be reviewed each year by the Directors of the Company, taking account of market rates for non-executive directors but also taking account of the limited nature of the role of the non-executive members of the Scottish Amicable Board, but shall in any event be increased in each year by not less than the percentage (if any) by which the Retail Price Index (or, if it ceases to be maintained in its present form, such alternative equivalent index as is nominated by the Monitoring Actuary appointed pursuant to the Scheme) increases in respect of that year.

The Prudential Assurance Company Act 1875

Chapter LXXVIII

An Act for removing difficulties attending the conduct of the A.D. 1875 business and the exercise of the powers of the Prudential Assurance Company; and for other purposes.

(29th June 1875)

WHEREAS the Prudential Assurance Company (formerly named the British Prudential Assurance Company, and afterwards the British Prudential and Consolidated Assurance Company, and in this Act referred to as the Company) is constituted, incorporated, and regulated by and under a deed of settlement dated the seventeenth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and by means of registration under the Companies Act, 1862, the objects of the Company being to effect assurances on lives, and assurances connected with sickness and accident, and to grant and sell or purchase annuities (with other objects), and generally to transact and carry on business connected with or depending on the contingencies of human life:

And whereas the Company has during twenty years or thereabouts, in addition to the ordinary modes of life assurance, effected assurances on the lives of persons of the industrial classes for small premiums paid at short intervals, and is about to transact the business of granting annuities payable by monthly or more frequent instalments (which classes of the Company's business are in this Act referred to as the Industrial Branch, the residue of the Company's business being in this Act referred to as the Ordinary Branch):

And whereas from the nature of the business of the Industrial Branch the Company are obliged to employ numerous agents, and it has on many occasions happened that persons who had been employed as, but had ceased to be, agents of the Company in that branch have refused and delayed to deliver up books and documents of the Company in their possession when required so to do, and by means of the books and documents so detained wrongfully by them have been able to inflict and have inflicted serious injury and loss not only upon the Company but upon persons assuring in the Industrial Branch and it is expedient for the purpose of preventing such delay and injury that provision be made for enabling the Company to recover such books and documents in a more summary way than by civil process:

And whereas doubts having arisen or being apprehended respecting the Company's powers of modifying the Company's deed of settlement so as to establish a class of policyholders participating in profits with rights differing from the rights conferred on participating policyholders by the deed, it is expedient that all ground for such doubts be removed:

And whereas the purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted: and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows: (that is to say)

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as The Prudential Assurance Company Act 1875.

Remedies against agents failing to deliver up books.

2. The following enactments contained in the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, are hereby incorporated with and shall be part of this Act: (namely)

Sections one hundred and eleven to one hundred and fourteen (both inclusive), being some of the provisions with respect to the accountability of officers, as far as those sections relate to books, papers, writings, property and effects:

The provisions with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for and penalties:

Section three (relating to interpretation of terms):

and for the purposes of this Act the Company shall be the Company and this Act the special Act within those enactments, and the term officer in those enactments shall mean only canvasser, collector, agent, sub-agent, superintendent of agents, assistant superintendent of agents, or inspector of agents, and in section one hundred and eleven the words "for three days after" shall be deemed to be omitted.

Power to alter provisions of deed by special resolution.

3. The Company may in general meeting from time to time, by passing a special resolution in manner provided in the Companies Act 1862, alter all or any of the provisions of the Company's deed of settlement, and make new provisions in lieu thereof or in addition thereto for the purpose of providing and so as to provide for the following objects or any of them: (that is to say)

For the separate valuation from time to time of the business assets and liabilities of the Industrial Branch and of the Ordinary Branch:

For the ascertaining or estimating of the amount to be set apart as profits of the Company in the Industrial Branch and in the Ordinary Branch respectively, and the apportionment thereof or of part thereof amongst the shareholders and policyholders of the Company, or some of them:

For prescribing to which of the two branches the receipts from and expenses of the Company's business or some portions or portion of those receipts and expenses respectively, shall from time to time be credited or debited:

For providing for the Company's share capital being debited to the Industrial Branch, and for the interest payable under the deed of settlement to the shareholders being charged on the profits of that branch:

For the constitution of a class or classes or policyholders participating in profits to a less extent than the holders of policies issued before the passing of the special resolution.

Savings of rights of Policyholders.

4. Nothing in any special resolution under this Act shall take away, abridge, or prejudicially affect any right of any holder of a policy issued before the passing of the special resolution.

Saving of liability of shareholders.

5. Nothing in this Act or in any special resolution under this act shall take away or diminish any liability to which any holder of a share in the capital of the Company would have been subject if this Act had not been passed, and notwithstanding anything in this Act or in any special resolution under this Act the holder of a share in the capital of the Company shall continue and be liable to the extent and in the manner to and in which he is liable under the deed of settlement of the Company, and the Acts and laws affecting the Company at the passing of this Act.

Expenses of Act.

6. All costs, charges, and expenses of and incident to the preparing for, obtaining, and passing of this Act, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall be paid by the Company.

(39 & 40 Vict.)

(Ch. ccxviii.)

The Prudential Assurance Company Act Amendment Act 1876

Chapter CCXVIII

AD 1876

An Act to amend "The Prudential Assurance Company Act, 1875".

38 & 39 Vict.
Ch lxxviii.

(11th August, 1876)

WHEREAS by "The Prudential Assurance Company Act, 1875" (in this Act called "the Act of 1875") after reciting, amongst other things, that it was expedient that provision should be made for enabling the Prudential Assurance Company (in this Act referred to as the Company) to recover in a summary manner from persons in their employ books and other things belonging to the Company and wrongfully detained by such persons, it was enacted (section 2) that certain provisions therein specified of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845" with respect to the accountability of officers, and to the recovery of damages and penalties, were thereby incorporated with and should form part of that Act:

And whereas the provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845", so incorporated with the Act of 1875, do not extend or apply to Scotland:

And whereas the Company carry on business and employ numerous Agents and other persons in Scotland, and it is expedient that with respect to persons employed there by the Company the like provision should be made as by the Act of 1875 is made with respect to persons employed elsewhere by the Company, but that object cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Queens most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this Present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows: (that is to say)

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Prudential Assurance Company Act Amendment Act, 1876".

Remedies against agents failing to deliver up books.

2. The following enactments contained in the Companies Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, are hereby incorporated with and shall be part of this Act: (namely)

Sections one hundred and fourteen to one hundred and seventeen (both inclusive), being some of the provisions with respect to the accountability of officers, as far as those sections relate to books, papers, writings, property, and effects:

The provisions with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for:

Section three (relating to interpretation of terms):

and for the purposes of this Act the Company shall be "the Company", and this Act "the special Act" within those enactments: and the term "officer" in those enactments shall mean only canvasser, collector, agent, sub-agent, super-intendent of agents, assistant superintendent of agents, or inspector of agents: and in section 114 the words "for three days after" shall be deemed to be omitted.

Expenses of Act.

3. All costs, charges, and expenses of and incident to the preparing for, obtaining, and passing of this Act, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall be paid by the Company.
