Principal activity of the society

The society was established for the purpose of upholding the character and status of the legal profession, the promotion of honourable professional practice, the repression of professional improprieties, the settlement of points of practice and the decision of questions of professional usage and courtesy.

Charitable and political contributions

No charitable or political contributions have been made by the Huddersfield Incorporated Law Society.

Membership

During the year ended 31 August 2014 the society had 124 members.

Annual dinner

The annual dinner of the society was held on 6 March 2014, at Berties Banqueting Rooms in Elland. Members who attended found it to be an enjoyable and successful evening. Attendance was once again excellent despite the current economic climate. The speaker was Jamie Peacock of Leeds Rhinos Rugby League Club.

Meetings of the committee

Regular meetings have been held throughout the year in which a variety of matters affecting the profession have been discussed.

The President, Helen Thewlis attended, on behalf of the Society, the Accountants Dinner, the opening of the University Law Clinic (in company with Nicholas Fluck, President of the National Law Society) and the University Prize Presentation.

The Uganda Twinning Sub-Committee had a successful curry evening and softball competition and a visit to Uganda took place in November 2013. The visit to Uganda involved providing training to law students and practical training and advice in relation to advocacy skills and business management.

The Society has, on behalf of local Family Law Solicitors, organised another programme of training which ran throughout 2014. The legal support service at Huddersfield County Court, which offers a Duty Solicitor Scheme to civil claimants, continues to be well supported by local firms.

Your society will continue to represent the best interests of the Huddersfield solicitors in particular and the profession as a whole and the continued support and activity of its members is much appreciated.

It is hereby certified that the Annual Return and particulars of change of directors have been filed up to date at Companies Registry as required by the Companies Act.
