Notes

1 All references in this form to section 225 of the Companies Act 1985 is to that section as inserted by section 3 of the Companies Act 1989.

2 Under section 225(1) of the Companies Act 1985, at any time during one of its accounting reference periods a company can give notice to the Registrar of Companies specifying a new date ("the new accounting reference date") on which that period is to be treated as coming to an end (or, alternatively, is to be treated as having come to an end), and on which subsequent accounting reference periods are also to be treated as coming to an end. The day and month specified in the notice must be the same for both the accounting reference date and the end of the accounting reference period.

3 The notice can shorten the current accounting reference period. But, unless the company is subject to an administration order or unless the Secretary of State directs otherwise, a notice can extend a current accounting reference period only if EITHER

(a) the company giving the notice is a subsidiary undertaking or parent undertaking of another company, and the new accounting reference date coincides with the accounting reference date of the other company, or

(b) no previous accounting reference period of the company has been extended by virtue of a previous notice given by the company under section 225, or

(c) the notice is given not less than 5 years after the date on which any earlier accounting reference period of the company which was so extended came to an end.

4 Unless the company is subject to an administration order, a current accounting reference period cannot be extended so as to make it longer than 18 months.

5 The date shown in the boxes on the form should be completed in the manner shown below.
