Second filing of a document previously delivered

☒ What this form is for
You can only use this form to file a second filing of a document delivered under the Companies Act 2006 on or after 1 October 2009 that held inaccuracies

A second filing of a document must only be filed where it is providing corrected information that has been properly delivered but inaccuracies still appear on the register

☐ What this form is NOT for
You cannot use this form to file a second filing of a document delivered under the Companies Act 1985 regardless of when it was delivered

A second filing of a document cannot be filed where it is information that was originally properly delivered. Form RP04 cannot be used in these circumstances

For further information, please refer to our guidance at www.companieshouse.gov.uk

| Class of share | Ordinary  |
| Voting rights  | Voting rightsThe holder of an ordinary share has the right to receive notice of and participate in general meetings in person, by proxy or (if a corporation) by representative, and has one vote per share Dividend rightsUnless the members' resolution to declare, or directors' decision to pay, a dividend specifies otherwise, each holder of an ordinary share is entitled to receive such proportion of any profits that are not required to pay a preferential dividend and that the Company distributes as is equal to the proportion that his holding represents of the total number of ordinary shares in issue on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it. The Company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of an ordinary share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company). Holders may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of an ordinary share by giving the Company notice in writing to that effect. Capital distributionsThe directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution, capitalise any profits of the Company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the Company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve and appropriate such sum to the holders of ordinary shares as if it were distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions. Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct, and/or (if appropriated from profits available for distribution) it may be applied in or towards paying up any amounts unpaid on existing shares held by the persons entitled or in paying up new debentures of the Company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct. On a return of assets on liquidation, any surplus assets of the Company remaining after payment of its liabilities shall be distributed amongst the holders of the ordinary shares in proportion to their respective holdings. RedemptionOrdinary shares are not redeemable |
