In accordance with the Articles of Association, none of the directors are required to retire by rotation.

DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

The interest of Mr T N M Seaman as a director of the company's holding company and of Mr M Handley and Mr J A Kendrick, as directors of the ultimate parent undertaking are declared in the respective accounts and statutory books.

None of the Directors had any other interest in shares or debentures of other subsidiary companies of the ultimate parent undertaking at 1 July 1996 or 30 June 1997.

No director, either during or at the end of the financial year, was materially interested in any contract that was significant in relation to the Company's business.

CAMILLE SIMON LIMITEDREPORT OF THE DIRECTORS (Continued)*STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the Directors to prepare the financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the Directors are required to:

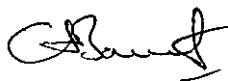

- select accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed.
- prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business

The Directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and to enable them to enquire that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company.

AUDITORS

In accordance with Section 250 of the Companies Act 1985, the Company has excluded the provisions of Section 384 (1) of the Companies Act 1985 and accordingly, no auditors are to be appointed.
