14.1.3 dies or a registered medical practitioner who is treating such Shareholder gives a written opinion to the Company stating such Shareholder has become physically or mentally incapable of fulfilling the responsibilities required of a shareholder and may remain so for more than three months, or is or has been suffering from mental or physical ill health;

14.1.4 is not specified as being entitled to hold a share or ceases to be entitled to hold a share pursuant to Articles 8.1 or 8.2; or

14.1.5 holds a share as a Nominee and that person ceases to be a member of the body in respect of which that person is a Nominee, or the relevant organisation appoints a new Nominee or Nominees, then such Shareholder shall, at the absolute discretion of the Board, be subject to either: (i) a suspension of rights pursuant to Article 14.2; or (ii) a Compulsory Transfer.

14.2 Upon the Board deciding in favour of a suspension of rights, such Shareholder shall not in respect of any share which they hold be entitled, until such time as the circumstances set out in Article 14.1 have ceased to apply in respect of such Shareholder (or such shorter period as determined by the Board), to:

14.2.1 attend or vote at any general meeting of the Company or vote on any written resolution of the Company;

14.2.2 exercise any other right conferred by holding a share in relation to any such meeting or written resolution; or

14.2.3 exercise any right of any nature conferred by the Company with regard to the holding of a share.

15 Compulsory Transfer - Process

15.1 If the Board elects to enforce a transfer of a share or shares held by a Shareholder (a "Compulsory Transfer Election"), the relevant Shareholder (the "Transferring Shareholder") shall be deemed to have served a transfer notice (a "Deemed Transfer Notice") on the Company in respect of the relevant share or shares (the "Transfer Share(s)”) on the date of the Compulsory Transfer Election. The Deemed Transfer Notice shall be in respect of the Transfer Shares and shall deem that the sale price for the Transfer Shares shall be the aggregate nominal value of the Transfer Shares (the receipt and sufficiency of which is deemed to be acknowledged by the Transferring Shareholder on the date of transfer).

15.2 The Transferring Shareholder shall as soon as possible following the date of a Deemed Transfer Notice transfer the Transfer Shares to an individual or company entitled to hold the Transfer Shares pursuant to Article 8.1 as instructed by the Board.

15.3 If the Transferring Shareholder does not transfer the Transfer Shares pursuant to Article 15.2 within fourteen days of the date of a Deemed Transfer Notice, then the Company shall be deemed the agent of the Transferring Shareholder in respect of the Transfer Shares and the Secretary may on behalf of the Transferring Shareholder complete, execute and deliver in the Transferring Shareholder’s name all documents (including executing a stock transfer form) necessary to give effect to the transfer of the Transfer Shares.

15.4 Where the Transferring Shareholder defaults in transferring the Transfer Shares in accordance with Article 15.2 and the Secretary is required to enter into a document(s) on behalf of the Transferring Shareholder pursuant to Article 15.3 and, subject to Articles 8.1 and 8.2, the Board may register the transferee and the title of the transferee shall not be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings.

16 Compulsory Transfer - General

16.1 If the annual calculation of the number of football teams affiliated to each County Association carried out pursuant to Article 8.3 changes the entitlement of any County Association to shares, the Board shall have the power to require that each such County Association’s entitlement to shares is amended in accordance with Article 8.3, and accordingly that share(s) may be subject to a Compulsory Transfer and/or transferred to an alternative County Association.

16.2 An individual or company, any of whose shares are subject to a Compulsory Transfer, shall cease to be a holder in respect of them and shall surrender to the Company for cancellation any certificate for the share(s) but shall remain liable to the Company for all moneys which at the date of transfer were presently payable by the individual or company to the Company in respect of those shares or otherwise.

16.3 Any individual or company whose share(s) is/are subject to a Compulsory Transfer under these Articles shall not in respect of the relevant share(s) from the time it is/they are deemed transferred be entitled to attend or vote at any general meeting of the Company or vote on any written resolution, or to exercise any other right conferred by ownership of a share in relation to any such meeting or written resolution.

16.4 Without prejudice to the provisions of any other Article, following a Compulsory Transfer the Transferring Shareholder shall have no interest in or any claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share(s) and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the Transferring Shareholder and the Company, except only such of those rights and liabilities as are by these Articles expressly saved, or as are by the 2006 Act given or imposed in the case of past Shareholders.

16.5 A statutory declaration by a Director or the Secretary that a share has been subject to a Compulsory Transfer on a specified date shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share and the declaration shall

(subject to the execution of an instrument of transfer if necessary) constitute a good title to the share. Title to the share shall not be affected by any irregularity in, or validity of, the proceedings in reference to the transfer of the share.

17 Purchase of Own Shares

17.1 Subject to the 2006 Act but without prejudice to any other provision of these Articles, the Company may purchase its own shares in accordance with Chapter 4 of Part 18 of the 2006 Act, including (without limitation) out of capital up to any amount in a financial year not exceeding the lower of:

17.1.1 £15,000; and

17.1.2 the nominal value of 5% of the Company's fully paid share capital at the beginning of each financial year of the Company.

18 Transfer of Shares

The instrument of transfer of a share may be in any usual form or in any other form which the Board may approve.

19 Rights to Decline Registration of Shares

19.1 The Board may, in its absolute discretion, refuse to register the transfer of a share (whether or not such share is fully paid), unless the transfer is from the Nominee of a person who is entitled to appoint a Nominee under Article 9 to another Nominee of the same person, or from any Nominee to the person entitled to the relevant share(s) under Article 8.2 that appointed the Nominee, and the disclosure requirements under Article 9 have been complied with.

19.2 If the Board refuses to register the transfer, it shall within two months after the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company send to the transferee notice of the refusal.

19.3 The Company shall be entitled to retain any instrument of transfer which is registered, but any instrument of transfer which the Board refuses to register shall be returned to the person lodging it when notice of the refusal is given.

20 No Fee for Registration

No fee shall be charged for the registration of any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.

21 Alteration of Share Capital

21.1 The Company may by ordinary resolution:

21.1.1 increase its share capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such amount as the resolution prescribes; and

21.1.2 cancel shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of shares so cancelled.

21.2 Subject to the provisions of the 2006 Act, the Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve and any share premium account in any way.

PART 3: ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

24 Annual General Meetings

24.1 The Board shall convene and the Company shall hold an annual general meeting in each calendar year except where the Board decides, in its absolute discretion, either that:

24.1.1 no business is to be heard or resolution proposed at the annual general meeting in any calendar year; or

24.1.2 holding the annual general meeting is impracticable or imprudent in any calendar year.

24.2 Subject to a decision on the Board in accordance with Articles 24.1.1 or 24.1.2, the Board may:

24.2.1 prior to the sending of the notice of an annual general meeting, elect not to convene the annual general meeting; or

24.2.2 after the sending of the notice of an annual general meeting but before the meeting is held, or after the adjournment of an annual general meeting but before the adjourned meeting is held (whether or not notice of the adjourned meeting is required), postpone or cancel an annual general meeting (or any adjourned meeting).

24.3 For the purposes of these Articles, a reference to “general meetings” of the Company include annual general meetings unless the context otherwise requires.

25 Convening of General Meetings

Subject to the provisions of Article 24.1, the Board may call general meetings whenever and at such times as it shall determine and, on the requisition of Shareholders pursuant to the provisions of the 2006 Act, shall forthwith proceed to convene a general meeting in accordance with the requirements of the 2006 Act.

26 Attendance and Participation at General Meetings

26.1 The Board shall determine in relation to each general meeting the means of attendance at and participation in the meeting, including whether the persons entitled to attend and participate in the general meeting shall be enabled to do so by simultaneous attendance and participation at a physical place determined by it or by means of an electronic platform(s) determined by it in accordance with Article 31.1, or partly in one way and partly in another.

26.2 Two or more persons who may not be in the same place as each other attend and participate in a general meeting if they are able to exercise their rights to speak and vote at that meeting. A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting if that person can communicate to all those attending the meeting while the meeting is taking place. A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting if that person can vote on resolutions put to the meeting (or, in relation to a poll, can vote within the required time frame) and, subject to Article 37.4, that person's vote can be taken into account in deciding whether such resolutions are passed at the same time as the of others attending the meeting.

- 26.3 When deciding whether a person is attending or participating in a meeting other than at a physical place, it is immaterial where that person is or how that person is able to communicate with others who are attending and participating.

27 Business – Proposals

The Board shall be entitled to propose such business to a general meeting as it considers appropriate, including any amendment to these Articles and/or to the Rules (PROVIDED THAT, and subject always to the provisions of the 2006 Act, any proposal to amend the Rules and/or the Articles has the approval of Council as set out in Articles 86.2.2 and 87.1 respectively).

28 Notice of General Meetings

A general meeting shall be called by at least fourteen clear days' notice but a general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of Shareholders having a right to attend and vote, being a majority together not holding less than 90% of the total voting rights at a general meeting.

29 Contents of Notice of General Meetings

- 29.1 The notice shall specify whether the meeting will be held (wholly or partly) at a physical place or by means of an electronic platform(s). The notice shall also state the time, date and place and/or electronic platform(s) of the meeting and shall, in the case of an annual general meeting, specify the meeting as such, and, in the case of a meeting to pass a special resolution, specify the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution, as the case may be.

- 29.2 If the meeting is to be held (wholly or partly) by means of an electronic platform(s), the notice shall specify any access, identification and security arrangements determined in accordance with Article 31.3.

- 29.3 The notice shall state with reasonable prominence that a Shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the meeting being called is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote instead of such Shareholder, and that a proxy need not also be a Shareholder.

30 Omission to give Notice and Non-receipt of Notice

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to any person entitled to receive the same, or the non-receipt of a notice of meeting by any such person, shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting. Notice of a general meeting shall be deemed to have been given to any Nominee if sent to a business address of the body set out under Article 8.1 entitled to the share and on whose behalf the Nominee has been appointed as Nominee under Article 9.

31 Electronic Meetings

- 31.1 The Board may decide to enable persons entitled to attend and participate in a general meeting to do so by simultaneous attendance and participation by means of an electronic platform(s). Shareholders or their proxies present shall be counted in the quorum for, and entitled to vote at, the general meeting in question, and that meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if the chair of the meeting is satisfied that adequate facilities are available throughout the meeting to ensure that Shareholders or their proxies attending the meeting who are not present together at the same place may:

- 31.1.1 participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened;

- 31.1.2 hear all persons who speak at the meeting; and
 - 31.1.3 be heard by all other persons present at the meeting.
 - 31.2 If it appears to the chair of the meeting that the electronic platform(s) has become inadequate for the purposes referred to in Article 31.1, then the chair may, without the consent of the meeting, interrupt or adjourn the meeting. All business conducted at that meeting up to the time of that adjournment shall be valid and the provisions of Article 35 shall apply to that adjournment.
 - 31.3 If a general meeting is held by means of an electronic platform(s), the Board may make any arrangement and impose any requirement or restriction as is:
 - 31.3.1 necessary to ensure the identification of those taking part and the security of any electronic communication; and
 - 31.3.2 proportionate to those objectives.
- In this respect, the Board may authorise any voting application, system or facility as they see fit.

PART 4: PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

32 Quorum at General Meetings

No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present, but the absence of a quorum shall not preclude the choice or appointment of a chair of the meeting, which shall not be treated as part of the business of the meeting. Ten or more Shareholders entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a Shareholder or a proxy for a Shareholder or a duly authorised representative of a corporation shall be a quorum.

33 Procedure if Quorum Not Present

33.1 If such a quorum is not present within thirty minutes from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved, and in any other case shall stand adjourned to such time and place as the chair of the meeting may determine.

33.2 If at the adjourned meeting there are less than ten Shareholders present, they shall have power to decide on all matters which might have been disposed of at the meeting from which the adjournment took place if a quorum had been present thereat PROVIDED THAT at least three days' notice has been given to the Shareholders of such adjournment in order to enable special business to be transacted thereat by less than a quorum.

34 Chair of General Meeting

34.1 The Leader of Council or in absence of such person, a Vice-Chair (or in absence of a Vice-Chair any other Director) nominated by the Board shall preside as chair at a general meeting.

34.2 If at any meeting neither the Leader of Council nor a Vice-Chair nor such other nominated Director (if any) is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Shareholders present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chair of the meeting.

35 Adjournments

35.1 The chair of the meeting may with the consent of the meeting (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn any meeting and specify the time, date, place and/or electronic platform(s) to which it is adjourned, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting, other than the business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.

35.2 The chair of the meeting may at any time without the consent of the meeting adjourn any meeting (whether or not it has commenced or a quorum is present) either without specifying a time, date, place and/or electronic platform(s) or to another time, date, place and/or electronic platform(s) where it is apparent that:

35.2.1 the Shareholders wishing to attend cannot be conveniently accommodated in the place and/or electronic platform(s) appointed for the meeting;

35.2.2 the conduct of persons present prevents or is likely to prevent the orderly continuation of business; or

- 35.2.3 an adjournment is otherwise necessary so that the business of the meeting may be properly conducted.

36 Amendment to Resolutions

If an amendment shall be proposed to any resolution under consideration but shall in good faith be ruled out of order by the chair of the meeting, the proceedings on the substantive resolution shall not be invalidated by any error in such ruling. With the consent of the chair of the meeting, an amendment may be withdrawn by its proposer before it is voted upon. In the case of a resolution duly proposed as a special resolution, no amendment thereto (other than an amendment to correct a patent error) may in any event be considered or voted upon.

37 Method of Voting

- 37.1 Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares, on a show of hands each Shareholder who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote and on a poll each Shareholder present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every share of which they are the holder. Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares, on a written resolution each Shareholder shall have one vote for every share of which they are the holder.

- 37.2 If any votes are given or counted at a general meeting which shall afterwards be discovered to be improperly given or counted, the same shall not affect the validity of any resolution or thing passed or done at the said meeting, unless the objection to such votes be taken at the same meeting, and not in that case, unless the chair of the meeting shall then and there decide that the error is of sufficient magnitude to affect such resolution or thing passed or done.

- 37.3 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote the chair may have.

- 37.4 Upon any resolution to be considered at a general meeting to amend any of the Articles listed in Articles 22.1 and/or 23.1 of these Articles or for the removal of, or waiver or ratification of any breach of, any of those Articles:

- 37.4.1 whether on a show of hands or on a poll, when the votes cast on that resolution have been counted, the chair of the meeting, before any declaration of the result of that vote, shall immediately inform the Professional Game Special Shareholder and the National Game Special Shareholder (if present at the meeting):

- (a) of the number of abstentions on, and of the number of votes cast in favour of, and of those cast against, the resolution; and
- (b) in respect of the Articles listed in Article 23.1, of the number of votes cast in favour by the National Game Shareholders whether in person or by proxy;

- 37.4.2 the chair of the meeting shall then invite the Professional Game Special Shareholder and the National Game Special Shareholder to cast the votes attached to their respective shares on that resolution, whereupon the Professional Game Special Shareholder and the National Game Special

Shareholder may cast the votes attached to their respective shares on that resolution; and

- 37.4.3 the votes, if any, cast by the Professional Game Special Shareholder and/or the National Game Special Shareholder shall be counted and taken into account by the chair of the meeting in deciding whether the resolution has been passed.

38 Types of Resolution

Where for any purpose an ordinary resolution of the Company is required, a special resolution shall also be effective.

39 Poll Voting

- 39.1 A resolution put to the vote at a meeting held wholly or partly by means of an electronic platform(s) shall be decided on a poll.

- 39.2 Subject to Article 39.1, a resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands, a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the 2006 Act, a poll may be demanded by:

39.2.1 the chair of the meeting;

39.2.2 not less than five Shareholders present personally or by proxy having the right to vote at the meeting; or

39.2.3 by Shareholders, present personally or by proxy, representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the Shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting.

- 39.3 Unless a poll is duly demanded (i) a declaration by the chair of the meeting of the result of a vote; and (ii) an entry to that effect made in the minutes of the proceedings of the meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of the result of such vote in absence of proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

- 39.4 Before the relevant poll is taken, the demand for a poll may be withdrawn with the consent of the chair of the meeting at the meeting or prior to the taking of the poll. A withdrawn demand shall not invalidate the result of any show of hands declared before any demand was made.

- 39.5 A poll demanded on the election of a chair of the meeting or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately on demand for such poll. A poll demanded on any other matter shall be taken in a manner determined by the chair of the meeting either immediately or at such time after the date of the meeting as may be determined by the chair of the meeting, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in general meeting.

- 39.6 A demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded.

- 39.7 No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time, date, place and/or electronic platform(s) at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time, date, place and/or electronic platform(s) at which the poll is to be taken.

- 39.8 On a poll, votes may be given in person or by proxy. Shareholders entitled to more than one vote need not, if voting, use all their votes or cast all the votes used in the same way.
- 40 Objections or Errors in Voting
- 40.1 If:
- 40.1.1 any objection is made to the right of any person to vote is made;
 - 40.1.2 any votes have been counted which ought not to have been counted or which might have been rejected; or
 - 40.1.3 any votes are not counted which ought to have been counted,
- the objection or error must be raised or pointed out at the meeting (or the adjourned meeting) or the poll at which the vote objected to is cast or at which the error occurs. Any objection or error must be raised with or pointed out to the chair of the meeting. The chair's decision is final. If a vote is allowed at a meeting or poll, it is valid for all purposes and if a vote is not counted at a meeting or poll, this will not affect the decision of the meeting or poll.
- 40.2 The Company will not be obliged to check whether a proxy or corporate representative has voted in accordance with a Shareholder's instructions and if a proxy or corporate representative fails to do so, this will not affect the decision of the meeting (or adjourned meeting) or poll.
- 41 Appointment of Proxies
- 41.1 A Shareholder may appoint another person as proxy to exercise all or any of their rights to attend and to speak and to vote (both on a show of hands and on a poll) on a resolution or amendment of a resolution, or on other business arising, at a meeting or meetings of the Company. Unless the contrary is stated in it, the appointment of a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to exercise all such rights as the proxy thinks fit, including voting on a resolution whether or not notice of such resolution was given in the notice of meeting. The instrument of proxy shall, unless the contrary is stated therein, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.
- 41.2 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be executed by or on behalf of the appointer and shall be in writing in any usual form (or in another form approved by the Board) executed under the hand of the appointor or a duly constituted attorney or, if the appointor is a corporation, under its seal or executed by a duly authorised officer or attorney or other person authorised to execute.
- 41.3 Subject to the 2006 Act, the appointment of a proxy may be accepted by the Board if received by electronic means on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Board considers fit. The appointment of a proxy received by electronic means shall not be subject to the requirements of Article 41.2.
- 41.4 For the purposes of Articles 41.2 and 41.3, the Board may require such reasonable evidence it considers necessary to determine:
- 41.4.1 the identity of the member and the proxy; and

- 41.4.2 where the proxy is appointed by a person acting on behalf of the Shareholder, the authority of that person to make the appointment.
- 41.5 A proxy need not be a Shareholder.
- 42 Receipt of Proxies
- 42.1 An instrument appointing a proxy and any reasonable evidence required by the Board in accordance with Article 41.4 shall:
- 42.1.1 subject to Articles 42.1.3 and 42.1.4, in the case of an instrument of proxy in hard copy form, delivered to the registered office, or another place in the United Kingdom specified in the notice convening the meeting or in the form of appointment of proxy or other accompanying document sent by the Company in relation to the meeting (a "proxy notification address") not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the form of appointment of proxy proposes to vote;
- 42.1.2 subject to Articles 42.1.3 and 42.1.4, in the case of an appointment of a proxy sent by electronic means, where the Company has given an electronic address (a "proxy notification electronic address"):
- (a) in the notice calling the meeting;
 - (b) in an instrument of proxy sent out by the Company in relation to the meeting;
 - (c) in an invitation to appoint a proxy issued by the Company in relation to the meeting; or
 - (d) on a website maintained by or on behalf of the Company on which any information relating to the meeting is required by the 2006 Act to be kept,

46.2 A Shareholder may appoint more than one proxy in relation to a meeting, provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to different shares held by the member. When two or more valid but differing instruments of proxy are delivered in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting, the one which was delivered last (regardless of its date or of the date of its execution) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the others as regards that share; if the Company is unable to determine which was delivered last, none of them shall be treated as valid in respect of that share.
