Notes on the Accounts

- (1) The Primitive Methodist African Missionary Society is a company limited by guarantee and not having a share capital.

The company has not traded in the period. No revenue has been received and no expenditure incurred.

The company is custodian trustee of certain properties used by overseas churches. Consequently it is not considered appropriate to include these properties and any related mortgages taken out locally in these accounts.

In the period under review none of the directors received any emoluments from the company.

The company was dormant throughout the financial year.

- (2) For the year ended 31st December 2003 the company was entitled to exemption under section 249A(1) of the Companies Act 1985.

No members have required the company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with section 249B(2).

The directors acknowledge their responsibility for:

- i. ensuring the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221, and
- ii. preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of its financial year, and of its profit and loss for the financial year in accordance with section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.
