9. GOING CONCERN

The Covid-19 pandemic is an unprecedented situation and while the reduction in activity associated with Covid- 19 could be sharp and large, it is likely to rebound sharply when social distancing measures are lifted.

In addition, in the intervening period, while activity is disrupted, substantial and substantive government and central bank measures have been put in place in the UK and internationally to support businesses and households.

The measures, which have been evolving rapidly and could evolve further, are expected to remain in place throughout the period of disruption.

However, In light of the above the director considers that the Covid-19 pandemic will not have a detrimental effect on the company's trade.
