Profit on ordinary activities after taxation	£2,721	£31

ACTIVITIES

The company did not trade during the year and is expected to remain dormant for the foreseeable future. Full provision has been made against the company's assets held in India due to the severe restrictions placed on these assets by the Reserve Bank of India. Income and expenditure arising from these assets have not been incorporated into the reported results for 2005 due to these restrictions. The results of the Indian branch are summarised in note 4 to the financial statements.

DIRECTORS

Board

The present board is shown on page one.

Mr. M.D. Conway retires by rotation and, being eligible, offers himself for re-election.

Shareholdings

Neither at the end of the year, nor at any time during the year, has any director held a beneficial interest in any shares of the company.

The interests of Mr. M.C. Perkins in shares of group companies are disclosed in the accounts of the holding company Camellia Plc.

AUDITORS

On 3rd October 2005, Moore Stephens, the company's auditor, transferred its entire business to Moore Stephens LLP, a limited liability partnership incorporated under the Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2000. The directors consented to treating the appointment of Moore Stephens as extending to Moore Stephens LLP with effect from 3rd October 2005.

STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

The directors are required by the Companies Act 1985 to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company at the end of the financial year and of the profit or loss of the company for the financial year. The directors consider that in preparing the accounts, the company has used appropriate accounting policies, consistently applied and supported by reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates. In addition the directors confirm that the going concern basis is appropriate and all applicable accounting standards have been followed.

The directors have responsibility for ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and which enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. The directors also have responsibility for safeguarding the assets of the company and for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

to the shareholders of The Dhoolie Tea Company, Limited

We have audited the financial statements of The Dhoolie Tea Company, Limited for the year ended 31st December 2005 set out on pages four to eight. These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out on page seven.

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Section 235 of the Companies Act 1985. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As described in the Statement of Directors' Responsibilities the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs).

Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with relevant legal and regulatory requirements and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland).

We report to you our opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view and are properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985. We also report to you if, in our opinion, the Directors' Report is not consistent with the financial statements, if the company has not kept proper accounting records, if we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit, or if information specified by law regarding directors' remuneration and transactions with the company is not disclosed.

We read the Directors' Report and consider the implications for our report if we become aware of any apparent misstatements within it.

Basis of audit opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland) issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion the financial statements

- give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRSs of the state of the company's affairs as at 31st December 2005 and of its profit for the year then ended; and
- have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985.
