available for the payment thereof but to no further right of participation either in profits or assets

(b) The said SIP Shares shall not confer the right to receive notice of any General Meeting of the Company or to attend or vote at any such Meeting unless a resolution (not being a resolution for winding up the Company) directly affecting the Interest of such shares as a class is proposed and shall not confer any right to vote on any resolution for winding up the Company

(c) Any shares in any new or increased capital of the Company may be issued as SIP Shares ranking in priority to or pari passu with the Said SIP Shares without any such consent or resolution as is mentioned in Articles 80 and 81

|----|---|---|
| 8 | Allotment of Shares and Return of Allotments | The shares in the capital of the Company shall be under the control of the Directors, who may, subject to the provisions of Article 37, allot or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons and for such consideration, upon such terms and conditions, and at such times, as the Directors think fit. Shares may be issued at par or at a premium |
| 9 | | As regards all allotments from time to time made, the Directors shall duly comply with all requirements as to returns prescribed by the Statutes |
| 10 | Shares may be issued subject to different conditions as to Calls | The Company may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid and the time of payment of such calls |
| 11 | Instalments on Shares to be duly paid | If by the conditions of the allotment of any share the whole or part of the amount or issued price thereof shall be payable by instalments, every such instalment shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the person who for the time being shall be the registered holder of the share |
| 12 | Liability of joint | The joint holders of a share shall be severally as well as |

holders of Shares jointly liable for payment of all instalments and calls in respect of such shares, and anyone of such persons may give effectual receipts for any return of Capital payable in respect of such share

- 13 Trusts recognised not Save as herein otherwise provided the Company shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any share as the absolute owner thereof, and accordingly shall not except as ordered by a Court of competent jurisdiction or by statute required be bound to recognise any equitable, contingent, future, partial or other claim to or interest in such share on the part of any other person

CERTIFICATES

- 14 Certificates Every certificate of title to shares, stock, debentures or debenture stock of the Company shall be issued under the Common Seal provided that with the general or special authority of a resolution of the Directors such certificates of shares, stock, debentures or debenture stock may be issued under the Common Seal but Without such signatures as are prescribed in Articles 160 to 164 or with such signatures affixed by means of some method or system of mechanical signature or in electronic form

- 14A (a) Unless otherwise determined by the Directors and permitted by the Regulations, no person shall be entitled to receive a certificate in respect of any Preference Share for so long as the title to that Preference Share is evidenced otherwise than by a certificate and for so long as transfers of that Preference Share may be made otherwise than by a written instrument by virtue of the Regulations. Notwithstanding any provisions of these Articles, the Directors shall have power to implement any arrangements they may, in their absolute discretion, think fit in relation to the evidencing of title to and transfer of an uncertificated Preference Share (subject always to the Regulations and the facilities and requirements of the relevant system concerned) No provision of these Articles shall apply or have effect to the extent that it is in any respect inconsistent with the holding of Preference Shares in uncertificated form

- (b) Conversion of a certificated Preference Share into an uncertificated Preference Share, and vice versa, may be made in such manner as the Directors may, in their absolute discretion, think fit (subject always to the Regulations and the facilities and requirements of the relevant system concerned)
- (c) The Company shall enter on the Register how many Preference Shares are held by each Member in uncertificated form and in certificated form and shall maintain the Register in each case as required by the Regulations and the relevant system concerned Unless the Directors otherwise determine, holdings of the same holder or joint holders in certificated form and uncertificated form shall be treated as separate holdings
- (d) A class of Preference Share shall not be treated as two classes by virtue only of that class comprising both certificated Preference Shares and uncertificated Preference Shares or as a result of any provision of these Articles or the Regulations which applies only in respect of certificated or uncertificated Preference Shares
- (e) The Company shall be entitled, in accordance with regulation 32(2)(c) of the Regulations, to require the conversion of an uncertificated Preference Share into certificated form to enable it to deal with that share in accordance with any provision in these Articles.
- (f) The provisions of Articles 15 to 18 inclusive shall not apply to uncertificated Preference Shares.

- 15 Members rights to Certificates Subject to Article 14A, every Member shall be entitled to one certificate for all the shares registered in his name Every such certificate of shares shall specify the number and the denoting numbers (if any) of the shares in respect of which it is issued and the amount paid up

thereon Where the Company sends share certificates to Members or their agents by post, such share certificates shall be sent at the Member's risk

- 16 As to issue of a new Certificate in the place of one defaced, lost or destroyed If any certificate be worn out or defaced then upon production thereof to the Directors they may order the same to be cancelled, and may issue a new certificate in lieu thereof, and if any certificate be lost or destroyed, then, upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Directors and on such indemnity with or without security as the Directors may deem adequate being given, a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given to the party entitled to such lost or destroyed certificate.
- 17 Fee For every certificate issued under the last preceding clause, there shall be paid to the registrars of the Company such indemnity and/or administrative fee as shall be reasonably requested by the Company as prescribed by the Statutes and to the Company the costs of any exceptional out-of-pocket expenses reasonably incurred by the Company in investigating evidence and preparing the requisite form of indemnity as the board may determine but otherwise free of charge, and (in the case of defacement or wearing out) on delivery up of the old certificate
- 18 To which of joint holders Certificate to be issued The certificates of shares registered in the names of two or more persons shall be delivered to the person first named on the register in respect of such shares

CALLS ON SHARES

- 19 Calls The Directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the Members in respect of all moneys unpaid on the shares held by them respectively, and not by the conditions of the allotment thereof made payable at fixed times and each Member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors. A call may be made payable by instalments, a date fixed for payment may be postponed and a call may be wholly or in part revoked.
- 20 When Call deemed to have been made A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising such

call was passed

| 21 | Liability of joint holders | The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof |
| 22. | Instalments to be treated as Calls | If by the terms of any prospectus or by the conditions of allotment any amount is payable in respect of any shares by instalments, every such instalment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Directors of which due notice had been given |
| 23. | When interest on Call or instalment payable | If the sum payable in respect of any call or instalment be not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the holder for the time being of the share in respect of which the call shall have been made, or the instalment shall be due, shall pay interest for the same at such rate not exceeding 10 per cent per annum as the Directors shall from time to time determine, from the time appointed for payment thereof until the actual payment thereof, and shall not receive any dividend in respect of the amount unpaid |
| 24. | Payment of Calls in advance | The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same all or any part of the money due upon the shares held by sum beyond the sums actually called for, and upon the money paid in advance, or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advances shall have been made, the Company may pay interest at such rate as the Member paying such sum in advance and the Directors agree upon, but any amount so for the time being paid in advance of calls shall not be included or taken into account in ascertaining the amount of the dividend payable upon the shares 10 respect of which such advance has been made |

| 25 | If Call or instalment be not paid notice may be given | If any Member fall to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such Member requiring him to pay the same, together with any interest that may have accrued and all expenses incurred by the Company by reason of such |

non-payment

26. Form of Notice The notice shall name a day (not being less than 14 days from the date of the notice) and a place or places on or at which such call or Instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made or Instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.
27. If Notice not complied With Shares may be forfeited If the requisitions of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, and before payment of all calls or instalments, interest and expenses due in respect thereof, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
28. Forfeited Shares to become the property of the Company Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and the Directors may sell, re-allot, and otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as they think fit, and either With or Without any past or accruing dividends, and in the case of re-allotment, with or without any money paid thereon by the former holder being credited as paid up.
29. Power to annul forfeiture The Directors may at any time, before any share so forfeited shall have been sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture upon such conditions as they think fit.
30. Arrears to be paid notwithstanding forfeiture Any Member whose shares have been forfeited shall, notwithstanding, be liable to pay, and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interest, and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment at 5 per cent per annum, and the Directors may enforce payment thereof if they think fit.
31. The Directors may accept the surrender of any share upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon. Any share so surrendered may be disposed of in the same manner as a forfeited share

32. Company's lien on Shares The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the shares other than fully paid-up shares registered in the names of each Member (whether solely or jointly with any others) for his debts, liabilities and engagements, solely or jointly with any other person to or with the Company, whether the period for payment, fulfilment, or discharge thereof shall have actually arrived or not. And such lien shall apply to all dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of a share shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such share.
33. As to enforcing lien by sale For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Directors may sell the shares subject thereto, in such manner as they think fit, but no such sale shall be made until such period as aforesaid shall have arrived and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such Member, his executors or administrators, and default shall have been made by him or them in the payment, fulfilment, or discharge of such debts, liabilities, or engagements for seven days after such notice.
34. Validity of sale under Articles 28 and 33 Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing any lien in purported exercise of the powers here before given, the Directors may cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the register in respect of the shares sold, and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings or to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the register in respect of such shares the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.
35. Certificate of proprietorship In the event of the re-allotment or sale of a forfeited or surrendered share, or the sale of any share to enforce a lien of the Company, a certificate in writing under the common seal of the Company that the share has been duly forfeited, surrendered or sold in accordance with the regulations of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming the share. A certificate of proprietorship shall (where relevant in respect of a certificated share) be delivered to the purchaser or allottee, and he shall be registered in respect thereof, and thereupon he shall be deemed the holder of the share discharged from all calls or other money interest and expenses due prior to such purchase or allotment and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money or consideration, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity in the forfeiture, surrender, or sale, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively

TRANSFER OF SHARES

36 Form of transfer

Subject to Article 36A, the instrument of transfer of any share in the Company shall be in the usual common form, and (where relevant in respect of a certificated share) shall be executed by the transferor and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect thereof, and when registered the instrument of transfer shall be retained by the Company

36A

All transfers of uncertificated Preference Shares shall be made in accordance with and be subject to the provisions of the Regulations and the facilities and requirements of the relevant system and, subject thereto, in accordance with any arrangements made by the Directors pursuant to Article 14A(a).

"Schedule 2" Schedule 2 to the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003,

- (b) Except those who were registered as holders on the date of the adoption of this Article 37(b), the only persons who may be registered as a holder of Deferred Ordinary Shares or SIP Shares are the Nominated Employee Trustee and the trustee or trustees for the time being of the trusts established by John Spedan Lewis by deeds dated respectively 18 April 1929 and 26 April 1950
- (c) An employee or director of a Group Company may transfer SIP Shares to the Nominated Employee Trustee.
- (d) In the event that an employee or director of a Group Company becomes a Leaver, he and any Permitted Transferee shall be deemed to have given on the date on which he became a Leaver, pursuant to this Article 37, a Transfer Notice or Transfer Notices in respect of all SIP Award Shares then registered in the Leaver's and the Permitted Transferee's names respectively.
- (e) Except in the case of a transfer expressly permitted by this Article 37, no person shall be entitled to dispose of any interest in either Deferred Ordinary Shares or SIP Shares without first offering them for transfer to the Nominated

Employee Trustee The offer shall be made by the proposing transferor by notice in writing to the Company (a "Transfer Notice") and may be in respect of all or some only of the shares (the "Offer Shares").

- (f) The Transfer Notice shall specify the Offer Shares and shall constitute the Board as the agent for the sale of the entire Interest in the Offer Shares to the Nominated Employee Trustee at the Market Value per share Anyone disposing of SIP Shares is required to offer such shares for sale on no better terms The Transfer Notice may not be revoked unless the Board otherwise agrees
- (g) Within 14 days (or, if applicable, within 14 days after the Market Value has been determined) the Board shall give notice to the Nominated Employee Trustee of the number of the Offer Shares and the Market Value, inviting the Nominated Employee Trustee to notify the Board within 30 days whether it is willing to purchase any and, if so, what maximum number, of Offer Shares
- (h) On or before the expiry of the 30 day period referred to above the Board shall allocate such Offer Shares as the Nominated Employee Trustee is willing to purchase to the Nominated Employee Trustee The Company may purchase at Market Value any shares that remain unallocated
- (i) The Board shall promptly give details of the allocation in writing to the proposing transferor and the Nominated Employee Trustee and within seven days after such details are given, the Nominated Employee Trustee shall be bound to pay the purchase price for the number of Offer Shares allocated to it to the proposing transferor and the proposing transferor shall be bound, on the payment of the purchase price, to complete any necessary transfer of such number of Offer Shares to the Nominated Employee Trustee.

- (j) If in any case a proposing transferor, after having become bound to transfer any shares to a purchaser, shall make default in transferring such shares, the Board may authorise any person to execute on behalf of and as attorney for the proposing transferor any necessary transfers and may receive the purchase price and cause the name of the purchaser to be entered in the register as the holder of the shares and hold the purchase price in trust for the proposing transferor. The receipt of the Company for the purchase price shall be a good discharge to the purchaser and if the name of the purchaser is entered in the register of members of the Company in respect of such shares the validity of these transactions shall not be questioned by any person.
- (k) If any person at any time attempts to deal with or dispose of any interest in Deferred Ordinary Shares or SIP Shares otherwise than in accordance with this Article 37, he shall be deemed immediately before the attempt to have served the Company With a Transfer Notice in respect of all such shares pursuant to this Article 37
- (l) The Directors may decline to register any transfer of shares held in certificated form upon which the Company has a lien, and in the case of shares held in certificated form not fully paid up may refuse to register a transfer to a transferee of whom they do not approve, provided that, where any such shares are admitted to the Official List of the Financial Services Authority such discretion may not be exercised in a way which the Financial Services Authority or the London Stock Exchange regards as preventing dealings in the shares of the relevant class or classes from taking place on an open and proper basis The Directors

may likewise refuse to register any transfer of a share (whether certificated or uncertificated), whether fully-paid or not, in favour of more than four persons jointly

(m) In respect of a share held in uncertificated form the Directors may only register or refuse to register the transfer of such a share in accordance with the Regulations.

(n) If the Board refuses to register the transfer, it shall within two (2) months after the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged With the Company send the transferee notice of the refusal

37A Notice of refusal to register a transfer

If the Directors refuse to register a transfer they shall, in the case of certificated shares, within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee notice of the refusal and (except in the case of fraud) return to him the instrument of transfer or, in the case of uncertificated shares, notify such person as may be required by the Regulations and the requirements of the relevant system concerned

38. Registration of transfer

In relation to a certificated share, every instrument of transfer must be left at the office of the Company to be registered, accompanied by the certificate of the shares comprised therein, and such evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor and the due execution by him of the transfer, and With such fee, not exceeding the sum prescribed by the Statutes, as the Directors may from time to time determine, and thereupon the Directors, subject to the power vested in them by the last preceding Article, shall register the transferee as a Shareholder

39 Closing of transfer books

Without prejudice to Article 36A, the transfer books and the register and any register of holders of debentures of the Company may be closed at such time or times as the Board shall deem expedient so that the same be not closed for any greater period in the whole than thirty days in the year

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- 40 Representatives of interest of deceased Members The executors or administrators of a deceased Member (not being one of several joint holders) shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to shares held by him alone, but in the case of shares held by more than one person, the survivor or survivors only shall be recognised by the Company as being entitled to such shares
- 41 Evidence in case of death, bankruptcy or insolvency Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of death, bankruptcy or insolvency of any Member may, upon such evidence being produced as may be required by the Directors, be either registered as a Member (in respect of which registration the Company may require payment of such fee not exceeding the sum prescribed by the Statutes, as the Directors may from time to time determine) or may, without being so registered, execute a transfer to some other person who shall be registered as a transferee of such share, but the Company shall have the like power of declining to register such transfer as is provided with respect to ordinary transfers. This clause is hereinafter referred to as the "Transmission Clause".
- 42 Power for executors to pay up in full The executors or administrators of a deceased Member shall be entitled at any time to pay up in full all the moneys due upon the shares held by such Member alone beyond the amount called up thereon, unless within two calendar months after being requested in writing so to do the Directors shall procure some person or persons to purchase such shares at a price equal to the amount paid up or credited as paid up thereon
43. Power to sell shares The Company shall be entitled to sell, in such manner and at such price as the Directors think fit, the shares or stock of a Member or any share or stock to which a person is entitled by transmission on death or bankruptcy if and provided that:
- (a) for any period of 12 years ending after the date of the resolution incorporating this Article no cheque, warrant or order sent by the Company in the manner authorised by these Articles in respect of the share in question has been cashed and no communication has been received by the Company from the Member or the person entitled by transmission and during such period at least three dividends whether interim or final on or in respect of the share(s) in question have become payable and no such dividend sent during that period has been claimed, and

- (b) on or after expiration of the said period of 12 years the Company has given notice of its intention to sell such share(s) by advertisement in both a national newspaper and a newspaper circulating in the area in which the last address of the Member or the address at which service of notices may be effected is located, and by letter sent to the Member at such address, but so that such advertisements need not refer to the names of the holder(s) of the share(s) or identify the share(s) in question, and
- (c) during the further period of three months after the publication of such advertisements and the sending of such letter, and prior to the exercise of the powers of sale conferred by this Article, the Company has not received any communication from the Member or person entitled by transmission, and
- (d) if the shares are listed or dealt in on the London Stock Exchange, the Company has given Notice in writing to the London Stock Exchange of its intention to sell such shares or stock

To give effect to any such sale the Directors may appoint any person to execute as transferor an instrument of transfer of such share(s) or stock and such instrument of transfer shall be as effective as if it had been executed by the holder of or person entitled by the transmission to such share(s) or stock, and the title of the transferee shall not be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating thereto. The Directors shall be entitled to register such transfer notwithstanding that no certificate representing the said shares shall have been produced

INCREASE OR REDUCTION OF CAPITAL

- 50 Increase of Capital The Directors may, with the sanction of a General Meeting of the Company, increase the capital of the Company by the issue of new shares, such aggregate increase to be of such amount and to be divided into shares of such respective amounts as the Company may direct. Subject to such privileges, provisions or conditions as are or may be attached thereto, all new shares shall be subject to the same provisions in all respects as if they had been part of the original capital
- 51 Power to issue new Shares as Preference Shares The Directors may with the sanction of a General Meeting of the Company, given either at the Meeting which sanctions an increase of capital, or at any other meeting, issue any new shares with such preferential right to dividend and such priority in the distribution of assets, or subject to such postponement of dividends or in the distribution of assets, and with or subject to such preferential or limited or qualified right of voting at General Meetings as they may think proper, but so that the preferential or special rights of any issued shares shall not be prejudiced or affected except with the consent of the holders thereof duly given under Articles 80 and 81
- 52 Manner of Issue of new shares Any new shares shall be allotted and issued in such manner and on such terms as the Company at the meeting which sanctions such issue shall direct, or, if no direction be given, as the Directors may think expedient.
- 53 Reduction of Capital The Company may, in accordance With the Statutes, from time to time by special resolution reduce its capital, any capital redemption reserve and any share premium account many way

General Meetings Meetings.

- 56 When General Meeting to be called The Directors may, whenever they think fit, and they shall on the requisition of holders entitled to vote of not less than one-tenth of the issued capital of the Company, upon which all calls and other sums then due have been paid, forthwith proceed to convene a General Meeting of the Company, and in case of such requisition the following provisions shall have effect.
- (a) The requisition must state the objects of the General Meeting, and must be signed by the requisitionists, and deposited at the office, and may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more requisitionists;
 - (b) If the Directors do not proceed to cause a General Meeting to be held within 21 days from the date of the requisition being so deposited, the requisitionists or a majority of them in value may themselves convene the General Meeting, but any General Meeting so convened shall not be held after three months from the date of such deposit
 - (c) If at any such General Meeting a resolution requiring confirmation at another General Meeting is passed the Directors shall forthwith convene a further General Meeting for the purpose of considering the resolution, and, if thought fit, of confirming it as a special resolution, and if the Directors do not convene the General Meeting within seven days from the date of the passing of the first resolution, the requisitionists or a majority of them in value may themselves convene the meeting
 - (d) Any General Meeting convened under this clause by the requisitionists shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which Meetings are to be convened by the Directors
- 57 Notice of Meetings Not less than twenty-one (21) clear days' notice in respect of an Annual General Meeting and not less than the minimum number of days' notice permissible under the Statutes in respect of any other General Meeting specifying the place, the day and hour of General Meeting, and in case of special business the general nature of such business shall be given to the Members except such of them as under any provision of these Articles are not entitled to receive such notice with the consent in writing of ninety-five per cent (95%) of all Members entitled to receive notice of any meeting such meeting may be convened by a shorter notice and in any manner they think fit. The non-receipt of any notice by any Member shall not invalidate the proceedings at any General Meeting For the purposes of this Article a notice of Meeting must be given in accordance With the 2006 Act that is in hard copy, electronic form or by means of a website

58. Electronic Communication

If notice of a Meeting is sent in electronic form the Company must have complied with all applicable regulatory requirements and the person entitled to receive such notice must have agreed that the notice can be sent to him in that way and not revoked that agreement or, in the case of a company, be deemed to have agreed to receive notice in that way by a provision in the Statutes The notice must be sent to the address specified by the person entitled to receive such notice or, in the case of notice sent to a company, an address which is deemed to have been specified by any provision of the Statutes

59 Notice of meeting on a website

Provided that the Company has complied With all applicable legal requirements the Company may send or supply a notice of Meeting by making it available on a website and where the Company intends to make that notice of Meeting available on a website, the Company must

- (a) comply with the provisions of Articles 173 and 174,
- (b) notify persons entitled to receive such notice that the nonce of Meeting has been published on the website, such notification to state that it concerns a notice of Meeting to specify the place, date and time of the Meeting and whether the Meeting will be an Ordinary

Meeting, and

- (c) the notice must be available on the website throughout the period beginning with the date of notification and ending With the conclusion of the Meeting.

- 60. Business of Annual General Meeting The business of an Annual General Meeting other than the first one shall be to receive and consider the profit and loss account, the balance sheet and reports of the Directors and of the Auditors, to elect Directors and Officers in the place of those retiring, to declare dividends, and to transact any business brought before the meeting by the Directors' report and any other business which under these presents ought to be transacted at an Annual General Meeting All other business transacted at an Annual General Meeting and all business transacted at a General Meeting shall be deemed special

Special Business

Except pursuant to a resolution of the Board no business shall be transacted at any Annual General Meeting which would render it necessary to summon the holders of Cumulative Preference Stock or the holders of SIP Shares

- 61. Quorum For all purposes the quorum for a General Meeting shall be not less than two Members present in person, and entitled to vote at such meeting.
- 62. Quorum to be present when business commenced No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless the quorum requisite shall be present at the commencement of the business
- 63 Proceeding if quorum no present If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum be not present, the meeting, if convened by or upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved In any other case it shall stand adjourned to such time and place as the Chairman shall appoint At any such adjourned meeting, the members present and entitled to vote, whatever their number, shall have power to decide upon all matters which could properly have been disposed of at the meeting from which the adjournment took place

64. Chairman The Chairman (if any) of the Board of Directors shall preside as Chairman at every General Meeting of the Company if there be no such Chairman, or if at any meeting he be not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or be unwilling to act, the Directors present shall select one of their number to be Chairman, and, that failing, the Members present and entitled to vote shall choose some one of their number to be Chairman.
65. Power to adjourn The Chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place, and without such consent he may adjourn any meeting at which a proposal of importance was made for the consideration whereof in his judgement - which shall not be challenged - a larger attendance of Members is desirable. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
66. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for ten days or more notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as of an original meeting save as aforesaid the Members shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
67. How questions to be decided at meetings Every question submitted to a meeting shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands.
68. What is evidence of the passing of a Resolution unless poll demanded At any General Meeting, unless a poll be demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that the resolution has been carried, or carried by a particular majority, or lost or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the books of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.
69. Who may demand a poll A poll may be demanded upon any question by the Chairman or by not less than three persons present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, or by any holder of Deferred Ordinary Shares present in person or by proxy.

70. How poll to be taken If a poll is demanded as aforesaid it shall be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the Chairman of the meeting directs, and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand of a poll may be withdrawn. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately.
71. In what cases poll taken without adjournment Any poll duly demanded on the election of a Chairman of a meeting or on any question of adjournment shall be taken at the meeting and without adjournment.
72. Business may proceed notwithstanding demand of a poll The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

VOTING

73. Votes of Members
- (a) On a poll every holder of Deferred Ordinary Shares shall have 1,000 votes for every Deferred Ordinary Share of which he is the holder.
 - (b) Subject as aforesaid and subject also to any special terms as to voting upon which any shares may be issued, or may for the time being be held, every Member who is present in person or by proxy shall upon a show of hands have one vote and upon a poll one vote in respect of each share held by him. Any corporation holding shares conferring the right to vote may by resolution of its Directors authorise any of its officials or any other person to act as its representative at any General Meeting of the Company and at any meeting of holders of any class of shares of the Company and such representative shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of such corporation as if he had been an individual shareholder of the Company.
74. Joint Owners If two or more persons are jointly entitled to shares, anyone of such persons may vote at any meeting, either personally or by proxy, in respect thereof as if he were solely entitled thereto, and if more than one of such joint holders be present at any meeting, either personally or by proxy, the Member whose name stands first on the Register as one of the holders of such shares, and no other, shall be entitled to attend the meeting and to vote in respect of the same. Several executors or administrators of a deceased Member in whose name any share stands shall for the purpose of this clause be deemed to be joint holders.

- 75 No Member in arrear with Call to vote No Member shall be entitled to be present or to vote at any General Meeting or upon any poll, or to exercise any privilege as a Member unless all calls or other moneys due and payable in respect of any share of which he is the holder have been paid, and no Member shall be entitled to vote at any meeting in respect of any share that he has acquired by transfer unless he has been registered as the holder of the share in respect of which he claims to vote for at least one month previously to the time of holding the meeting at which he proposes to vote.
- 76 Voting personally or by proxy Votes may be given personally or by proxy. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing in the usual form, under the hand of the appointor or his duly constituted attorney, or if such appointor is a corporation, under its Common Seal or the hand and seal of its attorney. No person shall be appointed a proxy who is not a Member of the Company or otherwise entitled to attend the meeting and vote. Delivery of an instrument appointing a proxy shall not preclude a Member from attending and voting in person at the Meeting or poll concerned. A Member may appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion, and may appoint different proxies to exercise the rights attaching to different shares held by that member.
- 76A Proxy in relation to uncertificated shares Without limiting Article 76, in relation to any shares which are held in uncertificated form, the Directors may from time to time permit appointments of a proxy to be made by an Uncertificated Proxy Instruction, (that is, a properly authenticated dematerialised instruction, and/or other instruction or notification, which is sent by means of the relevant system concerned and received by such participant in that system acting on behalf of the Company as the Directors may prescribe, in such form and subject to such terms and conditions as may from time to time be prescribed by the Directors (subject always to the facilities and requirements of the relevant system concerned)), and may in a similar manner permit supplements to, or amendments or revocations of, any such Uncertificated Proxy Instruction to be made by like means. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Directors may in addition prescribe the method of determining the time at which any such properly authenticated dematerialised instruction (and/or other instruction or notification) is to be treated as received by the Company or such participant. The Directors may treat any such Uncertificated Proxy Instruction which purports to be or is expressed to be sent on behalf of a holder of a share as sufficient evidence of the authority of the person sending that instruction to send it on behalf of that holder.

- 77 As to deposit of proxy The instrument appointing a proxy, together With the power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed, or other written authority under which it is executed or an office or notarily certified copy or a copy certified in accordance With the Powers of Attorney Act 1971 of such power or written authority shall be deposited by personal delivery or delivered by post or facsimile transmission or electronic communication at or to the Office not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote
78. When votes by proxy valid, though authority revoked A vote given in accordance With the terms of an instrument of proxy will be valid notwithstanding the previous death of the principal or revocation of the proxy or transfer of the share in respect of which the vote is given, provided no intimation in writing of the death, revocation or transfer shall have been received at the Office before the meeting
- 79 Votes in respect of Shares of bankrupt or deceased members Any person entitled under the transmission clause to transfer any shares may vote at any General Meeting in respect thereof in the same manner as if he were the registered holder of such shares, provided that 48 hours at least before the time of holding the meeting or adjourned meeting as the case may be, at which he proposes to vote, he shall satisfy the Directors of his right to transfer such shares or the Directors shall have previously admitted his right to vote at such meeting in respect thereof.

MEETINGS OF CLASSES OF MEMBERS

80. Meetings of classes of Members The holders of any class of shares may at any time, and from time to time, and whether before or during liquidation, by writing Signed by the holders of three-fourths in number of the Issued shares of the class or by Special Resolution passed at a meeting of such holders, consent on behalf of all the holders of shares of the class to the Issue or creation of any shares ranking equally therewith or having any priority thereto, or to the abandonment of any preference or priority or of any accrued dividend, or to the reduction for any time or permanently of the dividends payable thereon, or to the amalgamation into one class of the shares of any two or more classes or to the sub-division of shares of one class into shares of different classes or to any alterations in these Articles varying or taking away any rights or privileges attached to shares of the class, or to any scheme for the reduction of the Company's capital affecting the shares of the class in a manner not otherwise authorised by these Articles, or to any scheme for the distribution (though not in accordance With legal rights) of assets in money or in kind in or before liquidation, so far as any such distribution IS permitted by Clause 6 of the Memorandum of Association of the Company or to any contract for the sale of the whole or any part of the Company's property or business determining the way in which as between the several classes of shareholders the purchase consideration shall (so far as distributable) be distributed, and generally consent to any alteration, contract, compromise or arrangement which the persons voting thereon could If sui juries and holding all the shares of the class consent to or enter into, and such resolution shall be binding upon all the holders of shares of the class
81. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article, the Company may create and Issue further shares ranking par passu with the 5 per cent Cumulative Preference Stock in the capital of the Company or the SIP Shares in the capital of the Company and may purchase any of Its 5 per cent Cumulative Preference Stock or 71h per cent Cumulative Preference Stock or SIP Shares pursuant to the provisions of the Statutes Without any such consent as IS in this Article provided No such purchase of Preference Stock of either class or SIP Shares shall be treated as directly affecting the interests of or varying or abrogating any of the rights or privileges of the holders of either class of the Preference Stock or the holders of SIP Shares

- 82 Proceedings at meetings of classes of Members Any meeting for the purposes of the last preceding clause shall be convened and conducted in all respects as nearly as possible in the same way as a General Meeting of the Company, provided that no Member, not being a Director, shall be entitled to nonce thereof or to attend thereat, unless he be a holder of shares of the class intended to be affected by the resolution, and that no vote shall be given except in respect of a share of that class, and that the quorum at any such meeting shall, subject to the provision as to an adjourned meeting here before contained, be Members holding or representing by proxy at least one-half of the Issued shares of the class, and that a poll may be demanded in writing by any three Members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the meeting

Part 4 • DIRECTORS AND OTHER OFFICERS

DIRECTORS

83. Number of Directors The number of Directors shall not be less than three, but the continuing or actual Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, provided that if the number of the Board be less than the prescribed minimum the remaining Directors or Director shall forthwith appoint an additional Director or additional Directors to make up such minimum or convene a General Meeting of the Company for the purpose of making such appointment
- 84 The Directors shall receive for their services as Directors such remuneration, if any, as the Board shall from time to time determine
- 85 The Directors shall also be entitled to be repaid all reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses incurred by them respectively in or about the performance of their duties as Directors including any expense incurred in attending Meetings of the Board or of Committees of the Board or General Meetings and if in the opinion of the Directors it is desirable that any of their number should make any special Journeys or perform any special services on behalf of the Company or its business, such Director or Directors may be paid such reasonable additional remuneration and expenses therefor as the Directors may from time to time determine

86 Qualifications

A Director shall not be required to hold any shares in the capital of the Company by way of qualification. A Director who is not a Member of the Company shall nevertheless be entitled to receive notice of and attend and speak at General Meetings of the Company or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company

87 Directors to have power to fill casual vacancies

The Directors shall have power at any time to appoint any person as an addition to the Board either to fill a casual vacancy, or as an addition to the Board, but so that the total number of Directors shall not exceed the maximum number fixed as above but any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next Ordinary General Meeting of the Company, and shall then be eligible for re-election.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

Any Director (other than a Non-Executive Director) may by writing under his hand appoint any Member of the Company who is approved by the Board of Directors to be his substitute, and every such substitute shall in the absence from the Board of the Director appointing him be entitled to attend and vote at Meetings of the Directors, and shall have and exercise all the powers, rights, duties and authorities of the Director appointing him. A Director may at any time revoke the appointment of a substitute appointed by him, and subject to such approval as aforesaid appoint another person in his place, and if a Director shall die or cease to hold the office of Director the appointment of his substitute shall thereupon cease and determine.

Every person acting as a substitute for a Director shall be an officer of the Company, and shall alone be responsible to the Company for his own acts and defaults, and he shall not be deemed to be the agent of or for the Director appointing him. The remuneration of any such substitute shall be payable out of the remuneration payable to the Director appointing him, and shall consist of such portion of the last-mentioned remuneration as shall be agreed between the substitute and the Director appointing him.

MANAGING DIRECTORS

The Directors may from time to time appoint one or more of their body to be Managing Director, joint Managing Directors or any other executive position of the Company either for a fixed term or without any limitation as to the period for which he or they is or are to hold such office and may from time to time remove or dismiss him or them from office and appoint another or others in his or their place or places.

91

A Managing Director shall while he continues to hold that office be subject to the same provisions as to resignation and removal as the other Directors of the Company, and if he ceases to hold the office of Director from any cause he shall ipso facto and immediately cease to be a Managing Director.

The salary or remuneration of any Managing Director of the Company shall, subject as provided in any Agreement, be such as the Directors may from time to time determine, and may either be a fixed sum of money, or may altogether or in part be governed by the business done or profits made, or may be upon such other terms as the Directors determine.

The Directors may from time to time entrust to and confer upon a Managing Director for the time being such of the powers exercisable under these presents by the Directors as they may think fit, and may confer such powers for such time, and to be exercised for such objects and purposes and upon such terms and conditions, and with such restrictions as they may think expedient, and they may confer such powers either collaterally with or to the exclusion of and in substitution for all or any of the powers of the Directors in that behalf and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

94. Directors to have superintendence and control of business of Company The business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors who in addition to the powers and authorities by these presents or otherwise expressly conferred upon them may exercise all such powers, and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Company, and as are not by the Statutes or by these Articles required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to such directions being not inconsistent with any regulation of these Articles or the provisions of the Statutes as may be given by the Company in General Meeting Provided that no direction be given by the Company in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors, which would have been valid if such direction had not been given, and the provisions contained in these Articles as to any specific power of the Directors shall not be deemed to abridge the general powers hereby given

- (c) To erect and execute any buildings or works which may be considered necessary or desirable for the purposes of the Company
- (d) To pay or provide for the payment of the costs, charges and expenses of or incidental to the issue of the capital of the Company, either by or through an issuing house purchasing with a view to re-sale, or otherwise, or on any direct offer by the Company, including expenses brokerage or commission for obtaining applications for or placing its debentures or shares (such commission in the case of shares not to exceed the rate or amount hereinbefore specified)
- (e) To make and carry out any amalgamation with any other company or firm carrying on any business included amongst the objects of this Company, as stated in the Memorandum of Association, and to sell the whole of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company as a going concern, or to purchase the business of any such other company or firm as a going concern
- (f) To pay for any property or rights either wholly or partially in shares of the Company, and to allot and issue any such shares, either as fully paid up, or with such amount credited as paid up thereon as the Directors may think fit, and in like manner to pay or satisfy any money payable or agreed or required to be paid by the Company, and to pay or satisfy any such money by crediting the same as paid upon shares previously issued
- (g) To sell, grant, let, exchange, surrender, or otherwise dispose of absolutely or conditionally, or for any limited estate or interest, all or any part of the property of the Company

- (h) To accept payment or satisfaction of any money payable to the Company, or of any claim of the Company, whether in respect of any sale or disposition of property or otherwise wholly or partially in shares, stock, debentures, or securities of any other Company
- (i) To secure the fulfilment of any contracts or engagements entered into by the Company by deposit of money or deposit or charge on property of the Company, including its unpaid capital for the time being or in such other manner as they think fit
- (j) To appoint and at their discretion remove or suspend such managers, secretaries, officers, clerks, agents and servants for permanent, temporary or special services as they may from time to time think fit, and to determine their powers and duties and fix their salaries or emoluments, and to require security in such instances and to such amount as they think fit
- (k) To invest and deal with any of the moneys of the Company not immediately required for the purposes thereof upon such securities (not being shares of the Company) and in such manner as they may think fit and from time to time to transpose or realise such investments
- (l) To give to any person employed by the Company a commission on the profits of any particular business or transaction or a share in the general profits of the Company, and such commission or share of profits shall be treated as part of the working expenses
- (m) From time to time to make, vary and repeal bye-laws for the regulation of the business of the Company, its officers and servants
- (n) To make and give or authorise any other persons to make and give receipts, releases and other discharges for moneys payable to the Company, and for the claims and demands of the Company

- (o) To institute, conduct, defend, compound, or abandon any legal proceedings by or against the Company or its officers or otherwise concerning the property or affairs of the Company, and also to compound or allow time for payment or satisfaction of any debts due, and of any claims or demands by the Company
- (p) To refer any claims or demands by or against the Company to arbitration, and to perform and observe the awards
- (q) Before recommending any dividend to set aside out of the profits of the Company such sums as they think proper as a reserve fund to meet contingencies or for equalising dividends or for special dividends or for repairing, improving and maintaining any of the property of the Company, or for distribution among the Members to the extent of and in accordance With their rights and interest in the profits at the time of distribution, or for such other purposes as the Directors shall in their absolute discretion think conducive to the interests of the Company, and to invest the several sums so set aside upon such investments (other than shares of the Company) as they may think fit and from time to time deal with and vary such investments and dispose of all or any part thereof for the benefit of the Company, and to divide this reserve fund into such special funds as they think fit, with full power to employ the assets constituting the reserve fund in the business of the Company, and that without being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets
- (r) To enter into all such negotiations and contracts, to make all such payments and to do and execute all such other acts, deeds, and things in the name and on behalf of the Company as they may consider expedient for any of the matters aforesaid or otherwise for the purposes of the Company, and to rescind or vary any contracts

- (s) The Directors from time to time and at any time may establish any local boards or agencies for managing any of the affairs of the Company abroad, and may appoint any person to be members of such local board or any managers or agents, and may fix their remuneration

96. Directors may contract with Company Subject to the Statutes and provided that he has disclosed to the Board the nature and extent of any material interest of his, a Director notwithstanding his office may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested and may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company (otherwise than as auditor) and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director
- 97 Directors may join Boards of other companies A Director may be or become a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate promoted by this Company, or in which it may otherwise be interested as a Vendor, Shareholder, or otherwise, and no such Director shall, by reason of his office, be accountable for any benefits derived from such office or employment or from any such transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit

DIRECTORS' CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

98. Subject to Articles 96 and 97, the Board shall have power and shall be enabled, subject to and in accordance with the remaining provisions of these Articles 98 to 113, to authorise (an "Authorisation") any matter which would or might constitute or give rise to any breach of the duty of a Director under Section 175 of the 2006 Act to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company (including, without limitation, in relation to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity, whether or not the Company could take advantage of it, but excluding any situation which cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest)

99 Effectiveness
Authorisation

of An Authorisation shall only be effective where

- (a) the resolution in respect of the Authorisation is proposed for consideration at a meeting of the Board in accordance with the Board's normal procedures or in such other manner as the Board may determine, or is proposed by way of a written resolution of the Directors pursuant to Articles 131 to 136,
- (b) reasonable details of the matter or situation to the Authorisation relates were disclosed to the Board, and
- (c) in accordance With Section 175(6) of the 2006 Act, the Authorisation is agreed to without counting in the quorum for the relevant meeting of the Board, or counting any votes on the Authorisation cast by, any of the following (all or any of which persons may, if the other Directors present so decide, be excluded from the relevant meeting of the Board while the proposal to provide an Authorisation is under consideration)
 - (i) the Director to which the Authorisation relates,
 - (ii) any Director who is a "connected person" of the Director to which the Authorisation relates, as such term is defined in Section 252 of the 2006 Act), and
 - (iii) any Director who is an "other interested director" for the purposes of Section 175(6)(a) of the 2006 Act, but otherwise an Authorisation may be proposed and resolved upon by the Board in such manner as the Board deems at its absolute discretion to be appropriate

100 For whom Authorisation may be given

An Authorisation may be given in respect of

- (a) a person who is to be, or is proposed to be, appointed as a Director, with regard to such appointment, or
- (b) an appointed Director with regard to discontinuing performance of his duties, or otherwise as the Board may determine.

101. Authorisation
 requirements

An Authorisation may be given subject to such terms and conditions as the Board may determine at its absolute discretion, and the relevant Director shall comply with all such requirements, and which may (but need not) include all or any of the following (but without limitation to any other limitations, terms and conditions as may be imposed by the Board)

- (a) the period for which the Authorisation shall subsist, or any date or event upon which it shall expire or be modified,
- (b) any events, matters or consequences which do not fall within the Authorisation or whereby a further Authorisation shall be required,
- (c) whether the relevant Director may count in the quorum for and/or vote upon any matter to which the Authorisation relates at meetings of the Board,
- (d) the exclusion of the relevant Director from receipt of or access to certain information or documentation of the Company connected with the matter to which the Authorisation relates (including any general classes or categories of information or documentation),
- (e) the exclusion of the relevant Director from discussions (whether at meetings of the Board, general meetings of the Company or otherwise) connected with the matter to which the Authorisation relates,

- (f) requirements with respect to the disclosure of confidential information of the Company to any other person, or the disclosure of confidential information of any other person to the Company (and which may include permitting the relevant Director not to disclose confidential information of another person to the Company)
102. Authorisations to be recorded The Board shall ensure that the terms of each Authorisation are recorded in writing and a copy retained by the Company (but the Authorisation shall be effective whether or not the terms are so recorded)
103. Revocation variation Authorisation or of The Board may revoke or vary an Authorisation at any time, but this shall not affect anything done or omitted to be done by the relevant Director in accordance With the terms of the Authorisation prior to receiving notice of the revocation or variation
104. Extent Authorisation of Save as provided in any terms and conditions determined by the Board in accordance with Article 101, above, an Authorisation shall be deemed to be given to the fullest extent permissible at law, and shall extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of or in connection with the matter so authorised
105. Confidential information Any Authorisation relating to a matter where the relevant Director obtains (other than through his position as a director of the Company) information that is confidential to a third party, he will not be obliged to disclose it to the Company or to use it in relation to the Company's affairs in circumstances where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence
106. These Articles 98 to 113 shall constitute a provision for the purposes of Section 175(5)(b) of the 2006 Act, but for the avoidance of doubt shall not apply in respect of any situation where a Director is in any way, directly or indirectly, interested in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company (in respect of which Article 98 to 113 shall apply)
107. If any question arises at any meeting as to whether an interest of a Director (other than the Chairman's interest) shall reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest or as to the entitlement of any Director (other than the Chairman) to vote or be counted in a quorum, and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting or being counted in the quorum, such question shall be referred to the Chairman of the meeting the Chairman's ruling in relation to the Director concerned shall be final and conclusive except in a case where the nature or extent of the interest of the Director concerned (so far as it is known to him) has not been fairly disclosed to the Board

If any question arises at any meeting as to whether an interest of the Chairman shall reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest or as to the entitlement of the Chairman to vote or be counted in a quorum, and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting or being counted in the quorum, such question shall be decided by resolution of the Directors or committee members present at the meeting (excluding the Chairman), whose majority vote shall be final and conclusive except in a case where the nature or extent of the interest of the Chairman (so far as it is known to him) has not been fairly disclosed to the Board 109.

A Director shall not (save as may otherwise be agreed by him or may be provided by terms and conditions determined by the Board) be liable to account to the Company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit resulting from any matter to which the Authorisation relates, and no contract shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such profit or benefit, nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration, profit or other benefit constitute a breach of Section 176 of the 2006 Act 110.

A Director shall not be in breach of the general duties he owes to the Company under the 2006 Act by virtue of the fact that pursuant to the terms of an Authorisation he

- (a) absents himself from Board Meetings or other proceedings of the Board at which matters relating to the conflict of interest or possible

conflict of interest will or may be discussed, or

- (b) makes arrangements not to receive, or refrains from considering, any documents relating to the conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest, or makes arrangements for a professional adviser to receive any such documents on his behalf, for so long as he reasonably believes the matter to which the Authorisation relates subsists

The provisions of these Articles 98 to 113 are without prejudice to any equitable principle or rule of law which may excuse a Director from

- (a) disclosing information in circumstances where disclosure would otherwise be required under these Articles or otherwise, or
- (b) attending meetings or discussions or receiving documents or information in circumstances where such attendance or receiving would otherwise be required under these Articles

Any reference to a conflict of interest in these Articles 98 to 113 shall include a conflict of interest and duty, and a conflict of duties, and any reference to an interest includes both direct and indirect interests

113

For the purposes of these Articles 98 to 113, in relation to an alternate Director, the interest of his appointor is treated as the interest of the alternate Director in addition to any interest which the alternate Director otherwise has

114. Power to raise money

The Directors may borrow or raise from time to time such sums of money as they think necessary for the purposes of the Company

115. Mode of Borrowing
