DIRECTORS' REPORT

The directors present their report and accounts for the year ended 31 March 2012

REVIEW OF THE BUSINESS

The company is a dormant company and has not traded during the financial year under review. It is not anticipated that there will be any change in the company's dormant status.

DIRECTOR AND HIS INTERESTS

The director of the company throughout the year under review was Mr R G StJ Rowlandson. The interests of the director in the company's ultimate holding company, RO Trading Limited, are shown in that company's annual report and accounts.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES IN RESPECT OF THE ACCOUNTS

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to

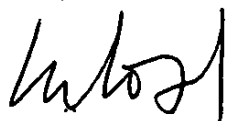

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently, and
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- prepare the accounts on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

AUDITORS

The company satisfies the provisions of Section 480 of the Companies Act 2006 and accordingly the company is exempt from the obligation to appoint auditors.
