6. The Board shall have power to admit to membership of the Corporation any person whether or not at the date of such admission a member of the Council of The Guide Association and who shall signify in writing her consent to become a member of the Corporation. provided that -

- (A) in no case shall the number of members of the Corporation for the time being authorised be exceeded, and
- (B) the number of members of the Corporation who are not members of The Council of The Guide Association (other than any member who when admitted was a member of the Council) shall not at any time exceed four.

7. A member shall cease to be a member of the Corporation-

- (A) Upon her retirement to be signified by such member in writing to the Corporation; or on her death.
- (B) In the case of a member under Article 5(B) on her ceasing to hold her office as Chief Guide, Deputy Chief Guide or Honorary Treasurer; and in all other cases upon the fifth anniversary of her becoming a member of the Corporation unless the Board shall determine to extend her membership thereafter for not more than three years
- (C) If when admitted she was a member of The Council of The Guide Association upon her ceasing to be such a member unless the Board shall otherwise determine.
- (D) Upon a resolution to that effect being passed by not less than three-fourths of the members of the Corporation present in person at a General Meeting of the Corporation of which she has received proper notice and at which she shall have had a reasonable opportunity of attending and being heard.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

8 The Board may hold an Annual General Meeting shall be under no obligation to do so

9 All General Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

10. The Board may call an Extraordinary General Meeting whenever they think fit, and Extraordinary General Meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or in default may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by Section 368 of the Act

11. All General Meetings shall be called by at least fourteen clear days' notice but any General Meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed –

- A) in the case of an Annual General Meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
- B) in the case of any other meeting by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote being a majority together holding not less than ninety-five per cent of the total voting rights at the meeting of all the members.

The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and in the case of special business the general nature of the business to be transacted and, in the case of an Annual General Meeting, shall specify the meeting as such.

The notice shall be given to such members of the Corporation as are under the provisions of these presents entitled to receive notices from the Corporation

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

12. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, and all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting shall also be deemed special, with the exception of the consideration of the accounts and balance sheet, and the reports of the Board and of the Auditors and the fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors.

13. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise provided the quorum shall be three members personally present

14. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or at such other place as the Chairman shall appoint, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting the members present shall be a quorum

15 With the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, the Chairman may adjourn a meeting from time to time, and from place to place, as the meeting shall determine. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for ten days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, the members shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment, or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

16. The Chairman (if any) of the Board shall preside at every General Meeting, but if there be no such Chairman, or if at any meeting she shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, or shall be unwilling to preside, the members present shall choose some member of the Board, or if no such member be present, or if all the members of the Board present decline to take the chair, they shall choose some member of the Corporation who shall be present to preside.

17. At all General Meetings a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands by a majority of the members present in person and entitled to vote, unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by at least three members present in person and entitled to vote. Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried, or has been carried by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, shall be conclusive, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Corporation shall be conclusive evidence thereof, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. If a poll is so demanded, it shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded. A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken forthwith or at such other time as the Chairman of the meeting directs.

18. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a further or casting vote

19. Every member personally present shall have one vote and no more. No vote shall be given by proxy.

BOARD OF MANAGEMENT.

20 Until otherwise determined by a General Meeting, the number of the members of the Board shall not be less than three nor more than eight

21 The first members of the Board shall be nominated in writing from amongst the members by a majority of the subscribers to the Memorandum of Association.

22. (A) The Corporation in General Meeting may by resolution from time to time

appoint any member of the Corporation to be a member of the Board, either to fill a casual vacancy or by way of addition to the Board, provided that the prescribed maximum be not exceeded and provided that the Corporation shall not appoint as a member of the Board any person who may have been removed from the Board by the Executive Committee under Sub-clause (B) of this Article

(B) The Executive Committee of The Guide Association may from time to time appoint any member of the Corporation to be a member of the Board, either to fill a casual vacancy or by way of addition to the Board, provided that the prescribed maximum be not exceeded, and may from time to time remove any member of the Board. Any such appointment or removal shall be by instrument in writing signed by two members of the Executive Committee acting in pursuance of a resolution in that behalf passed at a meeting of such Committee, and shall take effect upon being lodged at the Office, together with a copy of such resolution certified by the Secretary of the Executive Committee to be a true copy thereof.

23. No person who is not a member of the Corporation shall in any circumstances be eligible to hold office as a member of the Board.

POWERS OF THE BOARD

24. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board, who may pay all such expenses of, and preliminary and incidental to, the promotion, formation, establishment and registration of the Corporation as they think fit, and may exercise all such powers of the Corporation, and do on behalf of the Corporation all such acts as may be exercised and done by the Corporation, and as are not by the Act or by these presents required to be exercised or done by the Corporation in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to any regulations of these presents, to the provisions of the Act, and to such regulations, being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions, as may be prescribed by the Corporation in General Meeting, but no regulation made by the Corporation in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made

25. The continuing members of the Board may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body; provided always that in case the members of the Board shall at any time be reduced in number to less than the minimum number prescribed by or in accordance with these presents, it shall be lawful for them to act as the Board for the purpose of summoning a General Meeting, but not for any other purpose.

26. (A) The Board may from time to time by resolution appoint a Secretary and if necessary a temporary substitute for the Secretary and any person so appointed shall for all the purposes of these presents be deemed during the term of his appointment to be the Secretary.

(B) The Board may from time to time by resolution appoint a Treasurer and if necessary a temporary substitute for the Treasurer and any person so appointed shall for all the purposes of these presents be deemed during the term of his appointment to be the Treasurer

27. The seal of the Corporation shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of a resolution of the Board, and at least two members of the Board and the Secretary shall sign every instrument to which the seal shall be so affixed; and in favour of any purchaser or person bona fide dealing with the Corporation such signatures shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that the seal has been properly affixed.

28. Cheques on the Corporation's bankers, until otherwise from time to time resolved upon by the Board, shall be signed by any two of the Secretary, the Treasurer and the members of the Board. The Corporation's banking account shall be kept with such banker or bankers as the Board shall from time to time determine.

DISQUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD.

29. The office of a member of the Board shall be vacated-

- (A) If she becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with her creditors generally
- (B) If she becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing and administering her own affairs.
- (C) If she ceases to be a member of the Corporation.
- (D) If by notice in writing to the Corporation she resigns her office
- (E) If she ceases to hold her office by virtue of any provision of the Act or she becomes prohibited by law from being a charity trustee or otherwise a member of the Board.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD

30. The Board may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, and determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business. Unless otherwise determined, two shall be a quorum.

Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

31. On the request of a member of the Board the Secretary shall, at any time, summon a meeting of the Board by notice served upon the several members of the Board. A member of the Board who is absent abroad shall not be entitled to notice of a meeting

32. The Board shall from time to time elect a Chairman who shall preside at all meetings of the Board at which she shall be present, and may determine for what period she is to hold office, but if no such Chairman be elected, or if at any meeting the

Chairman be not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding a meeting, the members of the Board present shall choose some one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting

33. A meeting of the members of the Board for the time being at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all the authorities, powers and discretions by or under the regulations of the Corporation for the time being vested in the Board generally. For the avoidance of doubt the Board may hold meetings by telephone or video conference provided all participants can communicate with each other

34. The Board may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such members of the Board as they think fit, and any committee so formed shall conform to any regulations imposed on it by the Board. The meetings and proceedings of any such committee shall be governed by the provisions of these presents for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Board so far as applicable and so far as the same shall not be superseded by any regulations made by the Board as aforesaid.

35. All acts bona fide done by any meeting of the Board or of any committee of the Board, or by any person acting as a member of the Board, shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such member or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a member of the Board.

36. The Board shall cause proper minutes to be made of the proceedings of all meetings of the Corporation and of the Board and of Committees of the Board, and all business transacted at such meetings, and any such minute of any meeting, if purporting to be signed by the Chairman of such meeting, or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be conclusive evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated

37. A resolution in writing signed by all the members for the time being of the Board or of any Committee of the Board shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board or of such Committee duly convened and constituted

ACCOUNTS.

38. The Board shall cause proper books of account to be kept with respect to-

- (A) The assets and liabilities of the Corporation,
- (B) The sums of money received and expended by the Corporation and the matters in respect of which such receipts and expenditure take place; and
- (C) All sales and purchases of goods by the Corporation

39. The books of account shall be kept at the Office, or at such other place or places as the Board shall think fit, and shall always be open to the inspection of the members of the Board

40. The Corporation in General Meeting may from time to time make reasonable conditions and regulations as to the time and manner of the inspection by the members of the accounts and books of the Corporation, or any of them, and subject to such conditions and regulations the accounts and books of the Corporation shall be open to the inspection of members at all reasonable times during business hours.

41. Once at least in every year the Board shall lay before the Corporation in General Meeting an income and expenditure account for the period since the last preceding account or in the case of the first account since the incorporation of the Corporation made up to a date not more than four months before such meeting, together with a balance sheet made up as at the same date. Every such balance sheet shall be accompanied by a report of the Board and a report of the Auditors, and a copy of such account, balance sheet and reports shall not less than twenty one days before the meeting be sent to all persons entitled to receive notices of General Meetings in the manner in which notices are hereinafter directed to be served. The Auditors' report shall be read before the meeting.

AUDIT.

42. Once at least in every year the accounts of the Corporation shall be examined and the correctness of the income and expenditure account and balance sheet ascertained by one or more properly qualified Auditor or Auditors.

43. Auditors shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with Sections 384 to 394A of the Act, the members of the Board being treated as the Directors mentioned in those sections.

NOTICES.

44. A notice may be served by the Corporation upon any member, either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter, addressed to such member at her registered address as appearing in the register of members.

45. Any member described in the register of members by an address not within the United Kingdom, who shall from time to time give the Corporation an address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be served upon her, shall be entitled to have notices served upon her at such address, but, save as aforesaid, no member other than a member described in the register of members by an address within the United Kingdom shall be entitled to receive any notice from the Corporation.

46. Any notice, if served by post, shall be deemed to have been served on the day following that on which the letter containing the same is put into the post, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice was properly addressed and put into the post office as a prepaid letter.

Schedule

Provisions formerly in the Memorandum
are now deemed part of the Articles of Association

1. The name of the Company (hereinafter called "the Corporation") is "THE GIRL GUIDES ASSOCIATION TRUST CORPORATION."

2. The registered office of the Corporation will be situate in England.

3. The objects for which the Corporation is established are—

(A) To undertake, accept, execute, perform and administer any trusts or conditions affecting lands, buildings, hereditaments, investments, funds or other property whatsoever held or owned in trust or for the benefit or for any of the purposes or objects of The Girl Guides Association (incorporated by Royal Charter) or any branch thereof or company or local association of Girl Guides established according to the regulations of The Girl Guides Association and recognised thereby, subject always to the provisions of Section 14 of the Companies Act 1929.

(B) To take such steps as may be necessary under the law relating to charities or charitable trusts for validly and effectually vesting such property or any part thereof in the Corporation.

- (c) To undertake, accept, execute and administer any charitable trusts without remuneration.
- (d) To acquire, accept and hold as trustee, nominee or agent of or for The Girl Guides Association or any such branch company or local Association as aforesaid or for any charitable body or Association, and to sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of, manage, develop, exchange, deal with and turn to account real and personal property of all kinds whatsoever, and any interest therein, subject to such consents (if any) as may for the time being be required by law, and to the terms of any trusts affecting the same.
- (e) To found, subsidise, manage and assist any funds, associations or institutions calculated or intended to assist The Girl Guides Association or any such branch, company or local association as aforesaid.
- (f) Subject to the provisions of the said section to accept any gift or donation of property, devise, legacy or annuity, subscription or contribution, whether subject to any special trust or not, for the purposes or objects of The Girl Guides Association or any such branch, company or local association as aforesaid, or any of them, or for any charitable purpose.
- (g) To take such steps as may from time to time be deemed expedient for the purpose of promoting the objects of the Corporation or of procuring contributions to its funds by way of gifts, donations, subscriptions, legacies, devises or in any other manner.
- (h) To borrow, raise or secure the payment of money for the purpose of promoting the objects of the Corporation, and for those purposes to create mortgages or charges on the undertaking and all or any part of the property and rights of the Corporation, present or after acquired, so far as may be consistent with any trusts affecting the same.
- (i) Subject to the provisions of Section 14 of the Companies Act 1929, to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Corporation may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Corporation, and to construct, maintain and alter any buildings or erections necessary or convenient for those purposes.

- (J) To sell, lease, let, mortgage, exchange, dispose of or turn to account all or any of the property or assets of the Corporation as may be thought expedient with a view to the promotion of its objects.
- (K) To invest moneys not immediately required in or upon such investments, securities or property as may be thought fit, but so that moneys subject or representing property subject to the jurisdiction of the Charity Commissioners shall only be invested in such securities and with such sanction (if any) as may for the time being be prescribed by law.
- (L) To establish and support and to aid in the establishment and support of any other associations formed for all or any of the objects of the Corporation, provided that every such association shall prohibit the distribution of its income and property amongst its members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Corporation under or by virtue of Clause 4 hereof.
- (M) To amalgamate or become associated with any companies, institutions, societies or associations having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Corporation and which shall prohibit the distribution of their capital and income amongst their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Corporation under or by virtue of Clause 4 hereof.
- (N) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake so far as lawfully may be all or any part of the property, assets, liabilities and engagements of any one or more of the companies, institutions, societies or associations with which the Corporation is authorised to amalgamate.

- (o) To procure the Corporation to be registered or recognised in any foreign country or place, and to obtain any Act of Parliament, Provisional Order, enactment, decree or other legislative or executive act of any government, state, colony, province, dominion, sovereign or authority, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise for enabling the Corporation to carry any of its objects into effect.
- (p) To pay all expenses of and incidental to the formation and establishment of the Corporation.
- (q) To establish and support or to aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts and conveniences calculated to benefit employes or ex-employes of the Corporation (not being members of the Corporation), or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance.
- (r) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, or trustees, and by or through trustees or agents, and either alone or in conjunction with others.
- (s) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

Provided that the Corporation shall not support with its funds any object, or endeavour to impose on or procure to be observed by its members or others, any regulation, restriction or condition which if an object of the Corporation would make it a Trade Union.

Provided also that in case the Corporation shall take or hold any property subject to the jurisdiction of the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales or Board of Education, the Corporation shall not sell, mortgage, charge or lease the same without such authority, approval or consent, as may be required by law, and as regards any such property, the Managers or Trustees of the Corporation shall be chargeable for any such property that may come into their hands and shall be answerable and accountable for their own acts, receipts, neglects and defaults, and for the due administration of such property in the same manner and to the same extent as they would as such Managers or Trustees have been if no incorporation had been effected, and the incorporation of the Corporation shall not diminish or impair any control or authority exercisable by the Chancery Division, the Charity Commissioners or the Board of Education over such Managers or Trustees, but they shall as regards any such property be subject jointly and separately to such control or authority as if the Corporation were not incorporated. In case the Corporation shall take or hold any property which may be subject to any trusts, the Corporation shall only deal with the same in such manner as allowed by law, having regard to such trusts.

4. The income and property of the Corporation, whence-soever derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Corporation as set forth in this Memorandum of Association, and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit, to the members of the Corporation.

Provided that nothing herein shall prevent the payment, in good faith, of reasonable and proper remuneration to any officer or servant of the Corporation, or to any member of the Corporation, in return for any services actually rendered to the Corporation, nor prevent the payment of interest at a rate not exceeding 5 per cent. per annum on money lent or reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any member to the Corporation; but so that no member of the Board of Management or Governing Body of the Corporation shall be appointed to any salaried office of the Corporation or any office of the Corporation paid by fees, and that no remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth shall be given by the Corporation to any member of such Board or Governing Body, except repayment of out-of-pocket expenses and interest at the rate aforesaid on money lent or reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let to the Corporation; provided that the provision last aforesaid shall not apply to any payment to any railway, gas, electric lighting, water, cable or telephone company of which a member of the Board of Management or Governing Body may be a member, or any other company in which such member shall not hold more than one hundredth part of the capital, and such member shall not be bound to account for any share of profits she may receive in respect of any such payment.

5. No addition, alteration or amendment shall be made to or in the regulations contained in the Articles of Association for the time being in force, unless the same shall have been previously submitted to and approved by the Board of Trade.

6. The fourth and fifth paragraphs of this Memorandum contain conditions on which a licence is granted by the Board of Trade to the Corporation in pursuance of Section 18 of the Companies Act 1929.

7. The liability of the members is limited.

8. Every member of the Corporation undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Corporation, in the event of its being wound up while he is a member, or within one year after he ceases to be a member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Corporation contracted before he ceases to be a member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories amongst themselves, such amount as may be required not exceeding £1.

9. If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Corporation there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Corporation, but shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions having objects similar to the objects of the Corporation, and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Corporation under or by virtue of Clause 4 hereof, such institution or institutions to be determined by the members of the Corporation at or before the time of dissolution, or in default thereof by a Judge of the High Court of Justice having jurisdiction in regard to charitable funds, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to the aforesaid provision, then to some charitable object.

10. True accounts shall be kept of the sums of money received and expended by the Corporation, and the matters in respect of which such receipts and expenditure take place, and of the property, credits and liabilities of the Corporation; and subject to any reasonable restrictions as to the time and manner of inspecting the same that may be imposed in accordance with the regulations of the Corporation for the time being in force, such accounts shall be open to the inspection of the members. Once at least in every year the accounts of the Corporation shall be examined and the correctness of the balance sheet ascertained by one or more properly qualified Auditor or Auditors.
