DIRECTORS' REPORT

The directors present their report and the accounts for the year ended 31 December 2001.

REVIEW OF THE BUSINESS

The company has not traded during the year.

DIRECTORS AND THEIR INTERESTS

The present directors of the company, who served throughout the year, are those listed on page 2.

There are no directors' interest which require to be included in this report pursuant to Schedule 7 of the Companies Act 1985.

DORMANT COMPANY STATUS

At a meeting on 27 October 1997, the company passed a special resolution under Section 250 of the Companies Act 1985 exempting the company from the need to prepare audited accounts as the company was dormant with effect from 1 January 1997.

By order of the Board

G D McLeen

Secretary

2002

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- follow applicable accounting standards.

The directors confirm that they have complied with the above requirements.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
