REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

for the year ended 31st March 2006

The directors submit their report together with the financial statements of the company for the ended 31st March 2006.

Activities and Business Prospects

The company has remained dormant throughout the financial year and the directors expect the company to remain dormant for the foreseeable future.

Directors and their Interests in Shares

The directors who held office during the financial year were:

J. Whittaker
P.A. Scott
P.P. Wainscott
P.J. Hosker

None of the above directors held any interests in shares of the company during the financial year.

John Whittaker is also a director of the intermediate holding company, Peel Holdings (Land and Property) Limited, in whose accounts their beneficial interests in the shares and financial instruments of that company, companies within the Peel Holdings (Land and Property) Limited group and the ultimate holding company, Tokenhouse Holdings Limited, are disclosed.

Directors' Responsibilities

United Kingdom company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for the system of internal control, safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

On behalf of the Board
