For the year ended 31 December 2014 the Company was entitled to exemption under Section 480 of the Companies Act 2006 (the "Act") relating to dormant companies.

The Members have not required the Company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with Section 476 of the Act. The Directors acknowledge their responsibilities for complying with the requirements of the Act with respect to accounting periods and the preparation of accounts. These accounts have been prepared in accordance with the provision applicable to companies subject to the small companies' regime.

Company law requires the Directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company as at the end of the financial year and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the Directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed; and
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis, unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The Directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with Section 393 (1) of the Act. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The financial statements of Willis Pension Trustees Limited, registered company number 543828 were approved by the Board of Directors and authorised for issue on 19 March 2015 and signed on its behalf by:

IC Warner
Director, Willis Pension Trustees Limited
