2 Accounting policies

Summary of significant accounting policies and key accounting estimates

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard 102 - 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland', including Section 1A and the Companies Act 2006. There are no material departures from FRS 102.

Basis of preparation

These financial statements have been prepared using the historical cost convention except that as disclosed in the accounting policies certain items are shown at fair value.

Going concern

The company is reliant upon the continued support from its directors to pay debts as they fall due. The directors have indicated that this support will continue and will not be withdrawn. Therefore the financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis.

The directors have considered the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the business and do not anticipate a material impact on the company. Therefore the directors have continued to apply the going concern basis.

Financial instruments

Classification

The company holds the following financial instruments:

- Other debtors

All financial instruments are classified as basic.

Recognition and measurement

The company has chosen to apply the recognition and measurement principles in FRS102.

Financial instruments are recognised when the company becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument and derecognised when in the case of assets, the contractual rights to cash flows from the assets expire or substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are transferred to another party, or in the case of liabilities, when the company's obligations are discharged, expire or are cancelled.

Such instruments are initially measured at transaction price, including transaction costs, and are subsequently carried at the undiscounted amount of the cash or other consideration expected to be paid or received, after taking account of impairment adjustments.

Rights, preferences and restrictions

Ordinary shares

The Ordinary shares entitle the holder to one vote per share at any meeting of the company. In respect of dividends the directors shall not be bound to treat the Ordinary Shares and Redeemable Preference Shares in the same manner. On a winding up of the company, the Ordinary shares are entitled to a sum equal to all unpaid dividend arrears and accruals and the balance of any such assets, after the Redeemable Preference shares have been prioritised.

Redeemable Preference Shares

The Redeemable Preference Shares are redeemable at the option of the company. They are redeemable at £1 per share and carry no voting rights. On a winding up of the company the holders of the shares have the right to receive a return at par.
