DIRECTORS' REPORT

The directors present their report and accounts for the year ended 31 March 2004.

REVIEW OF THE BUSINESS

The company is a dormant company and has not traded during the financial year under review. It is not anticipated that there will be any change in the company's dormant status.

DIRECTORS AND THEIR INTERESTS

The directors during the year, none of whom were beneficially interested in the company's shares, were as follows:

Mr Richard Graham St John Rowlandson
Mr John Keith Palmer (resigned 30 April 2004)

Mr Richard Graham St John Rowlandson retires by rotation, and being eligible, offers himself for re-election.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES IN RESPECT OF THE ACCOUNTS

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently; and
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the accounts on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

AUDITORS

The Company satisfies the provisions of Section 249AA(4) of the Companies Act 1985 and accordingly the company is exempt from the obligation to appoint auditors.
