STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES IN RESPECT OF THE ACCOUNTS

The directors are responsible for preparing this report and the accounts in accordance with applicable law and Generally Accepted Accounting Practice

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently , make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent , state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts, and prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The directors confirm that the accounts comply with the above requirements

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities
