THE COMPANIES ACT, 1948

COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES

REGISTERED
30 JAN 1963

Articles of Association

Quatro Limited.

1. The following regulations and (subject as hereinafter provided) the regulations contained in Part I of Table A in the First Schedule to the Companies Act, 1948 (hereinafter called "Table A"), shall constitute the Articles of Association of the Company.

2. Regulations 4, 24, 75, 77, 84, 87 and 89 to 97 (inclusive) of Table A shall not apply to the Company.

3. The Company is a private company and accordingly:

- (a) The Directors may, without assigning any reason, decline to register any transfer of shares.
- (b) The number of members of the Company (exclusive of persons who are in the employment of the Company and of persons who, having been formerly in the employment of the Company, were while in such employment and have continued after the determination of such employment to be members of the Company) is limited to fifty: Provided that where two or more persons hold one or more shares in the Company jointly they shall, for the purpose of this Article, be treated as a single member.

- (c) Any invitation to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures of the Company is prohibited.

4. The share capital of the Company is £100 divided into 100 Ordinary Shares of £1 each.

5. Whenever the Capital of the Company is divided into shares of different classes the rights and privileges of any such class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of such class) may be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three quarters of the issued shares of such class or with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the shares of that class. At every such separate general meeting the quorum shall be 2 persons at least holding or representing by proxy one third of the issued shares of such class.

6. The words "two members present in person or by proxy" shall be substituted for the words "three members present in person" in Regulation 53 of Table A.

7. A resolution in writing signed by all the members for the time being entitled to vote shall be as effective for all purposes as an Ordinary Resolution duly passed at a General Meeting of the Company duly convened and held, and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more members.

8. Unless otherwise determined by the Company by Ordinary Resolution, the number of Directors shall not be less than two nor more than seven.

9. A Director shall not require a share qualification but nevertheless shall be entitled to attend and speak at any General Meeting of, and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company.

10. A member or members holding a majority in nominal value of the issued Ordinary Shares for the time being in the Company shall have power from time to time and at any time to appoint any person or persons as a Director or Directors either as an additional Director or to fill any vacancy (provided that the total number of Directors shall not exceed the maximum number prescribed by or in accordance with these Articles) and to remove from office any Director howsoever appointed. Any such appointment or removal shall be effected by an instrument in writing signed by the member or members making the same, or in the case of a member being a company signed by one of its directors on its behalf, and shall take effect upon lodgment at the registered office of the Company.

11. A Director may from time to time by writing under his hand appoint another Director or any other person to be his alternate but no such appointment of any person not being a Director shall be operative unless and until approved by the Directors. Every such alternate shall (subject to his giving to the Company an address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be served upon him) be entitled to notice of meetings of the Directors and to attend and vote as a Director at any such meeting at which the Director appointing him is not personally present and generally at such meeting to have and exercise all the powers, rights, duties and authorities of the Director appointing him. Every such alternate shall also be entitled in the absence from the United Kingdom of the Director appointing him to sign on his behalf a resolution in writing of the Directors. Every such alternate shall be an officer of the Company and shall not be deemed to be the agent of the Director appointing him. The remuneration of an alternate shall be payable out of the remuneration payable to the Director appointing him, and shall consist of such portion of the last mentioned remuneration as shall be agreed between such alternate and the Director appointing him. A Director may by writing under his hand deposited at the registered office of the Company at any time revoke the appointment of an alternate appointed by him. If a Director shall die or cease to hold the office of Director the appointment of his alternate shall thereupon cease and determine.

12. The proviso to Regulation 79 of Table A shall not apply to the Company.

13. (a) A Director may hold any other office or place of profit under the Company (except that of Auditor) in conjunction with his office of Director, and may act in a professional capacity to the Company on such terms as to remuneration and otherwise as the Directors shall arrange.

(b) A Director may be or become a Director or other officer of, or otherwise interested in, any company promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as member or otherwise, and no such Director shall be accountable for any remuneration or other benefits received by him as a director or officer of or from his interest in such other company. The Directors may also exercise the voting power conferred by the shares in any other company held or owned by the Company in such manner in all respects as they think fit, including the exercise thereof in favour of any resolution appointing them or any of their number directors or officers of such other company or voting or providing for the payment of remuneration to the directors or officers of such other company. A Director may vote in favour of the exercise of such voting rights in manner aforesaid, notwithstanding that he may be or be about to become a director or officer of such other company and as such or in any other manner is or may be interested in the exercise of such voting rights in manner aforesaid.

(c) No Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company either as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, nor shall any such contract or any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director shall be in any way interested be avoided nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such Director holding that office or of the fiduciary relationship thereby established. The nature of a Director's interest must be declared by him at the meeting of the Directors at which the question of entering into the contract or arrangement is first taken into consideration, or if the Director was not at the date of that meeting interested in the proposed contract or arrangement at the next meeting of the Directors held after he became so interested, and in a case where the Director becomes interested in a contract or arrangement after it is made at the first meeting of the Directors held after he becomes so interested. A general notice to the Directors by a Director that he is a member of any specified firm or company and is to be regarded as interested in any contract or transaction which may after the date of the notice be made with such firm or company shall (if such Director shall give the same at a meeting of the Directors or shall take reasonable steps to secure that the same is brought up and read at the next meeting of the Directors after it is given) be a sufficient declaration of interest in relation to such contract or transaction under this Article, and after such general notice it shall not be necessary to give any special notice relating to any particular contract or transaction with such firm or company. A Director may as a Director vote and be counted as one of a quorum upon a motion in respect of any contract or arrangement which he shall make with the Company or in which he is so interested as aforesaid.

14. The Directors may establish and maintain or procure the establishment and maintenance of any non-contributory or contributory pension or superannuation funds for the benefit of, and give or procure the giving of donations, gratuities, pensions, allowances or emoluments to any persons who are or were at any time in the employment or service of the Company or of any company which is a subsidiary of the Company or is allied to or associated with the Company or with any such subsidiary, or who are or were at any time Directors or officers of the Company or of any such other company as aforesaid and holding or who held any salaried employment or office in the Company or such other company, or any persons in whose welfare the Company or any such other company as aforesaid is or has been at any time interested and the wives, widows, families and dependents of any such persons, and may make payments for or towards the insurance of any such persons as aforesaid, and may do any of the matters aforesaid either alone or in conjunction with any such other company as aforesaid. Subject always, if the Act shall so require, to particulars with respect thereto being disclosed to the members and to the proposal being approved by the Company by Ordinary Resolution, a Director holding any such employment or office shall be entitled to participate in and retain for his own benefit any such donation, gratuity, pension, allowance or emolument. A Director may be counted in the quorum present upon a motion in respect of any matter referred to in this Article and may vote as a Director upon any resolution in respect of any such matter notwithstanding that he is personally interested in such matter.
