DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Company Law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements, and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
29 OCTOBER 2000

1. Accounting Policies

Basis Of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards. Under the provisions of Financial Reporting Standard No 1 (Revised 1996), the Company has not presented a cash flow statement because it is a subsidiary undertaking of Focus Group Ltd, which is registered in England and Wales, and which has prepared consolidated financial statements which include the financial statements of the Company for the period and which contain a cash flow statement.

2. Profit And Loss Account

The Company has not traded during the periods ended 29 October 2000 and 31 December 1999 and accordingly no profit and loss account has been prepared. The Company has no employees (1999 - nil) and no directors have received remuneration for services to the Company during the period (1999 - nil).

3. Called Up Share Capital

	Authorised		Allotted, called up and fully paid
	2000	1999	2000	2000	1999	1999
	£	£	No.	£	No.	£
Ordinary shares of £1 each	131,400	131,400	131,400	131,400	131,400	131,400
Total	131,400	131,400	131,400	131,400	131,400	131,400

4. Contingent Liabilities

The company is registered for VAT purposes in a group of companies which share a common registration number. As a result it has jointly guaranteed the VAT liability of the group, and failure by other members of the group would give rise to an additional liability for the company.
