Recruitment and Appointment of New Trustees

From time to time the Society reviews the skills and abilities of the Trustees to ensure that there is adequate breadth of experience. Should this be lacking or if additional Trustees are required due to retirement, prospective Trustees are invited from the Membership to apply.

Induction and Training of Trustees

All Trustees are provided with the Abbeyfield Executive Guide and Memorandum and Articles of Association. Should additional skills be required external training would be sought.

Organisational Structure

Day to day running of the Society's affairs are conducted by the Housekeepers, who report to the Committee. The Trustees meet formally every other month and at additional times as required on an informal basis to deal with issues requiring their input.

Major Risks

The Committee confirm that all major risks identified have been assessed and systems implemented to manage those risks.

Achievements, Performance and Financial Review

The Society benefits from the achievements of the Committee in previous years providing a strong financial base. The Trustees main concerns are to provide a good quality environment for residents to live and employees to work, whilst balancing the financial constraints within budget and to comply with increasing legislation covering all aspects of the Society's operations. The Executive Committee is taking steps to review the management of the investment portfolio.

STATEMENT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEMBERS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the Executive Committee members to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Society as at the end of that year and of the surplus or deficit of the Society for that year. In preparing those accounts the Executive Committee members are required to

- select suitable accounting policies, and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed,
- state whether applicable statements of recommended practice have been followed, and
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Society will continue in business

The Executive Committee are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Society and which enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the relevant legislation. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Society and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES

ABBEYFIELD RYDE SOCIETY LIMITED

I report on the accounts of The Abbeyfield Ryde Society Limited for the year ended 31 March 2013, which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet and the related notes

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The Charity's Trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The Trustees consider that the audit requirement of Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act") does not apply. It is my responsibility to state, on the basis of procedures specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 145(5)(b) of the Act, whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Trustees and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 1996, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice Accounting and Reporting by Charities

have not been met, or

2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
