Directors' Report

The directors present their report and accounts for the year ended 31 March 2014.

Principal activities

The principal activity of the company was the administration of variable service charges as agents of the statutory trust for the residents of Rutland Court, London, SW7.

The company has no income or expenditure in its own right, all transactions in the year being related to the maintenance of common parts in accordance with the lease. Service charges collected are held on trust for the purpose of meeting the relevant costs in relation to the property, in accordance with the provisions of section 42 of the Landlord and tenants act 1987.

Directors

The following persons served as directors during the year:

G Beaumont-Gray

M A Kalo

T Khayat

F Kudsi

H M Sanbar

N Saigol

Under the Articles of Association, only leaseholders of Rutland Court may serve as directors. Also in accordance with the Articles of Association, M A Kalo and N Saigol retire by rotation, and being eligible offer themselves for re-election.

Directors' responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the report and accounts in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the accounts in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the directors must not approve the accounts unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these accounts, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;

- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Small company provisions

This report has been prepared in accordance with the provisions in Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 applicable to companies subject to the small companies regime.

This report was approved by the board on 28 November 2014 and signed on its behalf.
