Since the end of the financial year, no events have occurred which should be brought to the attention of shareholders.

Tax Status

In the opinion of the directors the company is a close company within the meaning of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988.

Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss for that period. In preparing those financial statements the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They have a general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

The directors who held office throughout the year were:

R.D. Oppenheimer	(Resigned 23 December 2008)
D.J. Paul
A.L. Phillips	(Appointed 16 December 2008)
A.S. Goldsmith	(Appointed 16 December 2008)

The directors held no interest in the company's shares during the year. The interests of R.D. Oppenheimer and D.J. Paul in the shares of the ultimate parent company, Stemcor Holdings Limited, are disclosed in the financial statements of that company.

The interests of A.S. Goldsmith and A.L. Phillips are as follows:
