Directors' indemnities

Lloyds Banking Group Plc has granted to the Directors of the Company (including former directors who retired during the year) a deed of indemnity through deed poll which constituted 'qualifying third party indemnity provisions' for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006. The deed was in force during the whole of the financial year and at the date of approval of the financial statements. Directors no longer in office but who served on the Board of the Company at any time in the financial year had the benefit of this contract of indemnity during that period of service. The indemnity remains in force for the duration of a Director's period of office. The deed indemnifies the Directors to the maximum extent permitted by law. The Deed for existing directors is available for inspection at the registered office of Lloyds Banking Group plc. In addition, the Group has in place appropriate Directors and Officers Liability Insurance cover which was in place throughout the financial year.

On behalf of the board.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 31 December 2013

1. Accounting policies

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, in compliance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 and in accordance with applicable International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). There are no accounting policies where the use of assumptions and estimates are determined to be significant to the financial statements.

The Company has net liabilities and is reliant on funding ultimately provided by Lloyds Banking Group Plc. The directors are satisfied that it is the intention of Lloyds Banking Group Plc that its subsidiaries including the Company will continue to receive funding in the future and, accordingly, the financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis.

A Statement of Comprehensive Income, a Statement of Changes in Equity and a Statement of Cash Flows are not presented in these financial statements as these would show £nil amounts for the current and preceding financial year.

2. Amounts due to other group undertakings

Due to parent undertaking: Lloyds Bank Commercial Finance Limited
