REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

The director has pleasure in presenting his report and the financial statements for the year ended 31st March 2003.

Principal activities and business review

The principal activities of the company throughout the year were those of the servicing of motor vehicles and the supply of fuel.

The results for the year and the financial position at the year end were considered satisfactory by the director.

Results and dividend

The results of the company for the year are set out on page 4. A dividend of £15,000 was paid in the year under review.

It is recommended that the whole of the retained profit be set aside to reserves.

Fixed assets

The movement of fixed assets are shown in the notes to the financial statements.

In the opinion of the director, the freehold property has a market value of £75,000 which is not in excess of the amount shown in the financial statements.

Director and his interests

The director who served the company throughout the year together with his interests (including family interests) in the shares of the company, at the beginning and end of the year were as follows:

| Ordinary | shares | of £1 | each |
|-----------------|---------------|------------|-------------|
| 2003 | | 200 | )2 |

Directors responsibilities

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial period which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the director is required to;

- * select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- * make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- * state whether applicable standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.
- * prepare financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will remain in business.

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. He is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Accountants

Berry & Partners have indicated their willingness to continue in office and it is proposed that they be re-appointed accountants to the company for the ensuing year.

Small company rules

These accounts have been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities.

ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT

Accountants' Report to the Members on the Unaudited Accounts of New Street Motors (Oadby) Limited We report on the accounts for the year ended 31st March, 2003 set out on pages 4 to 12 which have been prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities.

Respective responsibilities of directors and reporting accountants

As described on page 1, the company's director is responsible for the preparation of the accounts, and they consider that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out procedures designed to enable us to report our opinion.

Basis of opinion

Our work was conducted in accordance with the Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants, and so our procedures consisted of comparing the accounts with the accounting records kept by the company, and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the company as we considered necessary for the purposes of this report. These procedures provide only the assurance expressed in our opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion:

- (a) the accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the company under section 221 of the Companies Act 1985;
- (i) the accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the provisions specified in section 249C(6) of the Act; and
 (ii) the company satisfied the requirements for exemption from an audit of the accounts for the year specified in section 249A(4) of the Act and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in section

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31ST MARCH 2003

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Accounting basis and standards

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, and in accordance with applicable accounting standards.

(b) Depreciation

Depreciation of fixed assets is provided at rates estimated to write off the costs or revalued amounts, less estimated residual value, of each asset over it's expected useful life as follows:

Freehold buildings:

2% straight line

Equipment:

15% reducing balance

(c) Stocks

Stocks are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost includes all direct costs incurred in bringing the stocks to their present location and condition, including where appropriate, a proportion of overheads.

(d) Turnover

Turnover represents the invoiced value of goods sold net of value added tax.

(e) Deferred taxation

Deferred taxation is accounted for under the liability method in respect of the taxation effects of all timing differences which are expected to reverse in the future, calculated at the rate at which it is estimated that tax will be payable.

(f) Pension scheme arrangements

The Company makes contributions to a defined contribution scheme, the assets of the scheme being held separately from the assets of the company. The pension cost charge represents contributions payable to the scheme.

The pension charge for the period has been taken as the contribution to the scheme which amounted to £1,000 (2002 £1,000).

2. TURNOVER

Turnover is attributable to the one principal activity of the company which arose wholly in the United Kingdom.
