STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the directors to prepare the financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements,
- prepare financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for taking reasonable steps to safeguard the assets of the company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

PROFIT AND LOSS ACCOUNT

During the financial year and the preceding financial year the company did not trade and received no income and incurred no expenditure. Consequently during those financial years the company made neither a profit nor a loss. In both the current financial year and preceding financial year the company had no other recognised gains or losses.

For the year ended 31 December 2006, the company was entitled to exemption under section 249 AA (1) of the Companies Act 1985

Members have not required the company to obtain an audit in accordance with section 249 (B) (2) of the Companies Act 1985

The directors acknowledge their responsibility for

- (i) ensuring that the company keeps accounting records that comply with section 221 and,
- (ii) preparing accounts that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs as at the end of the financial year, and of its profit or loss for the financial year, in accordance with the requirements of section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company
