STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Constitution

London Handel Society is a charitable company limited by guarantee and is governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association. The title, The London Handel Society Limited was registered at the Companies Registration Office, Cardiff on 6 March 1991. The members of the company are the Trustees named within the reference and administrative details of the charity. In the event of the charity being wound up, the liability in respect of the guarantee is limited to £1 per member.

Method of appointment or election of Trustees

The management of the chanty is the responsibility of the Trustees who are elected and co-opted under the terms of the Articles of Association. Trustees are appointed by personal invitation or recommendation by other members of the Board. The chanty complies with the Good Governance Code.

Policies adopted for the induction and training of Trustees

In general, Trustees invited to join the Board are already in possession of close knowledge of the voluntary sector, and training is not thought to be necessary where competence already exists

Organisational structure and decision making

The Trustees are responsible for approving the budget in advance of decisions being taken. Musical content is a matter for the Musical Director who also attends the board meetings but does not have a vote

Risk management

Risk incurred are those related to putting on concerts and there is a shortfall in income leading to a loss. The Trustees are ever mindful of not incurring debts which cannot be cleared within a reasonable timescale.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Policies and objectives

The objectives of the charity are the promotion and advancement of aesthetic and musical education, in particular the promotion of the works of G.F. Handel. Through its activities, the charity seeks to make the works of G.F. Handel more widely known together with work in schools. The main objective during the charity's year is to produce a festival and to raise sufficient funds in order to achieve this by hosting an annual fund raising event. In line with the guidance from the Charity Commission, the singing competition held within the festival adds greatly to the future success of up and coming singers.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Review of activities

The charitable company has maintained its strong commitment of presenting to the public the lesser- known works of G F Handel and to this end has enjoyed a successful Festival in 2012

The main achievements during the year were as follows

- the completion of a successful Festival celebrating and promoting the works of G. F. Handel and his musical legacy.
- the enhancement of the Society's reputation through the annual Singing Competition.
- · Increased favourable media coverage of the Festival,
- a wide range of performances for the public to attend including lunchtime concerts, an active Fringe, educational activities with schools, working with other orchestras and musical groups, and collaborations with musical institutions,
- attendances at many performances of between 80-100% of capacity

The Board recognises the contribution made by the Friends of the London Handel Festival towards the success of this year's Festival and their input into the Society's activities

The fundraising achieved was broadly in line with the anticipated needs of the charitable company, with approximately 45% of income arising from ticket sales, and the remainder being raised from donors and through other fund raising activities. The Board believes this proportion to be not unreasonable in comparison with similar organisations.

The Trustees have complied with the duty in section 4 of the Charities Act 2006 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission

Going Concern

After making appropriate enquiries, the Trustees have a reasonable expectation that the charitable company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. For this reason it continues to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the financial statements. Further details regarding the adoption of the going concern basis can be found in the Accounting Policies.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Reserves policy

The directors are of the view that, in terms of income reserves desirable to meet any outstanding liabilities, approximately 10% of turnover would be a suitable target. However due to the financial constraints on the funds of the chanty, reserves fluctuate from year to year. The directors are continually engaged in seeking out sponsorship and other methods of fund raising.

OBJECTIVES FOR FUTURE PERIODS

The main objective for future periods continues to be to maintain the musical and artistic integrity of the Festival in support of the objectives of the charity, while recognising the need to exercise strict financial economy. This is to be achieved by engagement with friends and supporters and by arranging future fund raising events.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF LONDON HANDEL SOCIETY LIMITED

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 December 2012 set out on pages five to ten

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is required.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act), and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 386 and 387 of the Companies Act 2006, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of Sections 394 and 395 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice Accounting and Reporting by Charities

have not been met, or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

1 ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting convention

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008), the Companies Act 2006 and the requirements of the Statement of Recommended Practice, Accounting and Reporting by Charities

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which is dependent upon the continuing availability of adequate finance from sources available to the trustees and directors

Incoming resources

All incoming resources are included on the Statement of Financial Activities when the company is legally entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy

Resources expended

Liabilities are recognised as resources expended where there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to the expenditure. All expenditure is calculated on an accruals basis and includes value added tax, which is irrecoverable.

Costs are allocated between charitable activities and other expenditure according to the nature of the cost

Fund accounting

General funds are unrestricted funds, which are available for use at the discretion of the Trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the company and which have not been designated for other purposes
