Liability of Members

- 4 The liability of the members is limited to a sum not exceeding £1, being the amount that each member undertakes to contribute to the assets of the charity in the event of its being wound up while he, she or it is a member or within one year after he, she or it ceases to be a member, for
- (1) payment of the charity's debts and liabilities incurred before he, she or it ceases to be a member,
 - (2) payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and
 - (3) adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves

Objects

- 5 The charity's objects (the 'objects') are the promotion and advancement of aesthetic and musical education in particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing the works of George Frederick Handel

Powers

- 6 The charity has power to do anything which is calculated to further the object(s) or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the charity has power
- (1) to raise funds. In doing so, the charity must not undertake any taxable permanent trading activity and must comply with any relevant statutory regulations,
 - (2) to buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use,
 - (3) to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the charity. In exercising this power, the charity must comply as appropriate with sections 117 and 122 of the Charities Act 2011,
 - (4) to borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of the property belonging to the charity as security for repayment of the money borrowed or as security for a grant or the discharge of an obligation. The charity must comply as appropriate with sections 124 - 126 of the Charities Act 2011 if it wishes to mortgage land,

- (5) to co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies and statutory authorities and to exchange information and advice with them,
- (6) to establish or support any charitable trusts, associations or institutions formed for any of the charitable purposes included in the objects,
- (7) to acquire, merge with or to enter into any partnership or joint venture arrangement with any other charity,
- (8) to set aside income as a reserve against future expenditure but only in accordance with a written policy about reserves,
- (9) to employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the charity. The charity may employ or remunerate a director only to the extent it is permitted to do so by article 8 and provided it complies with the conditions in that article,
- (10) to
 - (a) deposit or invest funds,
 - (b) employ a professional fund manager, and
 - (c) arrange for the investments or other property of the charity to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000,

- (11) to provide indemnity insurance for the directors in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011, and
- (12) to establish and support pension, superannuation and other schemes for the benefit of persons employed by the charity and to grant pensions or retiring allowances to persons who have been employed by the charity or to their dependents

Application of income and property

- 7 (1) The income and property of the charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects
- (2) (a) A director is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the charity
- (a) A director may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the charity's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011

- (b) A director may receive an indemnity from the charity in the circumstances specified in article 52
- (c) A director may not receive any other benefit or payment unless it is authorised by article 8
- (3) Subject to article 8, none of the income or property of the charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the charity

Benefits and payments to charity directors and connected persons

8 (1) General provisions

No director or connected person may

- (a) buy any goods or services from the charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public,
- (b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the charity,
- (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the charity, or
- (d) receive any other financial benefit from the charity, unless the payment is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this article, or authorised by the court or Charity Commission

In this article a 'financial benefit' means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value

Scope and powers permitting directors' or connected persons' benefits

- (2) (a) A director or connected person may receive a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity provided that a majority of the directors do not benefit in this way
- (b) A director or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, sections 185 and 186 of the Charities Act 2011
- (c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this article a director or connected person may provide the charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the charity by the director or connected person

- (d) A director or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the charity at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate)
- (e) A director or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the director or connected person to the charity. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The director concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion
- (f) A director or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the charity on the same terms as members of the public

Payment for supply of goods only – controls

- (3) The charity and its directors may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (2)(c) of this article if each of the following conditions is satisfied
 - (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the charity or its directors (as the case may be) and the director or connected person supplying the goods ('the supplier') under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the charity
 - (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question
 - (c) The other directors are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a director or connected person. In reaching that decision the directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so
 - (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the charity
 - (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting
 - (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the directors in the minute book
 - (g) A majority of the directors then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by article 8

- (4) In sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this article
- (a) 'charity' includes any company in which the charity
 - (i) holds more than 50% of the shares, or
 - (ii) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares, or
 - (iii) has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company
 - (b) 'connected person' includes any person within the definition in article 3 'Interpretation'

Declaration of directors' interests

- 9 A director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the charity or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the charity which has not previously been declared. A director must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity directors in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest)

Conflicts of interests and conflicts of loyalties

- 10 (1) If a conflict of interests arises for a director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the articles, the unconflicted directors may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply
- (a) the conflicted director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person,
 - (b) the conflicted director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting, and
 - (c) the unconflicted directors consider it is in the interests of the charity to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying
- (2) In this article a conflict of interests arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a director or to a connected person

Members

- 11 (1) In order to be a member of the charity a person must be a director of the charity
- (2) On appointment as a director of the charity the relevant director must become a member of the charity and the directors of the charity must update the register of members accordingly
- (3) On expiry or termination of a person's office as a director of the charity that person automatically ceases to be a member of the charity and the directors of the charity must update the register of members accordingly
- (4) The directors must keep a register of names and addresses of the members

General meetings

- 12 The directors may, but are not obliged to, hold an annual general meeting in each calendar year
- 13 The directors may call a general meeting at any time

Notice of general meetings

- 14 (1) The minimum periods of notice required to hold a general meeting of the charity are
- (a) twenty-one clear days for an annual general meeting or a general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution, and
- (b) fourteen clear days for all other general meetings
- (2) A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority who together hold not less than 90 percent of the total voting rights
- (3) The notice must specify the date time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of members to appoint a proxy under section 324 of the Companies Act 2006 and article 21
- (4) The notice must be given to all the members and to the directors and auditors
- 15 The proceedings at a meeting shall not be invalidated because a person who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of an accidental omission by the charity

Proceedings at general meetings

- 16 (1) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present
- (2) A quorum is
- (a) three members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote upon the business to be conducted at the meeting, or
- (b) one tenth of the total membership at the time
- whichever is the greater
- (3) The authorised representative of a member organisation shall be counted in the quorum
- 17 (1) If
- (a) a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or
- (b) during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present,
- the meeting shall be adjourned to such time and place as the directors shall determine
- (2) The directors must reconvene the meeting and must give at least seven clear days' notice of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting
- (3) If no quorum is present at the reconvened meeting within fifteen minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting the members present in person or by proxy at that time shall constitute the quorum for that meeting
- 18 (1) General meetings shall be chaired by the person who has been appointed to chair meetings of the directors. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote
- (2) If there is no such person or he or she is not present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the meeting a director nominated by the directors shall chair the meeting
- (3) If there is only one director present and willing to act, he or she shall chair the meeting

- (4) If no director is present and willing to chair the meeting within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding it, the members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote must choose one of their number to chair the meeting
- 19
- (1) The members present in person or by proxy at a meeting may resolve by ordinary resolution that the meeting shall be adjourned
 - (2) The person who is chairing the meeting must decide the date, time and place at which the meeting is to be reconvened unless those details are specified in the resolution
 - (3) No business shall be conducted at a reconvened meeting unless it could properly have been conducted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place
 - (4) If a meeting is adjourned by a resolution of the members for more than seven days, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting
- 20
- (1) Any vote at a meeting shall be decided by a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded
 - (a) by the person chairing the meeting,
 - (b) by at least three members present in person or by proxy and having the right to vote at the meeting, or
 - (c) by a member or members present in person or by proxy representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting
 - (2)
 - (a) The declaration by the person who is chairing the meeting of the result of a vote shall be conclusive unless a poll is demanded
 - (b) The result of the vote must be recorded in the minutes of the charity but the number or proportion of votes cast need not be recorded
 - (3)
 - (a) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the person who is chairing the meeting
 - (b) If the demand for a poll is withdrawn the demand shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made
 - (4)
 - (a) A poll must be taken as the person who is chairing the meeting directs, who may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and who may fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll
 - (b) The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded

- (5) (a) A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair a meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately
- (b) A poll demanded on any other question must be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the person who is chairing the meeting directs
- (c) The poll must be taken within thirty days after it has been demanded
- (d) If the poll is not taken immediately at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken
- (e) If a poll is demanded the meeting may continue to deal with any other business that may be conducted at the meeting

Content of proxy notices

- 21 (1) Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a 'proxy notice') which -
 - (a) states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy,
 - (b) identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed,
 - (c) is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine, and
 - (d) is delivered to the charity in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate
- (2) The charity may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes
- (3) Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions
- (4) Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as -
 - (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
 - (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself

Delivery of proxy notices

- 21A (1) A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the charity by or on behalf of that person
- (2) An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the charity a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given
- (3) A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates
- (4) If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf

Written resolutions

- 22 (1) A resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution by a majority of not less than 75%) of the members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective provided that
- (a) a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to every eligible member,
- (b) a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution a majority of not less than 75%) of members has signified its agreement to the resolution, and
- (c) it is contained in an authenticated document which has been received at the registered office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date
- (2) A resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more members have signified their agreement
- (3) In the case of a member that is an organisation, its authorised representative may signify its agreement

Votes of members

- 23 Every member shall have one vote
- 24 Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is tendered and the decision of the person who is chairing the meeting shall be final
- 25 (1) Any organisation that is a member of the charity may nominate any person to act as its representative at any meeting of the charity
- (2) The organisation must give written notice to the charity of the name of its representative. The representative shall not be entitled to represent the organisation at any meeting unless the notice has been received by the charity. The representative may continue to represent the organisation until written notice to the contrary is received by the charity
- (3) Any notice given to the charity will be conclusive evidence that the representative is entitled to represent the organisation or that his or her authority has been revoked. The charity shall not be required to consider whether the representative has been properly appointed by the organisation

Directors

- 26 (1) A director must be a natural person aged 16 years or older
- (2) No one may be appointed a director if he or she would be disqualified from acting under the provisions of article 34
- 27 The minimum number of directors shall be three but (unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution) shall not be subject to any maximum
- 28 A director may not appoint an alternate director or anyone to act on his or her behalf at meetings of the directors

Powers of directors

- 29 (1) The directors shall manage the business of the charity and may exercise all the powers of the charity unless they are subject to any restrictions imposed by the Companies Acts, the articles or any special resolution
- (2) No alteration of the articles or any special resolution shall have retrospective effect to invalidate any prior act of the directors
- (3) Any meeting of directors at which a quorum is present at the time the relevant decision is made may exercise all the powers exercisable by the directors

Retirement of directors

- 30 (1) One third of the directors (or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number nearest to one third) must retire from office at the first meeting of the directors following 1 April of each year and the meeting must be held within three months of 1 April
- (2) The directors to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment. If any directors became or were appointed directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot

Appointment of directors

- 31 The directors may pass a board resolution to
- (1) appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director, and
- (2) determine the rotation in which any additional directors are to retire
- 32 (1) A director shall be appointed for a maximum term of three years but may be re-appointed for up to two further three year terms
- (2) A director may serve for more than three terms of three years if the directors pass a board resolution authorising the director in question to serve a further term or terms
- 33 The appointment of a director must not cause the number of directors to exceed any number fixed as the maximum number of directors

Disqualification and removal of directors

- 34 A director shall cease to hold office if he or she
- (1) ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision in the Companies Acts or is prohibited by law from being a director,
- (2) is disqualified from acting as a trustee by virtue of sections 178 and 179 of the Charities Act 2011 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of those provisions),
- (3) ceases to be a member of the charity,
- (4) in the written opinion, given to the company, of a registered medical practitioner treating that person, has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months,

- (5) resigns as a director by providing one month's written notice to the charity (but only if at least two directors will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect),
- (6) fails to adhere to the rules and regulations of the charity (as amended from time-to-time), and in particular the rules set out in his or her letter of appointment, and the directors, having provided the relevant director with the opportunity to make written and oral representations to the directors, resolve that he or she should vacate his office, or
- (7) is, in the opinion of the directors, otherwise unable or unfit to discharge the functions of this appointment and is requested in writing by the directors to resign

Remuneration of directors

35 The directors must not be paid any remuneration unless it is authorised by article 8

Proceedings of directors

- 36
- (1) The directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit, subject to the provisions of the articles
 - (2) Any director may call a meeting of the directors
 - (3) The secretary (if any) must call a meeting of the directors if requested to do so by a director
 - (4) Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes
 - (5) In the case of an equality of votes, the person who is chairing the meeting shall have a second or casting vote
 - (6) A meeting may be held by suitable electronic means agreed by the directors in which each participant may communicate with all the other participants
- 37
- (1) No decision may be made by a meeting of the directors unless a quorum is present at the time the decision is purported to be made 'Present' includes being present by suitable electronic means agreed by the directors in which a participant or participants may communicate with all the other participants
 - (2) The quorum shall be five or the number nearest to one-third of the total number of directors, whichever is the greater, or such larger number as may be decided from time to time by the directors
 - (3) A director shall not be counted in the quorum present when any decision is made about a matter upon which that director is not entitled to vote

- 38 If the number of directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing directors or director may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting
- 39 (1) The directors shall appoint a director to chair their meetings and may at any time revoke such appointment
- (2) If no-one has been appointed to chair meetings of the directors or if the person appointed is unwilling to preside or is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the directors present may appoint one of their number to chair that meeting
- (3) The person appointed to chair meetings of the directors shall have no functions or powers except those conferred by the articles or delegated to him or her by the directors
- 40 (1) A resolution in writing or in electronic form agreed by all of the directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the directors and to vote upon the resolution shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the directors duly convened and held
- (2) The resolution in writing may comprise several documents containing the text of the resolution in like form to each of which one or more directors has signified their agreement

Delegation

- 41 (1) The directors may delegate any of their powers or functions to a committee of two or more directors but the terms of any delegation must be recorded in the minute book
- (2) The directors may impose conditions when delegating, including the conditions that
- (a) the relevant powers are to be exercised exclusively by the committee to whom they delegate, and
- (b) no expenditure may be incurred on behalf of the charity except in accordance with a budget previously agreed with the directors
- (3) The directors may revoke or alter a delegation
- (4) All acts and proceedings of any committees must be fully and promptly reported to the directors
- (5) The directors may appoint a Festival Director on the following terms
- (a) Any such appointment, agreement or arrangement shall be made upon such terms as the directors may determine

- (b) The Festival Director shall act in accordance with the articles, byelaws of the charity and upon the terms prescribed by the directors
- (c) The Festival Director shall
 - (i) Serve as the principal executive officer of the charity,
 - (ii) Carry out and supervise the day to day activities of the charity,
 - (iii) Keep the records of the charity,
 - (iv) Maintain proper financial records,
 - (v) Devise and observe a system of budgetary control, and
 - (vi) Have delegated authority to apply the funds of the charity in accordance with budgets which have been settled by the directors
- (d) If the office of the Festival Director becomes vacant the chairman shall nominate a suitable person to carry out the duties of the Festival Director until a meeting of the directors can be convened and a new appointment can be made
- (6) The directors may from time to time appoint any person who in the opinion of the directors has rendered exceptional services to the charity to be President or such other officer of the charity on such terms as the directors may determine, and entrust to and confer upon such President or other officer such title, power and duties as they think fit, and may from time to time revoke such appointment and alter or vary any such titles powers and duties. Such President or other officer may attend meetings or committees of the charity on such basis as the directors may lay down but shall not by reason only of holding that office be a director of the charity or be entitled to vote at its meetings or committees
