Any share may be transferred by a member to any child or other issue, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, his or her father or mother or to any lineal descendant of his or her father and mother or to his or her wife or husband and any share of a deceased member may be transferred by his executors or administrators to any child or other issue, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, the father or mother or lineal descendants of the father and mother or the widow or widower of such deceased member, and shares standing in the name of the trustees of the will of any deceased member may be transferred upon any change of trustees to the trustees for the time being of the will; and in any such circumstances (but subject as aforesaid) regulation 3 of Table A, Part II, shall not apply save to ensure that the number of members shall not exceed the prescribed limit or to prevent a transfer of shares on which the Company has a lien.

The proposing transferor shall in such case be bound to deliver up his certificate for the said shares, and on such delivery shall be entitled to receive the said purchase price, without interest, and if such certificate shall comprise any shares which he has not become bound to transfer as aforesaid the Company shall issue to him a balance certificate for such shares.

21. 23. If any member shall be adjudged bankrupt, his trustee in bankruptcy shall be bound forthwith to give to the Company a transfer notice in respect of all the shares registered in the name of the bankrupt member, and in default of such transfer notice being given within one month of bankruptcy, the trustee in bankruptcy shall be deemed to have given such notice at the expiration of the said period of one month and the provisions of this Article shall apply accordingly.
