 - (b) The plaques or other markings shall be in such form and with such wording as the Bank may reasonably require indicating the Bank's interest in such fixed charged property.
 - (c) The Company shall not allow any such plaques or markings to be concealed altered or removed.

 - (b) It may pay the monies mentioned in (a) above to the credit of any other account nominated by it (including an account opened by it for this purpose) as security for any contingent or future liability of the Company to the Bank.

When the Debenture becomes enforceable

- 11. This Debenture shall become enforceable:-
 - (a) if the Debt is not paid or discharged when due (whether on demand, at agreed maturity or earlier as the case may be); or

- (c) if the Company shall enter into any composition or arrangement for the benefit of its creditors; or
- (d) if any step is taken for the administration or winding up of the Company (which includes, without limitation, in each case, the board of directors or the Company in general meeting, passing a resolution for the same) except where, in the case of winding up, the Bank has consented in writing for the purpose of reconstruction or amalgamation; or
- (e) if a third party shall take possession of, or a receiver shall be appointed over, or any secured creditor of the Company shall seek to enforce his security in respect of, all or any of the charged property or any other event shall happen which puts in jeopardy all or any part of the security created by this Debenture; or

- (g) if any other event shall occur which has been agreed by the Company and the Bank as an event upon the occurrence of which this or any other security for the Debt shall be enforceable.

If any of the above should occur-

These powers are available to the Bank whether or not the Bank shall then be in possession of all or any part of the charged property. The Bank may grant a lease at a premium and for any length of term and, generally, without the necessity for the Bank to comply with any restrictions imposed by, or other provisions of, the sections and legislation mentioned above (and so that for the purposes of Sections 99 and 100 of the Law of Property Act 1925, the expression "mortgagor" shall include any person deriving title under the Company and sub-sections 99 (18) and 100 (12) shall not apply).

Appointment of Administrator or Receiver

- 12. (a) The floating charge created by this Debenture is intended to be a qualifying floating charge as defined by paragraph 14 of schedule B1 to the Insolvency Act 1986 (inserted by section 248 of and schedule 16 to the Enterprise Act 2002).
 - (b) At any time after having been requested to do so by the Company, or after this Debenture has become enforceable and one of the events mentioned in Clause 11 is continuing), the Bank may appoint by deed or by writing under the hand of a duly authorised officer of the Bank, or otherwise, any one or more persons to be administrator ("Administrator") or receiver ("Receiver"). These expressions shall, where necessary, include any person substituted as Administrator or Receiver of all or any part of the charged property. The Bank may similarly appoint a Receiver at any time after having been requested to do so by the company.
 - (c) The Bank may (so far as it is lawfully able to do so) from time to time by deed or by writing under the hand of a duly authorised officer of the Bank, or otherwise, remove any person appointed to be Administrator or Receiver and may in a similar way appoint another in his place.
 - (d) If at any time two or more persons shall hold office as Administrator or Receiver of the same property, each one of them shall be separately entitled (subject to any contrary direction in the appointment) to exercise all the powers, authorities and discretions conferred on them.
 - (e) The power to appoint a Receiver shall be in addition to all statutory and other powers of the Bank under the Insolvency Act 1986 and the Law of Property Act 1925.

- (f) The power to appoint an Administrator or Receiver shall be and remain exercisable by the Bank even though there may be a prior appointment in respect of all or any part of the charged property.
- 13. (a) The Bank shall not, nor shall the Administrator or Receiver, be liable to account as mortgagee in possession in respect of all or any of the charged property nor be liable for any loss upon realisation or for any neglect or default (unless wilful) of any nature whatsoever in connection with all or any of the charged property for which a mortgagee in possession might as such be liable.
 - (b) All reasonable costs, charges and expenses properly incurred by the Bank or the Administrator or Receiver (including its internal management and administration costs and the costs of any proceedings in relation to this Debenture or the Debt) shall be paid by the Company.
- 14. The Administrator or Receiver shall be the agent of the Company and the Company shall be responsible for his acts and remuneration as well as for any defaults committed by him.

Powers of Administrator or Receiver

- 15. The Administrator shall have the statutory powers in schedule 1 of the Insolvency Act 1986. The Receiver shall (subject to any limitations or restrictions expressed in the document appointing him but notwithstanding any restriction or limitation binding on the Company under this Debenture or any winding-up or dissolution of the Company or any analogous proceedings in any jurisdiction) have all the powers (as varied and extended by this Debenture) conferred on receivers by the Insolvency Act 1986 and the Law of Property Act 1925 and (without affecting the above in any way) the following powers:-
 - (a) (i) To sell, transfer, assign, convey or grant, accept surrender or vary, terminate or surrender leases of or in exchange and enter into and or terminate leases of any of the charged property; and
 - (ii) in any other way to dispose of, or deal with, all or any of the charged property in respect of which the Receiver is appointed (or agree any of the same) and in either case in such a way and generally on such terms and conditions as he reasonably thinks fit.

Any transaction mentioned above may be for such payment or other consideration as the Administrator or Receiver shall think fit. This is so whether for a lump sum or a consideration payable in instalments and whether for cash or otherwise. In the case of the latter, it shall form part of the charged property and be charged with the payment and discharge of the Debt.

Fixtures and plant and machinery may be taken and sold separately from the premises to which they are fixed (or in which they are contained) without the consent of the Company being obtained or necessary.

- (b) To take possession of, collect and get in, all or any of the charged property in respect of which the Receiver is appointed and for that purpose to make such demands and take any proceedings as the Receiver shall reasonably think fit.

 - (i) The Receiver may raise money as mentioned above on such terms (including, if the Bank shall consent, terms under which such security ranks in priority to all or any of the security created by this Debenture) as the Receiver may reasonably think fit; and
 - (ii) the repayment of all such monies and the payment of interest on them and related costs charges and expenses, shall be treated for all purposes as expenses properly payable by the Receiver.

Power of Attorney

- 17. (a) The Company irrevocably, and by way of security, appoints the Bank, any Receiver, and any Administrator appointed by the Bank and each of their respective delegates, jointly and also individually to be the attorney and attorneys of the Company. Any attorney is authorised by the Company to do all things which the Company may be required to do under this Debenture. This includes (without limitation) that which the Bank, the Receiver or the Administrator (or any such delegate) may
 - (i) consider necessary or appropriate for, or in connection with, the improvement, perfection or protection of the security intended to be created by this Debenture; or
 - (ii) the exercise of any of the powers authorities and discretions conferred under it.
 - (b) The Company ratifies and confirms (and agrees to do so) whatever any such attorney shall do, or attempt to do, in the exercise of all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions mentioned above or under this power of attorney. This power of attorney is to secure the performance of obligations owed to the donces within the meaning of the Powers of Attorney Act 1971.

Bank has Powers of Administrator or Receiver and other powers

- 18. (i) Without affecting any other powers, authorities and discretions of the Bank, all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions conferred upon the Administrator or Receiver (whether arising under this Debenture or otherwise) may also be exercised by the Bank at any time after this Debenture has become enforceable and one or more of the events mentioned in Clause 11 is continuing. This is so whether or not an Administrator or Receiver has been appointed.
 - (ii) The Bank shall also be entitled to delegate by power of attorney, or in any other manner, to any person or persons all or any of its powers authorities and discretions.
 - (iii) No such delegation mentioned above shall prevent the subsequent exercise of the powers, authorities and discretions by the Bank itself or prevent the Bank from making any subsequent delegation of them to some other person.
 - (iv) The Bank may revoke any such delegation at any time.
- 19. At any time after this Debenture shall have become enforceable and one or more of the events mentioned in Clause 11 is continuing, or after any powers conferred by any interest having priority to the security created by this Debenture shall have become exercisable, the Bank may redeem such or any other prior interest or arrange the transfer of it to itself. It may settle and pass the accounts of any third party concerned and any account so settled and passed shall be conclusive and binding on the Company. All monies paid by the Bank to the third party in accordance with such accounts shall as from such payment be due from the Company to the Bank on current account and shall bear interest and be secured as part of the Debt.
- 20. The rights and remedies of the Bank under this Debenture are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any rights or remedies provided by law.
- 21. The restriction on the right of consolidating mortgages contained in Section 93 of the Law of Property Act 1925 shall not apply to this Debenture.
- 22. (i) If the Company at any time fails to perform and observe the terms, and obligations contained in this Debenture, the Bank may (but without being under any duty to do so) take such steps as in its reasonable opinion may be required to remedy such failure; and
 - (ii) this includes, without limitation, making any payment, and for the purpose mentioned in (i) above, the Bank and its agents may enter upon any land forming part of the land charged by this Debenture as fixed charged property of the Company without being regarded as having entered into possession of it.

Indemnity

23. The Company agrees to fully indemnify each of the Bank, the Administrator and the Receiver from and against all and any liability they might incur in the exercise (or apparent exercise) of any powers, authorities and discretions under or in connection with this Debenture (with the exception of fraud or wilful default on the part of the Bank, the Administrator or the Receiver, but only to the extent committed by any of them) or any failure by the Company to comply with any of its obligations under this Debenture.

Protection of Purchasers

- 24. No purchaser or other person dealing with the Bank, the Administrator or the Receiver (or any of their respective delegates)
 - (i) shall be bound or entitled to see or enquire whether any power, authority or discretion under this Debenture has arisen or become exercisable;
 - (ii) be concerned with any notice to the contrary or to see whether any delegation shall have lapsed for any reason or been revoked; or
 - (iii) be bound or entitled to concern himself with the proceeds of any sale or other dealing or be answerable in any circumstances for the application of the said proceeds.

Payment of costs, charges and expenses

- 25. The Company shall reimburse to the Bank on demand on a full indemnity basis, all costs, charges and expenses (including, without limitation, all amounts reasonably determined by the Bank to be necessary to compensate it for internal management or administration costs, charges and expenses) properly incurred by the Bank:-
 - (i) in ensuring this Debenture is effective;
 - (ii) in connection with the improvement, perfection or protection of the security created by this Debenture;
 - (iii) in the exercise of any rights, remedies, powers, authorities and discretions conferred under, or in connection with, this Debenture (together with any value added tax or similar tax charged or chargeable in respect of it).

All such amounts shall be debited to an account in the name of the Company. Until they are reimbursed they shall bear interest at the rate of three per cent per annum over the Bank's Base Rate from time to time calculated and compounded monthly and/or according to the Bank's then current practice and shall be payable on demand. They will be secured as part of the Debt by this Debenture.

Independence of Security

- 26. (a) This Debenture shall be in addition to, and independent of, every other security which the Bank may at any time hold for any of the Debt secured by this Debenture.
 - (b) No prior security held by the Bank over all or any of the charged property shall merge in the security created by this Debenture.
 - (c) This Debenture shall remain in full force and effect as a continuing security unless and until the Bank discharges it.

Bank's powers to deal with Accounts and Money Received

- 27. (a) If the Bank receives notice of any subsequent charge or other interest affecting all or any of the charged property, the Bank may open a new account or accounts for the Company in its books.
 - (b) If the Bank does not do so, it shall be regarded as having done so unless the Bank gives express written notice to the contrary to the Company. Notwithstanding any appropriation by the Company to the contrary, as from the time of receipt of such notice, all payments made by the Company to the Bank (other than those dealt with under Clause 8(n)) shall be treated as having been credited to a new account of the Company. Such payments will not be applied in reduction of the amount due, owing or incurred from the Company to the Bank at the time when it received the notice.

- 28. (a) All monies received, recovered or realised by the Bank under this Debenture (including the proceeds of any conversion under Clause 30 below) may, in the reasonable discretion of the Bank, be credited to any suspense or impersonal account.
 - (b) They may be held in such account for so long as the Bank may think fit pending the application from time to time of such monies and all accrued interest (at the rate, if any, agreed in writing between the Company and the Bank from time to time) in or towards the discharge of the Debt.
- The Company waives any right of set-off it may have now, or at any time in the future, in respect of the Debt (including sums payable by the Company under this Debenture).

Currency Conversion

- 30. (a) For the purpose or pending the discharge of the Debt, the Bank may convert any monies received, recovered or realised by the Bank under this Debenture (including the proceeds of any previous conversion under this Clause) from their existing currency of denomination into such other currency of denomination as the Bank may reasonably think fit.
 - (b) Any such conversion shall be made at the Bank's then prevailing spot selling rate of exchange for such other currency against the existing currency.
 - (c) Each previous reference in this Clause to a currency extends to funds of that currency and, for the avoidance of doubt, funds of one currency may be converted into different funds of the same currency.

Dealings with others

31. The Bank may, in its discretion, grant time, or make any other arrangement, variation or release with any person or persons not party to this Debenture (whether or not such person or persons are jointly liable with the Company) in respect of any of the Debt or of any other security for it. If it does, it will not in any way affect either this Debenture or the liability of the Company for the Debt.

Bank's Right of Set Off

32. In addition to all rights of set-off conferred by law, the Bank may set-off any money standing from time to time to the credit of any account the Company has with the Bank against the Debt.

Preservation and Retention of Security

- Any settlement, discharge or release between (i) the Company and (ii) the Bank, the Administrator or the Receiver (the "Relevant Person(s)") shall be conditional upon no security given, or payment made, to the Relevant Person(s) by the Company (or any other person) being avoided or reduced as a result of any provisions or enactments relating to insolvency for the time being in force in any jurisdiction.
 - (b) In the event of such security or payment being avoided or reduced, the Relevant Person(s) shall be entitled to recover the value or amount of such security or payment from the Company subsequently as if such settlement, discharge or release had not occurred.
- 34. If the Bank believes that any payment or discharge of the Debt is likely to be avoided, reduced or ordered to be refunded, then:
 - (a) notwithstanding any other provision of this Debenture (other than Clause 43), or any release, settlement, discharge or arrangement given or made by the Bank, the Bank may retain the security created by this Debenture (and all documents evidencing title to the charged property or any part of it deposited with it) following the payment and discharge in full of the Debt for a period of two years and one month after such discharge;
 - (b) if at any time during that period, any step is taken for the Administration or winding-up (whether voluntary or compulsory) of the Company or any analogous proceedings shall be commenced, the Bank may continue to retain this security and the documents mentioned above for such further period as the Bank may reasonably determine.

(c) the security created by this Debenture and documents relating to it shall be deemed to have continued to have been held as security for the Debt.

Notices Governing Law and Jurisdiction

- Without affecting any other lawful method of service, any demand or notice to be made or given by the Bank to the Company (including without limitation, a demand for payment of all or any of the Debt) may be made or given by any manager or officer of the Bank or of any branch of it:-
 - (a) By letter addressed to the Company and delivered to any officer of the Company at any place or sent by first-class post to, or left at the registered office of, the Company or any place of business or activity of the Company last known to the Bank. If sent by post it shall be regarded as having been made or given at noon on the second day following the day the letter was posted.
 - (b) By electronic means to the electronic mail address of the Company last known to the Bank. It shall be regarded as having been made or given at the time of transmission.
- 36. (a) This Debenture will be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and all claims and disputes (including non-contractual claims and disputes) arising out of or in connection with this Debenture, its subject matter, negotiation or formation will be determined in accordance with English law.
 - (b) Both the Company and the Bank submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales in relation to all claims, disputes, differences or other matters (including non-contractual claims, disputes, differences or other matters) arising out of or in connection with this Debenture.

Disclosure of Information

- 37. The Company consents to the disclosure by the Bank of any information about the Company, this Debenture, the charged property and the Debt:

Transfer of Rights

- (a) The Bank may transfer all or any of its rights under this Debenture and/or the Debt to any person to whom it is permitted to transfer all or any of its rights under the Facility Agreement.
- (b) If the Bank transfers all or any of its rights under this Debenture and/or the Debt, the Company's rights under this Debenture and/or the Debt (as the case may be) will stay exactly the same.
- (c) The Company will be bound to any person to whom the Bank transfers any such rights. That person will have the Bank's powers and rights so far as the Bank transfers these to that person. The Bank will be released automatically from its obligations to the Company so far as that person assumes the Bank's obligations.
- (d) The Company will at the expense of the Bank or the person to whom the rights are transferred, do anything reasonably requested by the Bank to effect a transfer of all or any of its rights under this Debenture and/or the Debt provided such transfer is made to a person to whom the Bank is permitted to transfer all or any of its rights under the Facility Agreement.

The Bank's written consent and reasonable requirement

- 39. (a) Where the words "without the Bank's written consent" appear in any Clause, the Bank will not unreasonably withhold consent. The Company agrees that it is reasonable for the Bank to refuse to consent to something if, in the Bank's reasonable opinion, it adversely affects or might affect:
 - (i) the Bank's security under this Debenture and its ability to enforce it;
