Report of the directors

The directors present their report and the financial statements of the company for the year ended 31 December 2012

Principal activities and business review

The company is principally engaged in the sale, hire and maintenance of forklift trucks, plant and associated equipment

There was a profit for the year after taxation amounting to £228,967 (2011 £344,518) No dividend was paid during the year (2011 £nil)

Summary of key performance indicators

The company uses a variety of financial and non-financial indicators to monitor performance versus budget and prior year The principal indicators are

	2012	2011
Sales growth	(0.33%)	8.33%
Operating profit margin	3.02%	4.32%

Sales and margins remain under pressure due to the continuing economic uncertainty and the company is investing in its sales force in order to strengthen its position in the market place, while constantly monitoring its cost base

The other key performance indicators include labour efficiencies, unit sales, order intake, salesman performance and margin analysis by region and business sector

Future developments for the business

The company continues to look at diversification in non-core activities to secure future growth It has also continued to invest in core activities to ensure the company is positioned to take advantage of any economic upturn

The company renewed its banking facilities in January 2012 and, based on a review of the company's forecasts, the directors are satisfied that the company will be able to operate within those facilities and settle its debts as they fall due for at least 12 months from the date of signing these financial statements

Principal risks and uncertainties

The management of the business and the nature of the company's strategy are subject to a number of risks

The directors set out below the principal risks facing the business

Competition

Competition remains very strong in the markets occupied by the company We continue to develop the product and widen the services we offer, in order to strengthen our market position

Economic Downturn

The slow-down in the economy has reduced the potential market for capital equipment. This is being addressed through an active marketing campaign, an effective sales presence in the marketplace and competitive pricing.

Cost Inflation

The company continues to review and benchmark its cost base, in order to ensure its competitiveness in the market place, through constant review of existing suppliers and by keeping an open dialogue with alternative sources of supply.

Financial risk management

The company uses various financial instruments including cash, finance leases, loans and items such as trade debtors and trade creditors that arise directly from its operations. The main purpose of these financial instruments is to raise finance for the company's operations.

The existence of these financial instruments exposes the company to a number of financial risks. The main risks arising from these financial instruments are currency risk, credit risk, interest rate risk and liquidity risk.

Currency risk

The company is exposed to foreign currency risk as it purchases trucks from its principal supplier in US $s. It limits this exposure through the use of forward purchase contracts.

Credit risk

The company's principal financial assets are cash and trade debtors. The credit risk associated with cash is minimal and so the principal credit risk arises on trade debtors. The company manages this risk by carrying out credit checks on new customers, setting credit limits for each customer and regular review of each debtor account. The overall credit risk is limited as no customer accounts for more than 10% of the company's sales.

Interest rate risk

The interest rates on the bank facilities are variable in line with the bank rate but the company's exposure to interest rate fluctuations is limited by the use of fixed rate finance leases.

Liquidity risk

The company seeks to manage liquidity risk by ensuring that sufficient liquidity is available to meet forecast needs. Short term flexibility is achieved through the use of an overdraft facility, letters of credit and import loans.

Principal accounting policies

Basis of accounting

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards and under the historical cost convention

The accounting policies remain unchanged from the previous year

Consolidation

The company is a wholly owned subsidiary of a UK company which produces group accounts. The company has therefore taken advantage of the exemption provided by Section 400 of the Companies Act 2006 not to prepare group accounts

Cash flow statement

The directors have taken advantage of the exemption in Financial Reporting Standard No 1 (Revised 1996) from including a cash flow statement in the financial statements on the grounds that the company is wholly owned and its parent publishes a consolidated cash flow statement

Turnover

Turnover shown in the profit and loss account represents income recognised during the year for goods supplied and services provided. Income from truck sales is recognised on despatch. Rental income from operating leases, excluding charges for services provided, is recognised on a straight line basis over the period of the lease. Service income is recognised over the period of the service.

Fixed assets

All fixed assets are initially recorded at cost

Depreciation

Depreciation is calculated so as to write off the cost of an asset, excluding freehold land, less its estimated residual value, over the useful economic life of that asset as follows

Freehold buildings	10% straight line
Short leasehold land and buildings	Period of lease
Plant and machinery	10 - 50% straight line

Stocks

Stocks are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value, after making due allowance for obsolete and slow moving items

Work in progress

Work in progress is stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value

Leased assets

Lessee

Assets held under finance leases and hire purchase contracts are capitalised in the balance sheet and depreciated over their expected useful economic lives. The interest element of leasing payments represents a constant proportion of the capital balance outstanding and is charged to the profit and loss account over the period of the lease.

All other leases are regarded as operating leases and the payments made under them are charged to the profit and loss account on a straight line basis over the lease term.

Lessor

Assets held for use in operating leases by the company are capitalised as fixed assets and depreciated over their useful economic life. Rental income from operating leases, excluding charges for services, are recognised on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

Provision for liabilities and charges

Where a warranty is granted on the sale of a truck, a provision is created in respect of the warranty costs estimated to arise over the warranty period.

Pension costs

The company operates a defined contribution pension scheme for employees. The assets of the scheme are held separately from those of the company. The annual contributions payable are charged to the profit and loss account.

Deferred taxation

Deferred taxation is recognised on all timing differences where the transactions or events that give the company an obligation to pay more tax in the future, or a right to pay less tax in the future, have occurred by the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets are recognised when it is more likely than not that they will be recovered.

Deferred tax is measured on an undiscounted basis at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the periods in which timing differences reverse, based on tax rates and laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date.

Foreign currencies

Assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rates of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date, unless covered by forward exchange contracts. Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rate of exchange ruling at the date of the transaction. Exchange differences are taken into account in arriving at the operating profit.

Financial instruments

Financial liabilities and equity instruments are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into. An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the entity after deducting all of its financial liabilities.

Where the contractual obligations of financial instruments (including share capital) are equivalent to a similar debt instrument, those financial instruments are classed as financial liabilities. Financial liabilities are presented as such in the balance sheet. Finance costs and gains or losses relating to financial liabilities are included in the profit and loss account. Finance costs are calculated so as to produce a constant rate of return on the outstanding liability.

Where the contractual terms of share capital do not have any terms meeting the definition of a financial liability then this is classed as an equity instrument. Dividends and distributions relating to equity instruments are debited direct to equity.
