Statement of directors' responsibilities

It is the responsibility of the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of its profit or loss for the year. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- ◆ Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- ◆ Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- ◆ State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- ◆ Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the United Kingdom Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards and on a going concern basis as the ultimate parent undertaking, which provides finance, has confirmed that it currently intends to continue to provide financial support for the foreseeable future to enable the company to meet its liabilities as they fall due.

2 Ultimate parent undertaking

The ultimate parent undertaking is Biwater Plc, which is registered in England and Wales.

3 Dormant status

The company was dormant within the meaning of Section 250(3) of the United Kingdom Companies Act 1985 throughout the financial year ended 31 March 2006.

For the year ended 31 March 2006 the company was entitled to exemption under section 249AA(1) of the Companies Act 1985. No members have required the company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with section 249B(2).

The directors acknowledge their responsibility for:

- Ensuring the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221;
- Preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of its financial year in accordance with section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.
