Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that year. In preparing these accounts the directors are required to:-

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The above report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies.

By Order of the Board

J Herbert
Director

NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS – 31 MARCH 2005

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

The accounts do not include a cashflow statement because the company, as a small reporting entity, is exempt from the requirement to prepare such a statement under Financial Reporting Standard 1 “Cash Flow Statements”.

Turnover

Turnover represents contributions from leaseholders towards the running costs of the company’s freehold property.

2. TAXATION

The company is not a trading company and therefore its activities do not create a charge to taxation.
