Statement of Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statement;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

DIRECTORS' REPORT

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

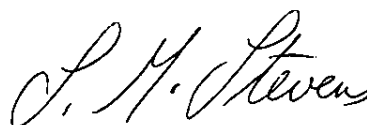

Audit

In the opinion of the Directors, the company is entitled to exemption for audit under Section 294A(1), Companies Act 1985.

Small Company Exemption

Advantage has been taken in the preparation of the directors' report of the special exemptions applicable to small companies conferred by Part VII of the Companies Act 1985.

APPROVED ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD on 5/11/2009 and signed on its behalf by:
