Notes to the Financial Statements

Year Ended 5 April 2018

1. Accounting policies

The following accounting policies have been applied consistently in dealing with items which are considered material in relation to the financial statements.

C. & J. Clark Pension Funds (Trustees) Limited is a company limited by shares and incorporated and domiciled in the UK.

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards, and under the historical cost accounting rules.

There are considered to be no significant judgements made by the directors, in the application of these accounting policies that have a significant effect on the financial statements and estimates with a significant risk of material adjustments in the next year.

Cash flow statement

The company is considered to be a qualifying entity under FRS 102 paragraphs 1.8 to 1.12 and has therefore taken the exemption to not prepare a Statement of Cash flow.

Related parties transactions

As the company is a wholly owned subsidiary of C. & J. Clark (Street) Limited, the company has taken advantage of the exemption under FRS 102 paragraph 33.1A and not disclosed transactions or balances with wholly-owned subsidiaries which form part of the group. The consolidated financial statements of C&J Clark Limited, within which the results of this Company are included, can be obtained from Companies House at the address shown in Note 6.

2. Income Statement

The company did not trade during the year and has made neither a profit nor a loss. No Income Statement therefore has been prepared.

3. Employees

The company had no employees during the year (2017: nil).

4. Directors' Remuneration

None of the directors received any emoluments in respect of their services to the company (2017: £nil) as their services are deemed to constitute a negligible portion of their time.
