Going concern

The directors believe that preparing the accounts on a going concern basis is appropriate due to continued financial support of the ultimate parent company A&P Group Limited. The directors have received confirmation that A&P Group Limited intends to support the company for at least one year after these financial statements are signed.

Statement of directors' responsibilities

The director is responsible for preparing the annual report and the unaudited financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the director has elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally. Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

In preparing those financial statements, the director is required to

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent

The director confirms that he has complied with the above requirements in preparing the financial statements

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable him to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. He is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

On behalf of the board

11 May 2011

Statement of accounting policies

Basis of accounting

These financial statements are prepared on the going concern basis under the historical cost convention, and in accordance with the Companies Act 2006 and applicable accounting standards in the United Kingdom

The principal accounting policies, which have been applied consistently throughout the year, are set out below

The validity of the going concern basis depends upon the continuing support of the parent Company. The directors of the ultimate controlling party have indicated a willingness to continue to support the company. On this basis the directors consider it appropriate to prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis.

Cash flow statement

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary and is exempt under the terms of Financial Reporting Standard No 1 "Cash flow statements" (revised 1996) from publishing a cash flow statement
