Governance and structure

Talking Newspapers Association of the United Kingdom (The) also known as TNAUK or National Talking Newspapers and Magazines (NTNM), is a registered charity (number 293656) and a company (number 01973092) limited by guarantee. The Charity is governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association, last revised in February 2010.

TNAUK is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Royal National Institute of Blind People (RNIB) and continues to exist as a shell charity to receive donations, which will be ring-fenced for the talking newspapers and magazines.

Governance of the Charity is the responsibility of the Trustees, of which on 31 March 2017 there were three.

Trustees are not remunerated.

The Trustees have taken into consideration the Charity Commission guidance on public benefit.

Risk management

The risk management process is handled by RNIB on behalf of Trustees.

Principal Activities

TNAUK exists as a shell charity to receive donations, which will be transferred to RNIB for use in the provision of talking newspapers and magazines.

Statement of Trustees responsibilities

The Trustees (who are also directors of the TNAUK for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations

Company law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP:
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable (UK) Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in business.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the charitable company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the charitable company's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.
