Notes to the Abbreviated Accounts for the period ended 31 December 2015*1 Accounting Policies*Basis of measurement and preparation of accounts

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective January 2015).

Other accounting policies*Financial instruments

Financial instruments are classified and accounted for, according to the substance of the contractual arrangement, as either financial assets, financial liabilities or equity instruments. An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the company after deducting all of its liabilities.

Contractual commitments

The company contracts with third parties in its own name for the supply of services to the property for maintenance of the common parts in accordance with the terms of the leases. At 31 December 2015 the company had not entered into any non-cancellable contractual commitments.

Service charge accounts

The company has no income or expenditure in its own right, all transactions in the year being related to the maintenance of common parts in accordance with the lease. Service charges collected are held on trust for the purpose of meeting the relevant costs in relation to the property in accordance with the provisions of section 42 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1987. Information relating to service charges is now dealt with as a separate statement of account.

Going concern

No material uncertainties that may cast significant doubt about the ability of the company to continue as a going concern have been identified by the directors.

BANK ACCOUNT

At the balance sheet date the company bank account held by HML Hathaways, as managing agent on behalf of the company for the property at 24/25 Stanley Crescent, contained £41,447 which is held on trust for the leaseholders under section 42 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1987. This amount is shown in the separate service charge accounts.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

No transactions with related parties were undertaken such as are required to be disclosed under FRSSE 15.

The lessees are the owners of the company and contribute to the service charge for the property in accordance with the proportions prescribed within their leases on an arms length basis.

There is no ultimate controlling party.
