Directors' report

The directors of The Copper Lamp Company Limited present their report and the accounts of the company for the year ended 31 December 2005.

Principal activities and review of the business

The company has been dormant throughout the financial year.

Results and dividends

During the year the company has not traded, has not incurred any liabilities and consequently, has made neither profit nor loss.

Directors

The directors of the company who held office during the year and up to the date of signing these accounts were:

Novar Nominees Limited
Rallip Holdings Limited

The directors have no interest in the shares or debentures in the company or any other company in the group that are required to be disclosed under schedule 7A of the Companies Act 1985. The company's ultimate parent undertaking, Honeywell International Inc., is incorporated outside the United Kingdom. As permitted by a statutory instrument, the register of directors' interests maintained in accordance with Section 325 of the Companies Act 1985 does not include the interests of directors in the shares of the ultimate parent undertaking.

Directors' responsibility for the financial statements

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each year which give a true and fair view of the company's state of affairs at the end of the year and of its profit or loss for the year.

In preparing these financial statements the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently, making judgements and estimates that are prudent and reasonable;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed; and
- prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
