THE HISTORY OF THE
CITY OF BOSTON
FROM 1630 TO 1830

The city of Boston, the largest and most important of the New England cities, was founded in 1630 by a group of Puritan settlers from England. The city grew rapidly, and by 1700 it was one of the largest cities in the colonies. It was the center of the American Revolution, and it played a major role in the development of the United States.
