DIRECTORS' REPORT

The directors present their report and statement of accounts of the company for the year ended 31 December 2003.

Principal activity

The company is a holding company for a group of companies whose principal businesses are specialised information and publishing.

Review of business and likely future developments

The directors consider that the result for the period and the position at the end of it are satisfactory and they expect the present level of activity to be sustained for the foreseeable future.

Results and dividends

The profit after taxation for the year amounted to £13,382,000 (2002 - loss of £54,000). The directors do not recommend the payment of a dividend (2002 - £nil).

Statement of directors' responsibilities

The directors are required by UK company law to prepare accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company at the year end and of the results of the company for the year then ended. In preparing the accounts, the directors are required to select suitable accounting policies, apply them consistently, and make reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates. The directors are required to prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business. The directors are also required to prepare the accounts in accordance with applicable accounting standards. The directors are further responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985, for taking reasonable steps in safeguarding the assets of the company and for preventing and detecting fraud and other irregularities. The directors confirm that they have complied with the above requirements in preparing the financial statements.

Directors

The directors of the company since 1 January 2003 are named below:-

N.J.W.Brockmann S.L.Jenner A.E.Kendall W.Lee Y.H.Tio-Parry

Directors' interests

None of the directors have any beneficial interest in the shares of the company or any other group companies. Non-beneficial interests of the directors in group companies are disclosed in the accounts of the respective companies. The interests of the directors in share options of group companies are disclosed in the notes to the accounts (see note 2). None of the directors had a beneficial interest in any contract to which the company or a subsidiary undertaking was a party during the year.

Auditors

The auditors, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, have indicated their willingness to continue in office.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF TTC (1994) LIMITED

We have audited the financial statements which comprise the profit and loss account, balance sheet, reconciliation of movements in shareholders' funds and the related notes to the accounts.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

The directors' responsibilities for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable United Kingdom law and accounting standards are set out in the statement of directors' responsibilities.

Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with relevant legal and regulatory requirements and United Kingdom Auditing Standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. This report, including the opinion, has been prepared for and only for the company's members as a body in accordance with Section 235 of the Companies Act 1985 and for no other purpose. We do not, in giving this opinion, accept or assume responsibility for any other purpose or to any other person to whom this report is shown or into whose hands it may come save where expressly agreed by our prior consent in writing.

We report to you our opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view and are properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985. We also report to you if, in our opinion, the directors' report is not consistent with the financial statements, if the company has not kept proper accounting records, if we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit, or if information specified by law regarding directors' remuneration and transactions is not disclosed.

Basis of audit opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company at 31 December 2003 and of its profit for the year then ended and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985.

NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS

1 Accounting policies

Basis of preparation

The accounts are prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable UK accounting standards.

As permitted by paragraph 5(a) of Financial Reporting Standard 1 (Revised) the company has not presented a cash flow statement.

As permitted by paragraph 3(c) of Financial Reporting Standard 8 the company has not disclosed any details of transactions or balances with other group companies.

Group accounts are not prepared as the company is a wholly owned subsidiary of another company incorporated in England and Wales.

Investments

Investments are stated at cost less any provision for permanent diminution in value.

2 Directors' emoluments

During the year no emoluments were paid by the company to the directors (2002 - £nil). However, the directors received emoluments from other group undertakings in respect of their services to the group.

At 31 December 2002 and 2003 Messrs N J W Brockmann and W Lee each held 1,170 share options under Thomson's 2000 Stock Incentive Plan. No share options were granted or exercised during the year.
