1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following accounting policies have been applied consistently in dealing with items which are considered material in relation to the company's financial statements.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the historical cost accounting rules as set out in Schedule 4 of the Companies Act 1985.

Turnover

Turnover represents amounts invoiced during the year, excluding value added tax.

Depreciation

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life:

| | | |
|------------------|---|-------------------------|
| Office Equipment | - | 25% on reducing balance |
| Office Furniture | - | 25% on reducing Balance |

Deferred Taxation

Provision is made for deferred taxation at 20% where the directors consider it probable that a reversal of timing differences will occur giving rise to an actual payment of tax. No provision is made where the directors consider timing differences will not be reversed or reversal will not result in an actual payment of tax.

Cashflow Statement

The company is a small company as defined under Section 246 and 247 of the Companies Act 1985 and therefore is exempt from preparing a cashflow statement.

ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS ON THE UNAUDITED ACCOUNTS OF SALEM SERVICES LIMITED

The following reproduces the text of the report prepared for the purposes of Section 249A(2) of the Companies Act 1985 in respect of the company's annual accounts from which the abbreviated accounts set out on pages 1 to 4 have been prepared.

"We report on the accounts for the year ended 28th February 2006 set out on pages 3 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of directors and reporting accountants

As described on page 4 the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts, and they consider that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out procedures designed to enable us to report our opinion.

Basis of opinion

Our work was conducted in accordance with the Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants, and so our procedures consisted of comparing the accounts with the accounting records kept by the company, and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the company as we considered necessary for the purposes of this report. These procedures provide only the assurance expressed in our opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion:

- (a) the accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the company under Section 221 of the Companies Act 1985;
- (b) having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records:
 - (i) the accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in Section 249C(6) of the Act; and
 - (ii) the company satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of the accounts for the year specified in Section 249A(4) of the Act and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in Section 249B(1)."
