Director's Report

The director presents their report together with the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2016.

The director has also taken advantage of the exemption from preparing a Strategic report available under section 414b of Companies Act 2006.

The Company has not traded during the year, has not received any income or incurred any expenditure, and consequently has made neither a profit nor a loss.

1 Results and dividends

The profit for the financial year amounted to £nil (2015: profit of £nil).

The balance sheet at 31 March 2016 is set out on page 4 and indicates net assets of £1.0m (2015: net assets of £1.0m).

2 Director

The director and secretary who served during the year are as listed on page 1. In accordance with the Articles of Association of the company the director is not required to retire by rotation.

3 Post balance sheet events

There have been no significant events since the balance sheet date.

4 Going concern

The company is dependent on ongoing financial support from a fellow group company. The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis which assumes adequate finance will be available for the foreseeable future.

5 Auditor

The Company was dormant (within the meaning of section 480 of the Companies Act 2006) throughout the period ended 31 March 2015 and consequently auditors have not been appointed, in accordance with section 476 of the Companies Act 2006.

On behalf of the Board:

Statement of director's responsibilities in respect of the Director's report and the financial statements

The director is responsible for preparing the Director's report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law they have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with UK Accounting Standards and applicable law (UK Generally Accepted Accounting Practice) including FRS 102 The financial reporting standard.

Under company law the director must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that year. In preparing these financial statements, the director is required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They have general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

The Company was dormant (within the meaning of section 480 of the Companies Act 2006) throughout the year ended 31 March 2016 and consequently auditors have not been appointed, in accordance with section 476 of the Companies Act 2006.

Notes on the Financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2016

1 Significant accounting policies

The following accounting policies have been applied consistently in dealing with items which are considered material in relation to the company's financial statements.

Basis of preparation

Keadby Developments (the "Company") is a company limited by shares and incorporated and domiciled in the UK.

The company has prepared dormant accounts for the year ended 31 March 2016.

These financial statements were prepared in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland ("FRS 102"). The presentation currency of these financial statements is sterling.

In the transition to FRS 102 from old UK GAAP, FRS 102 allows an entity to apply certain recognition and measurement exemptions to standard requirements. The entity being dormant, it has applied the exemptions available under the standard which allows the Company to retain its accounting policies for reported assets, liabilities and equity at the date of transition (being 1 April 2014) until there is any change to those balances or the Company undertakes new transactions.

2 Staff costs and numbers

The director did not receive any emoluments in respect of fees or services to the company in the year ended 31 March 2016 (2015: Nil).

No staff are employed by the Company.
