Directors Report

30 September 2008

The Directors present their annual report and the unaudited financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2008.

Review of developments

The Company has been dormant within the meaning of Section 249AA of the Companies Act 1985 throughout the year. It is anticipated that the Company will remain dormant for the foreseeable future.

Profit and loss account

No profit and loss account is presented with these financial statements because the Company has not received income, incurred expenditure or recognised any gains or losses during either the year under review or the preceding accounting period. There have been no movements in shareholders' funds during the year under review or the preceding accounting period.

Holding company

On 19 January 2009 the Electron House (Overseas) limited (wholly owned subsidiary of Avnet Inc.) acquired 100% shareholding of the Abacus Group plc (ultimate parent undertaking of the Company). Following this acquisition the ultimate parent undertaking of the Company is Avnet Inc.

Directors and interests in the share capital of the Holding Company

M.R. Kent and S. Maja served as directors throughout the year.

None of the directors has any interest in the shares of the company. As at 30 September 2008 M R Kent was a director of the then ultimate holding company, Abacus Group plc. His interests in Abacus Group Plc are shown in its annual accounts. S.Maja held 80,192 (2007- 80,192) shares in Abacus group Plc. In addition S.Maja held options to subscribe 137,952 (2007- 137,952) shares

Raymond J. Sadowski, Peter Bielefeld, David R. Birk and Patrick Zammit were appointed as directors on 20 April 2009.

Statement of Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Notes to the accounts

30 September 2008

1. Accounting Policy

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards. The particular accounting policy adopted is described below.

Accounting convention

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention.

2. Profit and loss account

No profit and loss account is presented with these financial statements because the company has not received income, incurred expenditure or recognised any gains or losses during either the year under review or the preceding financial year. There have been no movements in shareholders' funds during the year under review or the preceding financial year.

3. Related party transactions

Financial Reporting Standard 8 exempts the company from disclosing details of related party transactions with other group companies as it is a wholly owned subsidiary and as the accounts of Abacus Group plc are available to the public. The cost of the annual return fee was borne by the Company's parent company without any right of reimbursement.

4. Equity shareholders' funds

Share capital	2008 £	2007 £
Authorised share capital: 100 (2007-100) Ordinary shares of £1 each	100	100
Allocated, Called-up and Fully-paid: 2 (2007-2) Ordinary shares of £1 each	2	2

5. Post balance sheet events and Ultimate Holding Company

On 19 January 2009 the Electron House (Overseas) limited (wholly owned subsidiary of Avnet Inc.) acquired 100% shareholding of the Abacus Group plc (ultimate parent undertaking of the Company). Following this acquisition the ultimate parent undertaking of the Company is Avnet Inc.

Directors believe the above change in ultimate parent undertaking is not an adjusting post balance sheet event under FRS21.
