1. Report of the Directors

The directors present their annual report with the accounts of the company for the year to 31st October 1995.

1.1 Principal Activity

The principal activity of the company in the period under review is the provision of services in the field of information technology.

1.2 Directors

The directors in office during the period and their beneficial interests in the company's issued ordinary share capital were as follows:

	31st October 1995	31st October 1994
G. Watson	99	99

1.3 Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts;
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

1.4 Political and Charitable Contributions

During the period the company made no political or charitable contributions.

1.5 Auditors

Under the Companies Act 1985 (Audit Exemption) Regulations 1994, the company has not appointed any auditors..

In preparing the above report, the directors have taken advantage of the special exemptions applicable to small companies.

The directors have taken advantage of special exemptions conferred by Schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985 applicable to small companies in the preparation of the accounts and have done so on the grounds that, in their opinion, the company is entitled to those exemptions.

The exemption conferred by S249A(1) not to have these accounts audited applies to the company and the directors confirm that no notice has been deposited under S249B(2) of the Companies Act 1985.

The directors acknowledge their responsibility for ensuring that:

- 1) The company keeps accounting records which comply with S221 of the Companies Act 1985, and
- 2) The accounts give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at 31st October 1995 and of its profit or loss for the period then ended in accordance with the requirements of S226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 1985 relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.

4. Notes to the Accounts for the year to 31st October 1995

4.1 Accounting Policies

4.1.1 Basis of Accounting

The accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

4.1.2 Cash Flow

The accounts do not contain a cash flow statement because the company, as a small reporting entity, is exempt from the requirement to prepare such a statement under Financial Reporting Standard 1 - 'Cash Flow Statements'.

4.1.3 Turnover

Turnover represents net invoiced services, excluding VAT.

4.1.4 Tangible Fixed Assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life:

Computer Hardware and Software	33 1/3 % per annum on a reducing balance basis
Office Equipment	33 1/3 % per annum on a reducing balance basis

4.1.5 Deferred Taxation

Provision is made at current rates of taxation deferred in respect of all material timing differences except to the extent that, in the opinion of the directors, there is reasonable probability that the liability will not arise in the foreseeable future.

4.2 Turnover

Turnover is wholly attributable to the geographical market within the UK.
