NOTES

1. The original instrument (if any) creating or evidencing the charge, together with these prescribed particulars correctly completed must be delivered to the Registrar of Companies within 21 days after the date of creation of the charge (section 395). If the property is situated and the charge was created outside the United Kingdom delivery to the Registrar must be effected within 21 days after the date on which the instrument could in due course of post, and if dispatched with due diligence, have been received in the United Kingdom (section 398). A copy of the instrument creating the charge will be accepted where the property charged is situated and the charge was created outside the United Kingdom (section 398) and in such cases the copy must be verified to be a correct copy either by the company or by the person who has delivered or sent the copy to the Registrar. The verification must be signed by or on behalf of the person giving the verification and where this is given by a body corporate it must be signed by an officer of that body. A verified copy will also be accepted where section 398(4) applies (property situated in Scotland or Northern Ireland) and Form No. 398 is submitted.
2. A description of the instrument, eg "Trust Deed", "Debenture", "Mortgage", or "Legal charge", etc, as the case may be, should be given.
3. In this section there should be inserted the amount or rate per cent, of the commission, allowance or discount (if any) paid or made either directly or indirectly by the company to any person in consideration of his;
 - (a) subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, or
 - (b) procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditionalfor any of the debentures included in this return. The rate of interest payable under the terms of the debentures should not be entered.
4. If any of the spaces in this form provide insufficient space the particulars must be entered on the prescribed continuation sheet.

Amount due or owing on the mortgage or charge (cont.)

All costs (including legal costs), charges and expenses reasonably incurred or sustained by the Society or any person appointed (and any additional person or persons appointed or substituted) as administrative receiver manager or receiver and manager by the Society under the Charge (the "Receiver") (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any such costs, charges and expenses arising from any act or omission of, or proceedings involving any third person) in connection with:

- (a) the investigation of title to or any survey, inspection or valuation of the charged property under or in connection with the Charge, and the preparation, registration, or perfecting of the Charge (or any of the charges or mortgages therein contained), or any other document entered into between the Company and the Society;
- (b) the transfer of charged property to and from the Society (including any handling, transfer or registration costs, taxes or interest), the holding, administration and transfer of charged property (including costs, charges and expenses incurred in holding, administering and transferring such property in, into or out of or within any clearance or settlement system or securities depository) and, where the Society consents in accordance with the terms of the Charge, the release of the charged property or its release in accordance with the terms of the Charge when the Company has no further obligations under any Covenant to Pay;
- (c) the exercise or the attempted or purported exercise, or the consideration of the exercise, by or on behalf of the Society or the Receiver or any of the powers of the Society or the Receiver, and the enforcement, preservation or attempted preservation of the Charge or the charged property or any other action taken by or on behalf of the Society with a view to or in connection with the recovery by the Society of the monies and liabilities which the Company has covenanted to pay and discharge pursuant to the Charge and all claims, demands and damages for breach of any such covenant from the Company or any other person; and
- (d) the carrying out or consideration of any other act or matter which the Society or the Receiver may consider to be for the preservation, improvement or benefit of the charged property.

All amounts payable by the Company to the Society or the Receiver pursuant to the indemnity granted by the Company from and against all losses, actions, claims, costs (including legal costs) expenses, demands and liabilities whether in contract, tort, or otherwise now or hereafter sustained or incurred by the Society or the Receiver or by any person for whose liability, act or omission the Society or the Receiver may be answerable, in connection with anything done or omitted under the Charge or any other document relating thereto, or in the exercise or purported exercise of the powers contained therein the transfer of charged property to and from the Society (including any handling, transfer or registration costs, taxes or interest), or in the holding, administration and transfer of charged property (including costs, charges and expenses incurred in holding, administering and transferring such property in, into, or out of or within any clearance or settlement system or securities depository), or, where the Society consents in accordance with the terms of the Charge, in the release of the charged property or its release in accordance with the terms of the Charge when the Company has no further obligations under any Covenant to Pay, or occasioned by any breach by the Company of any of its covenants or other obligations to the Society or any of its warranties or representations proving to be inaccurate when given or repeated pursuant to the Charge, or in consequence of any payment in respect of the monies and liabilities which the Company has covenanted to pay (whether made by the Company or a third person) being declared void or impeached for any reason whatsoever. The indemnity does not apply in respect of losses, actions, claims, costs, expenses, demands or liabilities arising from fraud, wilful default or negligence on the part of the Society or the Receiver.

All fees charged from time to time by the Society in connection with the holding, administration or transfer of the charged property or the substitution of Mortgaged Securities, including any charges relating to the exercise of the Society's powers under the Charge.
