The company has not traded during the current or preceding financial periods. During these periods, the company received no income and incurred no expenditure and therefore made neither profit nor loss, nor any other recognised gains or losses.

These annual accounts have not been audited because the company is entitled to the exemption provided by s480 Companies Act 2006 relating to dormant companies and its members have not required the company to obtain an audit of these accounts in accordance with s476. The directors acknowledge their responsibilities for ensuring that the company keeps accounting records that comply with s386 and s387 Companies Act 2006. The directors also acknowledge their responsibilities for preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year and of its profit or loss for the financial year in accordance with s394 and s395 Companies Act 2006, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of that Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.

These accounts have been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies subject to the small companies regime.
