DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES
Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for the financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for the period. In preparing the accounts, the directors are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- Follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts
- Prepare accounts on an on-going basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose, with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence, for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
In preparing the above report, the directors have taken advantage of the special exemptions applicable to small companies.
