Dear Sir or Madam

Ben & Jerry's Homemade Limited (In Members' Voluntary Liquidation)

E A Bingham and I were appointed as Joint Liquidators of the company on 21 December 2010. I can advise you that we are now in a position to conclude the liquidation.

In accordance with Section 94 of the Insolvency Act 1986, a final meeting of members has been called for today, 18 November 2011.

This letter constitutes our final progress report to members, which is being presented to the meeting.

We are required to provide certain information about the company and the liquidators in accordance with the provisions of the Insolvency Rules 1986. This information has been provided previously to members.

Progress during the period of the report

The Declaration of Solvency sworn by the Directors indicated that the company's only asset at the date of liquidation was an intercompany receivable of £1 due from the sole shareholder. This receivable was distributed in specie to the shareholder on 28 September 2011.

The company was dormant for Corporation Tax purposes and as such, was not required to submit final returns to HM Revenue & Customs. It is customary to seek confirmation from the tax authorities that they have no objection to the closure of the liquidation. HM Revenue & Customs have confirmed that they have no objection to the closure of the liquidation.

Joint liquidators' remuneration

The Joint Liquidators' remuneration is paid by a group company.

Members' rights to further information about, and challenge, remuneration and expenses

In certain circumstances, members are entitled to request further information about our remuneration or expenses, or to apply to court if members consider the costs to be excessive. Further information has been provided previously.

Other matters

Once the final meeting has concluded we will file our final return and account at Companies House, at which point we will vacate office and receive our release. Approximately three months after the filing of the final return and account, the company will be dissolved by the Registrar of Companies.

Yours faithfully
for Ben & Jerry's Homemade Limited

K L Trigg
Joint Liquidator
