(c) of any expenses whatsoever (collectively referred to as New American Business expenses") from time to time incurred in connection with or arising out of any New American Business (reference to such expenses throughout the 1995 American Instrument (Corporate Members) excluding any Non-deductible Item but including any annual fee commission other remuneration and reimbursement of outlays payable by the Corporate Member to any of the Corporate Member's Agents or Lloyd's or to the Regulatory Trustee or except where so excluded to any other person in connection with the conduct or winding-up of any New American Business and including also any fiscal liabilities incurred in or by reason of any New American Business or in respect of the Dollar Trust Fund or its income)

The 1995 American Instrument (Corporate Members) declares for the avoidance of doubt that in any and every case where at the time of the amendment of the 1995 American Instrument (Corporate Members) on 25 April 1996 there remained held as part of the Dollar Trust Fund any assets which were then due to have been (but had not actually been) paid transferred or otherwise vested in or under the control of the Managing Agent's Trustees of the relevant Managing Agent as assets of the PTD Trust Fund in accordance with the requirement to that effect ("the Previous Requirement") imposed by the Proviso previously contained in sub-clause 4(b) of the 1995 American Instrument (Corporate Members) then in any and every such case (following the amendment on 25 April 1996) all such assets as aforesaid shall remain held as part of the Dollar Trust Fund entirely freed and discharged from the Previous Requirement.

2. Where only a proportion or part of any Underwriting payment or expense relates to any New American Business and the remaining proportion or part thereof relates to Old American Business the payment or discharge out of the Dollar Trust Fund of the proportion or part determined by the Relevant Managing Agent as relating to New American Business.

3. If and to the extent that in any such case as under 2 above the proportion of part of any such Underwriting payment or expense so determined to relate to New American Business shall have already been paid or discharged out of the Existing American Instrument (whether by way of loan or otherwise) payment in respect thereof out of the Dollar Trust Fund to the Trustee of the Existing American Instrument in reimbursement of the payment or discharge out of the Existing American Instrument.

4. Transfers of the Dollar Trust Fund and the income thereof as an addition to the PTD Trust Fund to be held upon and with and subject to the trusts powers and provisions declared and contained in the Corporate Member's PTD.

5. If and whenever the Relevant Managing Agent so requests or the Council by notice in writing addressed to the Managing Agent's Dollar Trustees of the Relevant Managing Agent (at the address of the Relevant Managing Agent last recorded at Lloyd's) so directs, the payment or transfer or vesting or placing by the Managing Agent's Dollar Trustees of the Relevant Managing Agent to the extent specified in the request or direction (whether specified as an amount or value or by identifying specific assets or otherwise) of assets comprised in the Dollar Trust Fund to, in or under the control of such trustees or trustee of any other Overseas Fund or of the PTD Trust Fund as may be so specified to be held thereafter as part of the specified Overseas Fund or (as the case may be) the PTD Trust Fund (save only that any such request made by the Relevant Managing Agent shall be confined to and shall only be given effect to out of assets which are then vested in or under the control of all or any of the Managing Agent's Dollar Trustees of the Relevant Managing Agent).

6. Where there is dealing with, in the manner required or authorised by the Central Accounting System of Lloyd's (and including the payment or transfer through Lloyd's Central Distribution System and holding and investing in Lloyd's Central Trust Account) any premiums monies or other assets received on behalf of the Corporate Member and comprised or becoming comprised in the Dollar Trust Fund, the payment by deduction therefrom by Lloyd's of an appropriate charge calculated by reference to the value of assets handled towards reimbursing it for the costs of setting up and providing such service.

"Offshore Dollar Business Regulatory Deposit" means any Overseas Business Regulatory Deposit (not being a Continental Business Regulatory Deposit) which (or any fund subject or relating to which) the Corporate Member is for the time being required to keep in funds or to provide (whether on an individual or syndicate or group or other basis) as a regulatory or other condition or requirement (whether imposed by the Council of Lloyd's or by any governmental or regulatory authority having jurisdiction in or in any part of any overseas territory) in order to enable the Corporate Member (or any relevant syndicate or group or Managing Agent) to conduct (or more efficiently to conduct) any business which constitutes or which if conducted would constitute Offshore New American Business.

"Overseas Business Regulatory Deposit" means any U.S. Surplus Lines Trust Deed or U.S. Reinsurance Trust Deed (as respectively defined in the 1995 American Instrument (Corporate Members)) or any other deposit trust deed (including any joint asset trust deed) or any company bank account letter of credit guarantee or other entity whatsoever (wheresoever situate in any part of the world) -

(1) which (and any and every amendment variation or restatement of which) is approved by the Secretary of State and

(2) which (or any fund subject or relating to which) the Corporate Member is for the time being required to keep in funds or to provide (whether on an individual or syndicate or group or other basis) as a regulatory or other condition or requirement (whether imposed by the Council of Lloyd's or by any governmental or regulatory authority having jurisdiction in or in any part of any overseas territory) in order to enable the Corporate Member (or any relevant syndicate or group or Managing Agent) to conduct (or more efficiently to conduct) any business which constitutes or which if conducted would constitute (having regard to clause 4(h) of the Corporate Members' PTD) part of the Underwriting relating to a particular overseas territory. Reference in this definition to a connection with an overseas territory or to (or to a connection with) the Underwriting relating to a particular overseas territory shall (without prejudice to the generality of such expressions) include cases where the only or principal connection or relationship with the overseas territory is that the liability of the Corporate Member in respect of the underwriting business in question is expressed in the currency of that overseas territory and that the premium relating to such business has been paid or is payable in the currency of that overseas territory.

All expressions identified in this Form have the meanings given unless the context otherwise requires.

References to any statutory provision shall after the coming into force of any legislation replacing or amending that provision (or replacing or amending any replacing provision) be read (unless the context otherwise requires) as referring to the new replacing legislation or the provision (or replacing provision) as so amended.

References to any provision of the 1995 American Instrument (Corporate Members) or to the Instrument shall after the coming into force of any variation or amendment of that provision of the Instrument be read (unless the context otherwise requires) as referring to the varied or amended provision or to the Instrument as so varied or amended (as the case may be).
